

York hosts rugby finals

Steve Church

In a match that was insignificant to the placing of York Yeomen in the OUAA rugby standings (they clinched first place a week ago), Yeomen lost 7-6 to R.M.C., formally closing the regular season schedule.

The Yeomen's complacency was not lauded by their coach, Mike Dinning. "We didn't deserve to win. Physical and mental lapses prevailed throughout the game. This is no way to play prior to the biggest game of the season."

Dinning is referring to the OUAA rugby final that will feature York hosting Queen's in what should be a thriller for the fans, players and coaches. Hopefully the Yeomen will get their act together for this crucial match. With no admission price, it should serve as the best entertainment one can find for a Saturday afternoon. Come out and support the Yeomen — bring your friends, your parents, anybody! Kick-off is set for Saturday, October 10 at 1:30 on the rugby pitch. Your support is needed. Be there!
