

LOCAL MATTERS OF INTEREST.

SATURDAY

A service will be held in St. Andrew's church Friday evening at eight o'clock preparatory for the communion service Sunday.

Col. McLean is at present in Fredericton. His visit to the capital is supposed to be in connection with the proposed transfer of the Gibson property to the American company which recently obtained possession of the Hutchinson lumber lands on the North Shore.

The repairs to the court house which caused so much discussion at recent meetings of the municipal council, have begun yesterday. The work on the roof and blue paint will be done by the contractors passing beside the building received unappreciated decorations.

A fine specimen of a St. Bernard dog was a protectionist at Central Station last night. A bed was made for him in the fine stall. The collar bore the name of M. D. Thompson and a strange street address so that the animal is probably the property of some visitor to the city.

The local golf season will be brought to a formal close next Tuesday, when the final matches for the Steaton Cup will be played by the men, and the ladies will compete for the Riley Cup. The other prizes won during the season will also be presented to the winners.

Mrs. J. K. Barney, of Providence, R. I., who is attending the W. C. T. U. convention, will lecture in Portland St. Methodist church on Friday evening, 11th inst. This gifted lady has many friends in St. John who will be pleased to have another opportunity of listening to her.

About a week ago a young physician arrived in the city from Italy. He cannot speak the English language, but has an idea of locating here and practicing his profession. Yesterday he said that he has an idea that there is not much chance for him in St. John with-out the English language, and he feels that he will return to his native country. He has been advised to try Boston or New York.

Rev. George M. Campbell, D. D., state pastor of Queen Square Methodist church, yesterday received a call from the Graton street church, Halifax. Owing to his engagement with the Canadian Bible Society, Mr. Campbell will be unable to accept the call. Dr. Campbell has never preached in the church that has extended the call to him, although he has appeared several times in Halifax pulpits. Dr. Campbell will continue to devote himself to furthering the interests of the Bible Society.

George Davidson, Sons of Temperance, will meet this evening in their rooms, Temperance Hall, Market Building. All members are requested to be present. An important matter will be discussed.

Mrs. Barney, of the Provincial W. C. T. U., addressed the "net" of the Young Men's Club last evening. The lecture was delivered in Union Hall and was largely attended.

A number of boys were so sorely tempted by the sight of boxes of luscious grapes in the door of a grocery store at the corner of Princess and Charlotte streets, that they lifted a box and fled. In response to a telephone message to central station, Patrolman Bowens promptly responded, but the boys were out of sight.

The collectors of taxes for the parishes of Lancaster and Simonds will be at the county treasurer's office, Princess street, today (Saturday) and Tuesday, the 19th inst., to receive taxes from those who wish to take advantage of the five per cent discount.

MONDAY

Happily there is one beverage, says Table Talk, that children love dearly that may be given them without question. It is milk. It is a nourishment if made as it should be, with milk that is as good a food rather than a drink and is particularly useful in nourishing a child who dislikes milk by itself.

In the county court at Ormoco on Wednesday the assault case of Monahan versus Jones will be tried before Judge Wilson, without a jury. A. J. Gregory, K. C., of Fredericton will appear for the plaintiff and J. E. M. Baxter for the defendant.

G. R. Joughins of Moncton, mechanical superintendent of the L. C. R., arrived in the city yesterday morning. He is at the Royal. It is possible that Mr. Joughins may be called as a witness in the Chamberlain suit entered against the Intercolonial in the exchequer court. Mr. Joughins expects to be in the city for the next two or three days, and while here he will investigate the working of the new motor car put on the suburban route this summer.

WEDNESDAY

William V. Hatfield went to the central station yesterday morning and reported the White Candy Co. and Robert Harris for encumbering the sidewalk in front of the Candy Co. building on the street by dumping coal there.

Madame Yulisse Harrison has returned from a successful tour to Antwerp and Sackville. While in Sackville she was the guest of Mrs. Josiah and Mrs. Wood. Arrangements are now being made for the appearance of Madame Yulisse Harrison in a grand concert in the Opera House. During the entire sessions of the federal parliament it is likely she will be heard in concert in Ottawa.

