4

W

CM

3

The Carleton Place Herald

JAMES POOLE. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOI

> Only One Dollar a Year. IN ADVANCE.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at the cents each subsequent insertion; six to ten lines first insertion, $1,00, and 30 cents each subsequent insertion; above ten lines, to cents per line for the first insertion; and 3 cents a line for each subsequent insertion. The number of lines in an advertisement to ascertained by the space which it occupies in a he thought it was time to bring matters to a matrimonial crisis, counseled with his friend Mose Higgins upon the subject. "I ups and told Mose," says he, "all about it."— "And says I to Mose, 'I had you just as lieves ask her for me. He said he had.—

I had to get up and stomp and thrash my hands to keep them from freezin'. Ten o'clock, then eleven struck, and still

At last just about midnight-when I'd got to be little better'n a freezing tater, out he

I rushed up to him, and with a shakin' voice, Mo-Mo-Mosc, says I, what at dus she. she sa-a-ay? says I.
"Dan'l," says he, "pon my soul, I for-

Just six weeks arter, Mose and Liddy which was twain, was one flesh forever.

A HAPPY WOMAN,-Men make terrible mistakes when they marry for beauty, for those who possess the magic secret of being or poor, high or low, it makes no difference; the bright little fountain of joy bubbles up just as musically in their hearts. Do they live in a log cabin? the firelight that leaps on its humble hearth becomes brighter than the gilded chandeliers in an Aladdin palace.

Have you ever watched an icicle as it Have you ever watched an icicle as it formed? You noticed how it froze one drop at a time, until it was a foot long or more. If the water was clean, the icicle remained clear, and sparkled in the sun; but if the water was but slightly muddy, the icicle looked foul, and its beauty was spoiled.—Just so our characters are forming. One little thought or feeling at a time adds its influence. If every thought be pure and right, the soul will be lovely, and will sparkle with happiness; but if impure and wrong, there will always be wretchedness.

It is not always a mark of kindness to possess an open countenance. An alligator is a deceitful creature, and yet he presents an open countenance when in the very act of

The flower of love can never flourish upon a soil that is not moistened by the dews of respect and admiration.

SERVE 'EM RIGHT.—Tradesmen often lose their custom as field sportsmen do their fin gers-by high charges. When is a fish like a bird? When it takes a fly. There are two classes of disappointed lov-ers; those who are disappointed before mar-riage, and the more unhappy who are disappointed after it.

Kind words breathed by the lips of dear ones, are often more valuable than golden

Gossip is one of the meanest as well as one of the most degraded crimes that society tolerates.

VALUABLE RECEIPTS.

To make a nice jam-lay your head under a descending pile driver! To see if a man is your friend-make love

To get the frost out of your fingers-put them in hot water ! To be ahead of time-carry your watch

To see how hard a man strikes-tell him

To have tarts for tea-let your wife see

To tell if you love a girl—have some tal-low headed chap go and see her.

DREADFUL SUFFERING AND LOSS

In the Montreal General Hospital at

THE DEAD COME TO LIFE AGAIN .-This morning our respected and worthy jailor was favored with a visit at the prison from a youth of some sixteen or seventeen years of age, by name Cindal Alexander Burns, supposed to have been murdered by his father and mother—residents of Bolton—about the 27th of last month. The joint Coroners, Messrs. Foster and Chamberlain, held an inquest on the occasion—the sister of the boy made the affidavit upon which proceedings were taken the burned bones of a horse were taken the burned bones of to be those of the boy, and the parties impli-cated were committed to prison. There they —the parents—still remain, and we suppose the parents—still remain, and the parents—still remain, and the nust do so, until by writ of habeas corpus they are liberated. The delight of the mother at seeing her sou—the joy of the father at being relieved from the horrible charge of murdering his child, can better be magined than discribed. There is somehing strange about this whole case—strange n the conduct of the sister—in the action of the Coroners, and in the verdict of the jury.
We are told that the father was not in his

