Among the guests at the Canadien-Ottawa hockey game tonight will be Hon. T. A. Low, minister of trade and commerce, together with the members of the Australian trade party, who are now in the Capital. The distinguished gentlemen from Australia have never seen a hockey game and, in fact, had never seen snow until their arrival in Canada. Hon. Mr. Low invited them to take in the thrills of the Ottawa-Canadien hockey struggle and the visitors, of course, consented. They will be guests of Hon. Mr. Low and of President Frank Ahearn, of the Ottawa Hockey Association. The Australian visitors are in good hands to learn the fine points of the game, as Hon. Mr. Low was prominently identified with the Refrew Creamery Kings during their remarkable hockey career.