Word was received yesterday from the British bark Strathlisa, Captain Douglas, that the vessel sailed from Buenos Ayres on the 18th September, bound for Barbados, from there she will proceed to Tusket, Wedge, N. S. This is the vessel that young McKelvie and Doherty are on, doing the deep sea voyage to become eligible for branch pilots. After arriving at Tusket they will come home and go to work as pilots here.

Branch 134 C. M. E. A. are preparing for entertainments this fall. A committee met Tuesday night and decided to hold the first assembly for young people on the 20th of this month and the second assembly about the middle of November.

THURSDAY

Joseph Carr was arrested by Sgt. Caples yesterday afternoon between 8 and 9 o'clock on suspicion of stealing a pair of trousers from the door of Mrs. Ross McDonald's store on Brussels street. The trousers were found in his possession.

Last night Patrolman McCollom was called to the house of John Earle at the rear of 15 Brussels street, to eject Elizabeth Spellman, who was trying to gain entrance into the house and using vile language to the annoyance of the neighborhood.

John R. Haycock, acting agent of the Dominion Express Company, when asked last evening in regard to the report that the American Express Company is to withdraw from St. John and have its business handled by the Dominion Express Company, said that he had heard nothing officially concerning the matter. The rumor is probably correct, however.

The power houses of the Maine and New Brunswick Electrical Power Co. was formally opened this afternoon. A. R. Gould, managing director of the company, presided at the ceremony, which started the plant in operation. The towns of Andover, Perth, Houlton, Presque Isle and Fort Fairfield will be supplied with light and power from the plant.

It is more than probable that Madame Yulisse Harrison will make St. John her home for the future. For the past two years Madame Harrison has been trying to find some place which agrees with her, in which her family can make their home. St. John climate comes next to Vancouver in Madame Harrison's estimation as regards the effect on her throat. Grimsby, her present home, does not and never has. She presented the position of leading soprano at one of the churches, and she may accept it. If so her husband and her son Charlie will join her here in December.

The Monster Winter Sale at the Union Clothing Company, Charlotte street, opposite city market, is drawing large crowds as it will be one for all folks to be in attendance before the closing day which will be Saturday, Oct. 26th, at midnight. This is the largest winter sale ever held here—don't miss this sale.

HALIFAX Oct. 16.—At six o'clock this evening St. Paul's church was the scene of a wedding in which a large number of people both in Halifax and New Brunswick took a special interest. The principals in the ceremony were Aleta May, daughter of the late I. L. Miller, and John Macintosh Miller, son of Rev. Dr. Miller, pastor of Chalmers church. Mr. Miller is now practicing his profession as civil engineer in the employ of the Transcontinental Venerable Archdeacon. Amateurs performed the ceremony. Miss Miller was attended by Miss Florence Bowman of St. John, who has been her guest for several weeks. Dr. J. Ross Miller, brother of the bride, was the best man. The ushers were W. B. Proctor and F. O. Sturdy. Miss Miller, who is charming in appearance, wore a gown of white liberty satin, with conventional veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern. Her going-away gown was of dark green broadcloth and was worn with a dark green hat. Miss Bowman's gown was of violet elenore, worn with a black hat, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's mother, Cobourg Road, the guests being exclusively intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Miller, who left for New Brunswick, carried with them the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace with pearl and amethyst pendant. To the bridesmaid his gift was a dainty bracelet, and to the ushers pearl pins.

MORGAN-CATHERS. A nuptial event that has been anticipated with interest took place at the home of the bride, 207 Wentworth street, at 8 o'clock Tuesday, when Miss Kate Gertrude Cathers, eldest daughter of the late William A. Cathers, was married to Joseph Morgan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. Nicolster, pastor of German street Baptist church, and the contracting parties stood within an arbor of palms and ferns.

The bride's costume was a dainty creation of cream chiffon taffeta, and she carried a muff of ferns and white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss ABIE CATHERS, who wore a becoming gown of cream Bedford cord and carried pink chrysanthemums. Stanley E. Fisher acted in the capacity of groomsmen. Miss Effie Simpson presided at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march.

