The Roxborough,
Ottawa, May 13, 1918.

Mr. F. A. Acland,
Deputy Minister of Labour,
Ottawa.

Dear Mr. Acland:

Mr. George S. Gibbons, of the firm of Gibbons, Harper, and Gibbons, London, Ont., has asked me if I could obtain for him certain information as to proceedings in street railway disputes under the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act.

In reply, I have written Gibbons that I would ask you kindly to have forwarded to him copies of the "Labour Gazette" containing reports of Boards on street railway disputes, and copies of the Annual Reports of the Department dealing with proceedings under the Act.

I should feel greatly obliged if you would have these documents forwarded to Mr. Gibbons.

In his letter to me, Mr. Gibbons mentions that he is acting for the London Street Railway employees in an investigation under the Act.

Yours very truly,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING
