

chapel and its regular weekly meetings. The San Francisco papers were full of illustrated reports of the jubilee of St. Ignatius college, one of them contrasting the modest first home of the Jesuits in 1855 in the early days of the California gold quest with their magnificent church and college on Hays street today. The coadjutor Archbishop, the Most Rev. George Montgomery, who represented the titular Archbishop Riordan during the latter's absence from the city, was present at the alumni banquet and in a speech of hearty congratulation expressed the hope that one of the California Jesuit colleges might one day become a university, adding that the whole world was coming round to a sense that Christianity must be made a part of the education of the young. One of the most eloquent speeches delivered at that banquet was Mr. John J. Barrett's reply to the toast of "The Jesuits."

The Very Rev. John Stanislaus Flanagan, Dean of Limerick, who died at his residence, Adare, on Monday, Oct. 16, in his 85th year, was at the Seminary of St. Sulpice, Paris, when the revolution of 1848 broke out, and he had to make his way out of the city in lay disguise. For some years he was a member of the Birmingham Oratory under Dr. Newman, with whom he always remained on terms of the closest friendship, and he assisted Dr. Newman by preparing some of the theological matter for the "Apologia pro vita sua." The present Bishop of Limerick was the Dean's curate for some years.

The Happiness of Home.

Very largely depends on the mother's disposition; if she is animated and bright everyone is happy; but if she is nervous, irritable and cross—everything goes wrong. Bright cheery women usually use Ferrozone, the greatest health-maker known. By acting through the blood Ferrozone is able to reach all the organs that need assistance, it establishes regular and healthy action of all functions, builds up the general health, fortifies the system with a reserve of energy that defies disease. Don't put off—Ferrozone costs only 50c. at any drug store; get it to-day.

The Press Association sends a long account of the escape of the Universities (Church of England) Missionaries, whose station at Mesasi in German East Africa was sacked by natives in August last. The black rebels burned down their station, and killed the Europeans. Canon Porter in the course of a letter says: "A remarkable experience befell the Benedictine Mission. Almost before they realised what had happened, a Brother had been killed and a Father and Brother wounded. In their terrible plight they all solemnly knelt while Father Leo gave Absolution. On seeing the Sign of the Cross the raiders fled." All the Fathers were seriously wounded. One of the sisters is missing (which means dead), and the Bishop and four of his companions have been killed.

Mr. Michael Davitt writes: "It is not too generally known that, like Emmet and Wolfe Tone, William Philip Allen, one of the Manchester martyrs, was a Protestant." From an article by Mr. O'Dea in the "Catholic Fireside," it would appear that Allen before his death received the ministrations of Monsignor Gadd. Mr. Davitt has contributed £5 to a fund for relieving the wants of Allen's father, who is in his ninety-fourth year.

The Plenary Council of the Australian Hierarchy was solemnly opened at St. Mary's Cathedral, Sydney, on Sunday, September 3. The following message was sent to President Roosevelt, Washington: "The Catholic Bishops of the Australian Commonwealth, assembled in Plenary Council, heartily congratulate you on the triumphant issue of your noble efforts for peace."

Lord Brampton, the celebrated English judge and convert, has lately been very unwell, though some improvement was noted in our latest English exchanges. Henry Hawkins, born Sept. 14, 1817, is now in his 89th year. He was admitted to the Bar in 1843, was made a Q.C. in 1858, and judge of Queen's Bench in Nov. 1876, retiring from active service in 1898. He was knighted in 1876 and created First Baron Brampton, of Brampton in the County of Huntingdon, in 1899. He became a Catholic some ten years ago and has often expressed his gratitude for the grace that was granted him so late in life. He is famous for his clearness of judgment and his sense of humor.

At Elche, in Valencia, a fine and well-preserved mosaic floor has been discovered beneath the foundations of a small church which was being repaired. The inscriptions on it are in Greek and it is supposed to date back to the sixth century, when that portion of the peninsula extending from Malaga to Denia was Byzantine, the rest of Spain, on the other hand, being already beneath the heel of the Goth.

There is now living in Winnipeg, a Mr. Walter Spencer Hamilton, who is a cousin of Lord Hamilton of Dalzell, second Baron of that name. This secondary title, Dalzell, presents an anomaly which is startling even to those who are used to the eccentricities of English pronunciation, for it is pronounced Dee-ell.

Mr. Charles Stanton Devas, whose paper on "Socialism" begins in this issue, was born in 1848 and is a son of Wm. Devas of Woodside, Old Windsor, and Anne, daughter of Chas. Stanton of Upfield, Stroud, Gloucestershire. He was educated at Eton and at Balliol College, Oxford, and is a member of that college and M.A. of that university, where he took a First Class in the 'School of Law', and Modern History, 1871. He was received into the Catholic Church in 1867. He was for nine years examiner in Political Economy at the Royal University of Ireland. He has published "The Ground-work of Economics, 1883; 'Studies of Family Life,' 1886, translated into German; "Political Economy", Stonyhurst Philosophical Series, 1892, translated into German, 2nd edition, 1901. He has read papers before the British Association, 1894 and 1901, has written articles in The Economic Journal, The International Journal of Ethics, and the Dublin Review. He wrote with Mr. W. S. Lilly, the Introduction and Notes to a re-issue of Byles' Sophisms of Free Trade, 1903.

A monument, representing Pius X. in the act of giving his blessing, was unveiled on Oct. 22 at Riese, the birthplace of Giuseppe Sarto, the present Pope. The entire village was decorated, and national flags were conspicuous everywhere, while the walls were covered with inscriptions, one of which read, "Long live Pius X., the first citizen of the world." The eldest sister of the Pope and other relatives, who were present, received much attention.

By some unaccountable delay a long and interesting report of the inaugural banquet of St. Mary's Club, Calgary, on Oct. 5, did not reach our office till this week, too late for more than this passing notice. However, as the report is a model of what such reports should be, and reflects great credit on the Calgary Daily Herald, we shall publish it in a subsequent issue.

PIANOS

Those who buy a piano ought to pay as much attention to the record and reputation of a piano as the piano itself. They ought to pay more attention to its musical qualities than to the case.

The Mason & Risch Piano

is a musical instrument before it is an article of furniture, yet it is an instrument that would beautify any room.

No piano has a better record.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND IMMIGRATION.

MANITOBA with its network of railways, giving markets near at hand for all farm products, offers unrivalled opportunities for investment.

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT LANDS can still be purchased at from $3 to $6 per acre.

IMPROVED FARMS in all districts of the province can be purchased at from $10 to $40 per acre.

These prices are advancing every year.

A FEW POINTERS

On arrival at Winnipeg the wisest policy for any new settler to adopt is to remain in Winnipeg for a few days and learn for himself all about the lands offered for sale and to homestead.

There are districts that have been settled for many years in which land can be purchased. Some of this may be unbroken prairie which still possesses all the richness and productive powers of our virgin prairies. Other lands, cultivated and having comfortable farm buildings, are ready for immediate possession.

There are Provincial Government lands, Dominion Government homesteads, and railway lands to be secured.

The price of land varies from $3 to $40 per acre. Location with respect to railways, towns, timber and water determines the price of land.

For information regarding homesteads apply at the Dominion Land Office.

For purchase of Provincial lands apply at the Provincial Land Office in the Parliament Buildings.

For C. P. R. or C. N. R. lands apply at the land offices of said railway companies.

For lands owned by private individuals apply to the various real estate agents in the city.

For situations as farm laborers apply to: J. J. GOLDEN