The American civil war continues to be he great topic of interest in England, where the great topic of interest in England, where already its effects are experienced in the money market. An English journal of a late date alluding to the immediate effects and possible consequences of the strife, says:

The Bank of England, true to the instinct of self preservation, has advanced the rates of interest from five to six per cent, in consequence of the drain of bullion which the present state of things in America is producing. How far this operation will remove the cause, a little time will show; but the Bank will go further in the same direction if circumstances warrant it. The increase already its effects are experienced in the money market. An English journal of a late date alluding to the immediate effects you kiss the waiting maid. A sure thing.

To see if a girl loves you—ask her like a man.

The Bank of England, true to the instinct of self preservation, has advanced the rates of interest from five to six per cent, in consequence of the drain of bullion which the GRAND TRUNK ADVANCES. paying out of the public money by those who, for the time being, hold the purse strings, without the knowlege and sanction to which so many brave men are necessarily exposed while engaged in the arduous duties of a seafearing life.

On the 5th of March last, the brigantine Perservance, 195 tons, Captain Wilson, belonging to Strangford, near Belfast, Ireland, sailed from Hamburg for John's, Newfoundland, laden with a cargo consisting principally of bread in tags, consigned to Messrs. Bowring Brothers. The crew consisted of nine men, besides the captain. Everything went on fairly until the night of Tuesday, the 9th of April, when the ship got suddenly among the ice at a distance of about 150 miles from port. All hands were called upon deck, but nothing could be done to save the ship, which sunk almost immediately, being literally broken in two by the immense pressure of the ice. The crew had but a quarter of an hour in which to lower the boat and throw in a small quantity of provisions. In the morning the ten men to seve the short and throw in a small quantity of provisions. In the morning the ten men to seve the sent Ministry it has been one of the provision of the province, through, its representatives. And if there is one thing above all others which the people ought immediately to punish at the polls, this certainly is that thing; for, if left unpunished, national beggary is our unquestionable portion. And if the country is to be aaved at all, the people must themselves do it, as unfortunately there is no impeaching a Canadian Minister for corrupt practices, as there is ne impeaching a Canadian Minister for corrupt practices, as there is ne impeaching a Canadian Minister for corrupt practices, as there is ne impeaching a Canadian Minister for corrupt practices, as there is ne impeaching a Canadian Minister for corrupt practices, as there is ne impeaching a Canadian Minister for corrupt practices, as there is ne impeaching a Canadian Minister for corrupt practices, as there is ne impeaching a Canadian Minister for corrupt practices, as there is ne impeaching a Canadian Minister for corrupt practices, as there is ne impeaching a Ca lieves ask her for me. He said he had.—
So to make a long story short, one bitter cold night, Mose and I started for the house where Lidy lived.

It was agreed that I should stay in the wood shed, while Mose went in and sot matters right. Mose knocked at the door and went in, and I sot down on a chopping log so wait the issoo.

Mose thought he could fix things in half an hour, and it war eight o'clock when he went in, and I calculated on bein' in Paradise about half arter; but there I sot and sot, till I heern the clock strike nine, then I had to get up and stomp and thrash my expecting a similar fate, had barely strength to throw overboard the bodies of their companions. The remaining five seamen rapidly gave way under the combined effects of want of food and exposure, and drooping off one by one, in several instances madness seizing the matter; and Canada, instead of would not owe a shilling if they had never had such power. Who can forget that these them before death took place. The captain says that the most painful circumstance conected with the catastroph was seeing several certain clergymen? It might have been vessels at different times passing by out that they were entitled to it, and that it of hailing distance, and too far off to notice would have been voted by Parliament, but the small black speck upon the ocean presented by the small boat. On the 27th of and there could have been no pressing emer-April, however, the bark Lord Peter, Captain Brown, observed the boat bore, down towards it, and took off Captain Wilson, who was then the only surviver. When rescued have trouble with Parliament about the from his horrible situation two of the crew were lying beside him, dead and he himself appeared like a skeleton, not having tasted any kind of food for upwards of five days. any kind of food for upwards of five days. when picked up by Captain Brown, the boat was in latitude 46.25 N, and longtitude 46.06 W. Captain Wilson had altogether 18 days in it. He received the greatest kindness and most judicious treatment from Captain Brown, whose hospitality he enjoyed for twenty-five days before the Lord Peter's arrived at this port, it having been found necessary to remain at Quebec several days. All that Captain Wilson now complains of is a partial paralysis in the feet occasioned by their long soaking in sea water. This, however, will take but a few days to cure.

