Ottawa 20th May, 1902.

Revd Sir,

With reference to the application from Samuel Dakota, ex-pupil No 103 of the Battleford Industrial School, for the withdrawal of his savings (which application you forwarded with your letter of the 30th ultimo,) I beg to say that it is observed that you state that the young man is out working amongst the settlers, and thus earning his living. Would it not therefore be well for him to leave his money on deposit until such time as he marries or wishes to invest his money in some way from which he will be likely to derive permanent benefit? It would appear that he is not now in need of the money for any particular purpose. Do you know what he intends to do with it?

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