After the ceremony a dainty supper was served in the dining room, which was tastefully decorated in pink and white.

SMITH-CHIPMAN. ANNAPOLIS, N. S., Oct. 10.—On Wednesday, September 4th, a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sewell, Coldstream, N. B., when their niece, Minnie B. Estabrooks, was united in marriage to William A. Noble of Coldstream. The ceremony was performed on the lawn in the presence of eighty guests, Rev. A. F. Baker of Hartland being the officiating clergyman. The bride was prettily attired in a dress of cream tulle with lace trimmings. Miss Alice Noble was bridesmaid and wore a dress of white organdy. The groom was supported by George Shaw. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring and to the best man a pearl stick pin.

VEAZEY-GANONG. A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Leinster street Baptist parsonage, 177 Sydney street, Monday evening, October 14th, when Charles Herbert Veazey, of St. Stephen, N. B., and Miss Sarah Louise Ganong, of Calais, were united in marriage. The bride was in a fashionable costume of navy blue cloth with hat to match. After visiting a number of Canadian cities Mr. and Mrs. Veazey will return to Calais, Me., where they will reside.

COCHRAN-RYAN. The marriage of Miss Katherine R. Ryan, daughter of Mr. Ryan, St. Patrick street, to James Cochran, son of P. J. Cochran of the Royal Pharmacy, was solemnized in the cathedral Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock by Rev. A. W. Meahan. The bride was dressed in a travelling costume of navy blue and wore a pale blue mushroom hat. The groom's attire consisted of a tuxedo of honor. After the ceremony the guests adjourned to the home of the bride, where refreshments were served. There were many beautiful and useful presents, among them checks from the bride's and groom's father. The groom's present to the bride was a pair of gold. The happy couple left yesterday morning for the Holy Austin for Boston and vicinity, and on their return will reside at 113 St. James street.

HARRIS-ROACH. A charming ceremony took place Tuesday evening, October 8th, at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hand, 113 St. James street, when Miss Marion Lorne Roach became the bride of Leonard Christopher Harris, M.D., of Moncton. Rev. J. E. Hand tied the nuptial knot.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Richard Roach. The bride wore a gown of white silk trimmed with rose point lace. She wore a bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Beatrice Roach, was prettily attired in pale blue silk with hat of corresponding tint.

The ushers were J. E. Hand and supported the groom throughout the ceremony.

The church was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums.

The full church of England service was used. Some special music was beautifully rendered by the choir. The reading of the Holy Gospels followed. The bride's gown was of white silk and the ceremony was being performed. Dr. Arnold Fox played the wedding march. After the ceremony the newly married couple left for Moncton where the groom has an extensive medical practice and where they will make their home.

KILEY-KIERVIN. A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's Church Wednesday morning at six o'clock, when Daniel Kiley was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Kiervin, youngest daughter of Mr. Kiervin, of the bride's street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward Seully, C. S. S. R. The bride wore a gown of cream crepe de chene with white picture hat. The ushers were W. B. Proctor and F. O. Sturdy.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch. The bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's mother, Cobourg Road, the guests being exclusively intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Kiley will reside at 234 Bridge street.

JACKSON-HOPEY. On October 15th, 1907, at the residence of William Hohey, Balnes Corner, St. John Co., N. B., a pretty wedding took place. The bride was Miss Helen Hopey, daughter of Mr. Hopey, and the groom was Walter Jackson of St. Martins. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Townsend, in the presence of a large company. The bride was charming in a costume of blue, trimmed with white. She was given away by her father, George Ross acted as best man, while the bride was attended by Ethel Ross. After the congratulations had been offered the company sat down to supper. The presents were numerous and beautiful, including a large number of useful articles for householding. The happy pair left on Wednesday for St. John and other points of interest.