same men have given Mr. McMicken, the steady supporter from Welland, some $2,000 without consent of Parliament, for alleged arrears, but in reality to pay him for his vote, yet there was no sudden emergency, except the certainty that its refusal by Parliament; if asked for, would have been rather sudden. And then, the casual advantages of Ryersonian notoriety, who can forget them 1—two or three nice plams of $5,000 each, of which Parliament never heard a whisper till the money was gone; where was the pressing emergency calling for the exercise of their discretion? The "advances" to the Grand Trunk (and their name is legion), of which Trunk (and their name is legion), of which three Ministers of the Crown are salaried three Ministers of the Crown are salaried officials, where were the emergencies which could not await the meeting of Parliament? Oh! the track got blocked up with snow, and they had no money to pay for clearing it off. We would ask the people of Canada in all seriousness, are we to become the hereditary snow-shovellers of the Grand Trunk? but this was mere fustion; the truth was, but this was mere fustian; the truth was, arrears were due to the servants of the company, and Messieurs Ross, Galt, Cartier & Co. wanted their pay; if the Grand Trunk had no money they knew a friend that would advance it, of course, upon the best securities, which should be approved of by Ross, Galt, Cartier, & Co., who, as they wanted their money badly, were not very technical in their scrutiny of the securities. Now this matter of advances to the Grand Trunk had become so serious, and totted up so this matter of advances to the Grand Trunk had become so serious, and totted up so many millions, that the people would no longer endure it, so at the elections which have recently taken place, it was made a test question; and when at length the people got a Minister of the Crown before them, they put the test to him in no uncertain terms. We ourselves heard Solicitor General Morrison at public meetings in Gray terms. We ourselves heard Solicitor General Morrison at public meetings in Grey senses; but it is said also there are other reasons why the charge of murder against both parents was made. As the matter is likely to furnish ground for further inquiry, we forbear observations for the present.—

Pilot

Trunk." Yet will it be credited that on the very doy he was announcing this policy to the electors of that constituency, the government were actually paying over in hard cash to the Grand Trunk $600,

To tell if you love a girl—have some tallow headed chap go and see her.

Cort of Kepiso A Horse.—The American Agriculturist says that a horse weighing one thousand pounds, and being worked more or less, several times a week, can be well kept on fifteen pounds of hay (five pounds at each meal) with three quarties. The following are the unsue cort, or six quarts of one product in the same of the country, that a mojority was found on the foot of Parliament to whitewash the prices of hey give to not at the barn, and onto your products of the country and th with miniature American fags and patriotic wern, Palace street, Toronto, upon the body breast-pins, and that a robin comes there overy morning and whistles Yankee Doodle of Water Branch and the company and instantly killed. The over the proposition of a man named James Good, who was run overy morning and whistles Yankee Doodle over by a car that afternoon on the Grand Trunk Railway and instantly killed. The form the proposition to any proposition as to that of aiding still further by appropriations from the public treasury the first were the people of Canada as unanimous in their opposition to any proposition as to that of aiding still further by appropriations from the public treasury the first was the venility of the committee.

A fleet is expected to sail on the 22nd for this, but let the elections come for this.

A fleet is expected to sail on the 22nd manner to this, but let the elections come for this.

