

OBITUARY

SISTER M. IRENE BROWNE

On the 6th inst. death claimed a beloved member of the Community of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Hamilton, Sister Irene Browne, who was born in Tipperary, Ireland, Jan. 27, 1839. At her baptism she received the name of Bridget and always entertained for her holy Protectress a tender love and devotion. After passing her girlhood days under the fostering care of her good parents, who came to Hamilton in 1840, she embraced the profession of teaching, in which work Sister Irene was engaged for several years after entering the Novitiate at St. Joseph's Convent in 1875. The pupils who attended old St. Charles' School hold her memory in veneration.

Sister Irene's life is a vivid illustration of what can be accomplished by holiness, strength of character and indefatigable energy in God's service. For many years the deceased religious held the office of Superior and was esteemed by all who knew her in Paris, Brantford, Arthur and Dundas. In her sick and the poor found a true friend and many were the hearts she comforted in her declining years by kindly ministrations while visiting the afflicted in their homes.

Her last illness of several months' duration was borne with marvellous patience and resignation. During this long period of suffering no opportunity was lost of acquiring merit for heaven and the heroic effort made to assist daily at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass until a few weeks before her death manifested the strong faith and ardent love that had increased with years until the hour so long expected released her soul from earthly bondage.

The funeral services were held at St. Joseph's Convent Chapel. The Requiem Mass was sung by Reverend P. Maloney of St. Mary's Cathedral and Rev. J. E. McNeill officiated at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery where the remains were laid to rest in the Sisters' Plot beneath the shadow of St. Joseph's statue. The Community thanks the friends of the departed whose offering of Mass cards is sincerely appreciated.

In attendance at the funeral were Sisters of St. Joseph, religious from Loretto Academy, Hamilton, and the Monastery of the Precious Blood, Toronto, where Sister Mary of the Passion, a sister of the deceased, resides. The relatives present were Mrs. M. O'Connell and Miss Julia Browne, John and Hugh O'Connell, Hamilton, and John Browne, Detroit. The pall bearers were Mr. G. Braidwood, Mr. G. Knappman, Mr. W. P. Keating, Mr. J. Nelligan, Mr. A. Roy and Mr. P. Ryan.

THE WESTERN FAIR

LONDON, ONT., SEPT. 11TH TO 18TH, 1920

Never in the history of the Western Fair has there been such a rush for space of all kinds for the Exhibition as this year. The Management take this as an indication that the Exhibition is becoming more popular each year, and that Exhibitors are getting more benefit from it than ever before. Every effort possible is being made to make the Exhibition what it ought to be—one of great value to all who attend not only to spend a day of amusement but profit as well. Ample provision is made for parking Automobiles and there will be plenty of room for everybody.

All information may be secured by writing the Secretary A. M. Hunt, General Office, London, Ont.

MARRIAGE

SCANLON-DAWSON.—At St. Basil's Church, Brantford, Ont., on July 21st, by Very Rev. Dean Brady, Margaret Aneta, youngest daughter of Mrs. Margaret Dawson, 88 Sheridan St., to James Victor Scanlon, B. A., of Walkerton.

DIED

CRAIG.—At the Water Street Hospital, Ottawa, Ont., July 2, Fannie Craig, aged fifty four years. May her soul rest in peace.

Freedom is so splendid a thing that one cannot worthily state it in the terms of a definition; one has to write it in some flaming symbol or to ring it in music riotous with the uproar of heaven.—Padraic Pearse.

No Further Borrowing

No event since the signing of the armistice has done so much to enhance the value of Victory Loan Bonds, as has the proclamation of Sir Henry Drayton that "Canada has finished borrowing." With the assurance that there will be no increase in the volume of outstanding Dominion Government Bonds, the security behind these bonds becomes even stronger than before.

Put your investment funds into more Victory Bonds!