MARGRAVES-PERKINS. Announcements have been received here of the marriage in Proctor, B. C., of Miss Daisy A. Perkins, third daughter of Capt. J. D. Perkins of this city, to James Margrave of Taber, Alberta. The ceremony was performed at "Sunny Glen," the home of Edwin S. Oliver, brother-in-law of the bride, by the Rev. H. H. Graham, rector of St. Saviour's church, Nelson, B. C. The happy couple will reside in Taber, Alta., where J. Margrave has a lucrative business. The bride's gown was a dainty creation of cream, white and white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss ABIE CATHERS, who wore a becoming gown of cream Bedford cord and carried pink chrysanthemums. Stanley E. Fisher acted in the capacity of groomsmen. Miss Effie Simpson presided at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march.

PETERS-BUTTIMER. At Salmon Beach, Gloucester Co., by Rev. F. H. McCally, a Wednesday evening at the residence of Allan Buttimer, brother of the bride, Miss Nettie Buttimer was married to Walter Peters, of Canada. The ceremony took place at a reception at the home of Mrs. Peters was the recipient of an address and a suite of parlor furniture from the Methodist congregation of Salmon Beach.

SMITH-CHIPMAN. ANNAPOLIS, N. S., Oct. 10.—On Wednesday, September 4th, a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sewell, Coldstream, N. B., when their niece, Minnie B. Estabrooks, was united in marriage to William A. Noble of Coldstream. The ceremony was performed on the lawn in the presence of eighty guests, Rev. A. F. Baker of Hartland being the officiating clergyman. The bride was prettily attired in a dress of cream tulle with lace trimmings. Miss Alice Noble was bridesmaid and wore a dress of white organdy. The groom was supported by George Shaw. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring and to the best man a pearl stick pin.

VEAZEY-GANONG. A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Leinster street Baptist parsonage, 177 Sydney street, Monday evening, October 14th, when Charles Herbert Veazey, of St. Stephen, N. B., and Miss Sarah Louise Ganong, of Calais, were united in marriage. The bride was in a fashionable costume of navy blue cloth with hat to match. After visiting a number of Canadian cities Mr. and Mrs. Veazey will return to Calais, Me., where they will reside.

COCHRAN-RYAN. The marriage of Miss Katherine R. Ryan, daughter of Mr. Ryan, St. Patrick street, to James Cochran, son of P. J. Cochran of the Royal Pharmacy, was solemnized in the cathedral Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock by Rev. A. W. Meahan. The bride was dressed in a travelling costume of navy blue and wore a pale blue mushroom hat. The groom's attire consisted of a tuxedo of honor. After the ceremony the guests adjourned to the home of the bride, where refreshments were served. There were many beautiful and useful presents, among them checks from the bride's and groom's father. The groom's present to the bride was a pair of gold. The happy couple left yesterday morning for the Holy Austin for Boston and vicinity, and on their return will reside at 113 St. James street.

HARRIS-ROACH. A charming ceremony took place Tuesday evening, October 8th, at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hand, 113 St. James street, when Miss Marion Lorne Roach became the bride of Leonard Christopher Harris, M.D., of Moncton. Rev. J. E. Hand tied the nuptial knot.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Richard Roach. The bride wore a gown of white silk trimmed with rose point lace. She wore a bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Beatrice Roach, was prettily attired in pale blue silk with hat of corresponding tint.

The ushers were J. E. Hand and supported the groom throughout the ceremony.

The church was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums.

The full church of England service was used. Some special music was beautifully rendered by the choir. The reading of the Holy Gospels followed. The bride's gown was of white silk and the ceremony was being performed. Dr. Arnold Fox played the wedding march. After the ceremony the newly married couple left for Moncton where the groom has an extensive medical practice and where they will make their home.

KILEY-KIERVIN. A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's Church Wednesday morning at six o'clock, when Daniel Kiley was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Kiervin, youngest daughter of Mr. Kiervin, of the bride's street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward Seully, C. S. S. R. The bride wore a gown of cream crepe de chene with white picture hat. The ushers were W. B. Proctor and F. O. Sturdy.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch. The bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's mother, Cobourg Road, the guests being exclusively intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Kiley will reside at 234 Bridge street.