A fleet is expected to sail on the 22nd manner to this manner that there has been a decided for Beyrout to bring the French army home.

A fleet is expected to sail on the 22nd manner to this manner than the proposition of the manner than the propos vince to the support of that rand bogus enterprise, and not a penny of this vast amount will take them to task for their conduct at the approaching general election. For while they are supported by such men there will some of themselves—the Hon. John Ross, a member of the Government, being also Presurely to be deemed a sufficiently liberal contribution to an eleemosy ary purpose.—

The needy, hungry vamp as who fatten upon the hard earnings of se industrious farmers and artizans of Can a, ought surely to be satisfied with this. Jut no. They desire more; and the corrupt onists who now control the public affairs of Canada, in opposition to every principle of justice, of truth of honour and common hones, are perfect-willing, regardless of the just complaints of the Province were their own private property, to be dispensed by them to suit their own whim or pleasure, or to accomplish their own private ends.

From thi Ingersoll Chronicle.

Already sorely crippled by the enormous taxation yearly levied upon them, the honest yeomanry, who have to labour for their and in direct violation of the constitution.

That it is a violation of the constitution no one will dare deny—and a gross violation striking at the very foundation of Responsi ble Government, and rendering it nugatory, and of no avail. Where is the use of sendpurpose of saying how and in what manner the funds of the Province shall be expended, when Ministers of the Crown, without conand never will derive one per cent?

From the Perth Courier.

criminality to advance $1,174,436 to the Grand Trunk Company. Great and multitudinous as have been the acts of corruption tudinous as have been the acts of corruption and extravagance perpetrated by the Coalition Ministry, this last gift to the Grand Trunk caps the climax. The elections are approaching, however, and let the people mark the men the supported the Ministry in this unconstitutional and criminal waste of the public money. If the people will not put their shoulders to the wheel at the elections and by their states and the states and the states and the states are the states ar tions and by their votes rid the country of the curse of Coalition rule, then they deserve to be burdened and ground down with taxation. Four years more of Coalition rule, taxation. Four years more of Coalition rule, and the present enormous national debt of seventy millions will be increased to a hundred millions. Are the people prepared to sanction such a state of things?

From the London News.

It will be recollected that at the opening of this session, the Government intimated it was not their intention to particularly and the Participants. this Parliament, a Relief Bill for the Gra this Parliament, a Relief Bill for the Grand Trunk. That was a seeming homage to the force of public opinion. In the issue before last we stated that this pledge had been substantially broken by their grant, without authority of Parliament, of $170,000 to the bankrupt line. Since then, thanks to the searching questions of Mr. Dorion, it turns out that the sum taken from the Treasury is certailly one willion are handred and out that the sum taken from the Treasury is actually one million, one hundred and seventy-four thousand dollars! We are not shocked. It is in keeping with their entire history. They defy public sentiment and trample on constitutional maxims. By a majority of ten the House has approved this plundering of the Provincial purse, and the ever ready Ministerial aids were on hand at the vote. We need not mention Messrs. Benjamin, Macbeth, McMicken, Carling and the rest; any one accustomed to study political events might have sworn they would rush to the rescue. These are facts to be remembered when the reckoning day arrives. At present the people can only look on.

From the Guelph Advertiser. When the House met, Ministers with a great show of virtue and patriotism, announced that they would not introduce any measure of relief this session, but still carefully concealed all knowledge that any aid had been given. Subsequently it was admitted that $120,000 had been advanced. Now how stands the case? On Friday last Mr. Dorion stated and Mr. Galt admitted it true, that one million one hundred and seventy-four thousand dollars had been advanced to the Grand Trunk.

nation against the Government through the Province. In this act they have capped the sented to alter this state of things; and if the Ministry be supported by Upper Canadians at the coming elections, after all the mischief they have entailed upon the country

| And hope it would not originally perhaps have voted the money, but they white-washed the men who squandered it.

| From the Montreal Herald. mischief they have entailed upon the country they will deserve all they have got.

