

It is in the interest of the wholesaler that the retailer makes a profit, or how can he pay the wholesaler?

The manufacturer should be as much interested in the financial condition of the retailer and wholesaler as the wholesaler should be in the financial condition and prosperity of the retailer.

The object of the manufacturer is to get his goods on the market and get his money eventually.