Curate of Croydon, Surrey, has offered for service with the Archbishop's Mission to the Assyrian Christians, and has been accepted. He will leave England in September and take up work in Kurdistan.The Archbishops' appeal is being not only warmly welcomed in England, but also strongly supported in Canada. For instance, Colonel Sir Henry Pellatt, A.D.C., of Toronto, has promised to build a church on any site that may be selected.Wm. Neilson McVickar, Episcopal Bishop of Rhode Island, died at his summer home at Beverley Cove, June 28th, after a lingering illness. He had been Bishop of Rhode Island since 1903. Bishop McVickar was born in New-York in 1843.The Episcopal Church of the United States has made a good beginning in raising a $5,000,000 fund in order to provide an annuity for each minister on reaching his sixty-fourth year. This provision is to be of the nature of a pension, and will be rated according to the number of years of service. The annuity is to average $500 and will be given, not as a charity, but in recognition of what is due to the aging ministers of Jesus Christ.Recently the annual service was held in the little church of St. Gwyfan, Anglesea. The church was originally 1½ miles from the sea, now its churchyard forms a little island, surrounded by a strong wall.
It can be approached at low tide from the mainland. The parish has long since been supplied with a new church some three miles inland. Once a year, however, on the festival of its patron saint, the ancient church is opened for a service of thanksgiving and commemoration.
At a meeting of the Hull diocesan conference on Monday last, the Rev.
C. E. Little (Rural Dean) stated that a short time ago Mr. Christopher Pickering had asked him to go to see the Archbishop of York, and make the offer from Mr. and Mrs. Pickering to provide at their own cost a new church and a new vicarage on the site which Mr. Pickering has already presented to the city. The Archbishop had written a letter of gratification to Mr. Pickering, who had now made secure the sum of £8,000 to be spent in carrying out his wishes. Since then Mr. Pickering had decided to give a further sum of £8,000 for the endowment of that church. The church was to be a memorial church to the late King Edward VII., and would probably be the first memorial church in the country to his late Majesty.Over $780,000,000of Life Insurance was held in force in Canada at the close of 1909.During the year over $10,000,000 was paid in death claims.Thus is seen the wide beneficence of Life Insurance.Take personal account of this vast and extending method of protection. Choose a suitable and sufficient Policy. Give as careful thought to the choice as you would to any other highly important investment. One guide is to observe how others are choosing. For three successive years the public have shown that they consider The Great-West Poli-cessive years The Great-West Life has written the largest Canadian Business of any Company.