From the Cornwall Freeholder.

Grand Trunk, are wholly indefensible. By skilful jugglery with the figures of the ac-

How any man making any pretence to common honesty, after disclosures such as these, can continue knowingly to support an Administration so thoroughly debased, so irrecoverably sunk in the mire of political degradation as are Cartier and his colleagues, surpasses our comprehension.

From the Waterloo Chronicle.

allowed by the Government to go before the country with its present ugly appearances the vote of the house in sustaining the advance thus made without the authority of Parliament will be justly regarded as a more flagrant outrage than the advance which more flagrant outrage than the advance which it approved. As the Montreal Witness justly says, "After this our Ministers will need to be immaculate men; for by this vote Parliament has given them carte blanche to plunder the public, and divide the spoils as they chose." removed from that place; and with respect to the question as to whether any requisition had been made of the commander inchief of her Majesty's forces in Canada for a larger body of men, he had to say that a representation was made some time ago for a larger force, it not being as large as formerly.

From the Bowmanville Statesman It is no manner of use talking of Respo this no manner of use talking of Responsible Government, backed as they are by their Lower Canadian majority. Any amount of money may be advanced for any purpose whatever, and that too in the face of the majority of the people of the country, but a Lower Canadian majority representation the codes of the Barket.

To vote that A. T. Galt & Co., of the Upper Canadian Government, are justified in handing over to the Grand Trunk Company, whereof the said Galt and one of the least of his colleagues are deeply interested members, more than $1,000,000 in hard cash, without consulting Parliament, after all that has been done for the huge monopoly is surely too much.

From the Brockville Reco Will our readers believe that during past year the Government have advance the Grand Trunk the farther enough mount of one million one hu act perpetrated by the opposition would have raised a howl of condemnation from the Coalition from Gaspe to Sandwich, but perpetrated by the Coalition, there is no harm in it, indeed the Grand Trunk deserved the kind consideration of the government. In fact the Grand Trunk had only to threaten to stop their trains and more money would be forthcoming. Mr. Galt, a reasoning amounts to this, but let the elections come

It is idle to talk about securities; the Company had no security to give. The transaction, stripped of all humbug, is a gift by Ross and Galt of over a million of Provincial Funds to the Grand Trunk. This railroad presidents, contractors and speculators into a Cabinet. Men who have prepared fraudulent balance sheets to deceive stockholders, who have amased princely for tunes, and still draw munificent salaritations and still draw munificent salaritations when the Company, cannot be expected to be very mee or make very honest distinctions when the Company's existence is opposed to the country's interest. Mr. Galt admitted in the debate on Mr. Dorion's during the present summer. Thus far, the indications are that there will be from year a good gold cron. In the absence opposed to the country's interest. Mr. Galt admitted in the debate on Mr. Dorion's motion, that the expenditure was unconstiand corruption never before witnessed in a British colony. Yet the people who have to pay for this extravagance and waste must stop. The road still wants eleven millions made from time to time in Australia one will afford but temporary relief. Mr. bear it all without a murmur, else they are branded as being disloyal. Well, the time Galt said the motion was one of no confiis at hand when an opportunity will be pre-sented to alter this state of things; and if knew his men—they would not originally per-

If an honest farmer or mechanic were to Most people agree that the recent trans-ictions of the Government, in favour of the sort of a welcome would be receive; And men free from violent political prejudices, they are said to be "deceptive" and "fraudulent;" and however harsh these terms may with those who have once got hitched on to sound, it must be confessed that a careful the Governmental machine? Mr. Galt has enquiry into the nature and circumstances borrowed in England some $4,000,000 of the $486,666 draft seems to justify their employment. Mr. Galt seems to have reckoned upon a concealment or mystification of the facts of the Grand Trunk advances by ch were presented to the House. of the very highest character. If that be counts which were presented to the House. Now it is no great matter for a clever accountto it. What more did the American Secreant to render a financial statement difficult tary who, the other day, was paraded all of comprehension; and many a forger and defaulter has exhibited more ingenuity in that particular department of perverse and and perversed knowledge than even Mr. Galt displayed last week. The spectacle of the Opposition striving to unravel the knots which the Finance Minister had tied, seems to have a fixeded the government vest delight. the other side when honorable gentlemen are called upon to meet the electors at the forthcoming elections.

