IT BEATS THEM ALL!

During the past year The Guide carried more livestock classified advertising than any other farm paper in this field. There's a reason. The Guide offers the largest circulation (42,000 copies weekly), which means that it is read in approximately every third English-speaking farm home in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Classified ads. in The Guide bring results to the advertisers. Have you tried an ad. lately? There is no reason why you should not get results like the following:—

Jasmin, Sask.

I had a small advertisement published in The Guide to sell 200 ewes, and must say was very pleased with the results. The party who was fortunate enough to secure the ewes came with the first mail, bought 100 head and then came back and bought the balance. I also received many enquiries and was sorry to know that I had to disappoint so many people. E. SCHWARZ.

Oak Lake, Man.

In reply to yours of the 3rd inst. re my ad. in your paper on Holstein Bull, would say I have had good success through that ad. Would recommend your paper to any who have stock to sell as a very medium to reach purchasers. R. SMITH.

Waldrester, Alta.

Please find enclosed Postal Note for which kindly continue my ad. on Berkshire Boars and Sows in your paper. I am getting the best of results. J. A. JOHNSTON.

To dispose of your surplus stock send in your advertisement today and let us demonstrate how The Guide sells livestock.

The rate is economical—Five Cents per word, payable in advance.
