

B.C.C.T.

J. J. Ford
Supt. of Concessions & Attractions.

The image features a black and white portrait of a man, J. J. Ford, framed by an ornate, Art Deco-style border. The border includes decorative flourishes at the top corners and vertical columns on the sides. At the top center of the frame, a small rectangular box contains the letters "B.C.C.T.". Below the portrait, a decorative banner contains the man's name and title. The entire graphic is set against a light background.

The Standard Print  426 Homer St., Vancouver