From the Huntingdon, L.C., Herald.

The Ministerial vote upon this amendment is tantamount to a free permit to the Administrators of the Government to plunder the public to any extent, and it entirely depends upon the vote of the people, at the next general election, whether they have their lease renewed, and their privilege to plunder extended for another four years.

From the Huntingdon, L.C., Herald.

What is the proper mode to characterize a transaction by which the Hon. John Ross, a member of the Canadian Government, loans a million or two of dollars to a company, of which the Hon. John Ross is President, and another million and a half or two millions to a bank, of which the same thought the same what would be universally said of trustees.

From the St. Thomas Home Journal.

The most recent disclosure of this malversation of the public funds, came like a thunderbolt on the public of Essex. We ask the industrious and independent yeoman of this country, how long they will suffer themselves to be represented, and the Province injured and degraded, by such an one as he?

From the Ayr Observer.

How any man making any pretence to common honesty, after disclosures such as kept strictly within the expenditure for

In the House of Commons, in reference to a question of Lord John Manners, relative to the forces in Canada, Mr. T. G. Baring If this matter is not cleared up, and is allowed by the Government to go before the said the Secretary of State for War had re-In consequence of that requisition, the Secretary for War had determined upon sending out one battalion, and that would restore the force in Canada to what it used to be a few years ago.

four thousand double the Grand Trunk.

From the London Free Press.

This is not a party but a taxpayer's question. The constant depletion of the Provincial exchequer, in order to bolster up a concern that is notoriously insolvent, is a serious matter not only now, but for the future. If these advances are to be continued—and there is every probability that they will—the great motive to action and economy on the part of the Company is removed, for what ale, including the part of the Company is removed, for what ale, including the part of the Company is removed, for what ale, including the colder, and their courage, weaker, surely they have lost their prestige in this way always insulted and shaved by a minority of the population? Surely British blood has become colder, and their courage, weaker, surely they have lost their prestige in thishalf frozen country. Shame te the British another time by larger sums, and so on as required!

From the Cornwall Economist.

From the Cornwall Economist.

In this is not a party but a taxpayer's question. The constant depletion of the Provincial exchequer, in order to bolster up a concern that is notoriously insolvent, is a serious matter not only now, but for the future. If these advances are to be continued—and there is every probability that they will—the great motive to action and economy on the minutes become colder, and their courage, but a trust that my next despatch will announce the capture of the enemy's strong-hold and position, to which they, from some traditions, attach great importance. Gener all Pratt says that he had received accounts from the Governor at Auckland to the effect in this way by men who could not stand ten minutes before him.

From the Cornwall Economist. THE WAR IN NEW ENGLAND .- The were being called out to the extent of 725 rank and file. RESIGNATION OF THE CANADIAN BOARD

OF GRAND TRUNK DIRECTORS.-We unof Grand Trunk Directors.—We understand that at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Grand Trunk Railway, held in this city on Friday, all the Canadian Directors determined to resign; and their resignation were forwarded to England by the last steamer. The precise reasons which have led to this step have not yet been made public, but it furnishes a significant proof that affairs have reached a crisis when it behoves the English proprietors to take some decided action. They have already postponed this too long. Montreal Gazettt.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

We glean a few items of interest from Vic Dependencies," fixes the price of Government land at one dollar per acre. The joy of the Colonists at this long-sought measure is mingled with much complaint as to jobbery favouritism, and speculation on the part of officials and others.

