 ey, of Brooklyn, N.Y. Is Presdt. of the St.
 Patrick's Society of Montreal, (an office he has held on several occasions), and a member of the Executive of the Reform Assn. of the Parti Na- tional. Sat in the City Council of Montreal during seven consecutive years, and, while a member of that body, proposed the establishment of the Mount Royal Park, and finally succeeded in carrying the scheme, notwithstanding the most strenuous opposition at the outset. Was for fifteen years closely identified with the active volunteer militia force, entering the 1st., or "Prince of Wales," Rifle Regt., first as a captain, and eventually becoming Lieut.-Col. of the corps, and as such commanded it during the Fenian outbreak of 1866, on the eastern frontier, and for his services on that occasion was publicly complimented by Lord Monck, then Gov. Genl. of Can.; retired from the force, retaining his rank, Aug., 1866. An unsuccessful candidate for Montreal West at g.e., 1867, and for Montreal Centre at last g.e. succeeded in unseating Mr.
 M. P. Ryan, the sitting mem., on petition, and at the new election, which followed, on 12 Jan., 1875, was returned. "In politics, as in religion,