Efforts were making to subsidize a ste to ply direct between Victoria and San sco twice a month. It would seem to year, a good gold crop. In the absence of these exciting discoveries of rich placers made from time to time in Australia and California, the likelihood is that a steady yield of the precious metal will reward the miners' toil, and furnish the basis of a prosperity, which if less rapid than that of other gold countries, will be equally lasting, and not as liable to injurious fluctuation.

Lady Franklin and niece have just left

Vancouver for Oregon, after touring it for a while in the British Colonies of the far North-west. A pleasant pic-nic party pre-ceded the departure of this estimable lady

ORANGE CELEBRATION .- The Annual Orange Celebration for the South Riding of Lanark takes place this year in Perth. We understand that the Orangemen in Perth are busy perfecting the arrangements for the proper celebration of the day. It is ex-pected that the Orangemen of Brockville are to visit Perth on the ensuing Twelfth, in consideration of which the Lodges of South Lanark are to go to Brockville on the following anniversary.

A meeting of the members of the Perth District is to take place on Wednesday next at 2 o'clock p.m., in the Orange Hall, Perth, for the purpose of transacting business in connection with the ensuing Twelfth.

A meeting was held at Toronto on Satur? day for the purpose of forming a Voluntee are others, or, at least, there is another member of the Cabinet, who, in making the member of the Cabinet, who, in making the a new association; their firing may be improved, but it is universally allowed that the terror of their charging cannot be increased. The Company is to have the appropriate name of "The Devil's Own."

FREEDOM OF SPEECH IN THE NORTH .--John Swain a baker of New York, was shot dead in a saloon in that city on Friday afternoon last, by Stephen Merritt, for having said that the South was right in the preent contest, and that he was in favor of two republics. The murderer surrendered himself, and will probably escape unpunished, if he is not lionised as a hero and a pa.

Some time Monday night a flash of lightning entered the telegraph office at Rutland and melted the wires for the distance of seve-

A Halifax paper says :- A quantity of the Tangier gold was on exhibition in Mr. Ald. McCulloch's shop window, Granville treet, this afternoon, for which Mr. M. paid $150. The young man who sold it was only twenty days at the diggings.',

A cow belonging to Mr. Lewis, of Little Falls, Herkimer County, lately gave birth to four calves. He has been offered a thousand dollars for the bovine family, but expects to make more by exhibiting them.

FURTHER BY THE PRINCE

It had announced that the French trooop would leave Syria,

The Belgian Chambers had voted for the treaty of commerce with France.

The Spanish Government has resolved to accept the cession of San Domingo.

One hundred thousand ducats, destined

One hundred thousand ducats, destined to pay the reactionary bonds, and a large depot of plunder, had been been seized in the Neapolitan provinces.

Negotiations were still pending respecting the Schleswig-Holstein disputes, and Denmark though preparing for war retained hope of a peaceful arrangement.

The Emperor of Austria has arrived at

The Bombay mails of the 27th ult., from Calcutta 19th, have been received. The news

There was much activity in the cotton inerests. Common cotton was advancing. The import market was dull and freights

India was quiet. The native troops were destined to gradually become irregular.

An amendment to the Budget will be noved to the 25th, to the effect that the oms and Revenue bill, so that such may be parately headed.

The Postmaster General has published a tice that the Galway contracted has terminated.

Mr. Clay, the American Minister to Russia, writes to the London Times on the American struggle, in brief but decisive terms. He says that the revolted States can be subdued, but it is not proposed to subjugate them, but simply to put down the rebel citizens. England's interest is to stand by the Union. He inquires whether England can afford to offend the United States. Is can afford to offend the United States. Is England so secure in the future against home revolution and foreign ambition as to venture to sow seeds of revenge? He concludes by saying that England is the natural ally of the United States. The Independence Belge states that Lord Cowley has pro-tested against the right of isolate interven-tion in Syria claimed by the French Minis-

A tea party, consisting of 203 old women was recently held at Rochdale, at which the oldest was 103 years, and the average 67.