JACKSON-HOPEY. On October 15th, 1907, at the residence of William Hohey, Balnes Corner, St. John Co., N. B., a pretty wedding took place. The bride was Miss Helen Hopey, daughter of Mr. Hopey, and the groom was Walter Jackson of St. Martins. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Townsend, in the presence of a large company. The bride was charming in a costume of blue, trimmed with white. She was given away by her father, George Ross acted as best man, while the bride was attended by Ethel Ross. After the congratulations had been offered the company sat down to supper. The presents were numerous and beautiful, including a large number of useful articles for householding. The happy pair left on Wednesday for St. John and other points of interest.

MARGRAVES-PERKINS. Announcements have been received here of the marriage in Proctor, B. C., of Miss Daisy A. Perkins, third daughter of Capt. J. D. Perkins of this city, to James Margrave of Taber, Alberta. The ceremony was performed at "Sunny Glen," the home of Edwin S. Oliver, brother-in-law of the bride, by the Rev. H. H. Graham, rector of St. Saviour's church, Nelson, B. C. The happy couple will reside in Taber, Alta., where J. Margrave has a lucrative business. The bride's gown was a dainty creation of cream, white and white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss ABIE CATHERS, who wore a becoming gown of cream Bedford cord and carried pink chrysanthemums. Stanley E. Fisher acted in the capacity of groomsmen. Miss Effie Simpson presided at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march.

PETERS-BUTTIMER. At Salmon Beach, Gloucester Co., by Rev. F. H. McCally, a Wednesday evening at the residence of Allan Buttimer, brother of the bride, Miss Nettie Buttimer was married to Walter Peters, of Canada. The ceremony took place at a reception at the home of Mrs. Peters was the recipient of an address and a suite of parlor furniture from the Methodist congregation of Salmon Beach.

SMITH-CHIPMAN. ANNAPOLIS, N. S., Oct. 10.—On Wednesday, September 4th, a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sewell, Coldstream, N. B., when their niece, Minnie B. Estabrooks, was united in marriage to William A. Noble of Coldstream. The ceremony was performed on the lawn in the presence of eighty guests, Rev. A. F. Baker of Hartland being the officiating clergyman. The bride was prettily attired in a dress of cream tulle with lace trimmings. Miss Alice Noble was bridesmaid and wore a dress of white organdy. The groom was supported by George Shaw. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring and to the best man a pearl stick pin.

VEAZEY-GANONG. A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Leinster street Baptist parsonage, 177 Sydney street, Monday evening, October 14th, when Charles Herbert Veazey, of St. Stephen, N. B., and Miss Sarah Louise Ganong, of Calais, were united in marriage. The bride was in a fashionable costume of navy blue cloth with hat to match. After visiting a number of Canadian cities Mr. and Mrs. Veazey will return to Calais, Me., where they will reside.

COCHRAN-RYAN. The marriage of Miss Katherine R. Ryan, daughter of Mr. Ryan, St. Patrick street, to James Cochran, son of P. J. Cochran of the Royal Pharmacy, was solemnized in the cathedral Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock by Rev. A. W. Meahan. The bride was dressed in a travelling costume of navy blue and wore a pale blue mushroom hat. The groom's attire consisted of a tuxedo of honor. After the ceremony the guests adjourned to the home of the bride, where refreshments were served. There were many beautiful and useful presents, among them checks from the bride's and groom's father. The groom's present to the bride was a pair of gold. The happy couple left yesterday morning for the Holy Austin for Boston and vicinity, and on their return will reside at 113 St. James street.

HARRIS-ROACH. A charming ceremony took place Tuesday evening, October 8th, at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hand, 113 St. James street, when Miss Marion Lorne Roach became the bride of Leonard Christopher Harris, M.D., of Moncton. Rev. J. E. Hand tied the nuptial knot.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Richard Roach. The bride wore a gown of white silk trimmed with rose point lace. She wore a bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Beatrice Roach, was prettily attired in pale blue silk with hat of corresponding tint.

The ushers were J. E. Hand and supported the groom throughout the ceremony.

The church was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums.

The full church of England service was used. Some special music was beautifully rendered by the choir. The reading of the Holy Gospels followed. The bride's gown was of white silk and the ceremony was being performed. Dr. Arnold Fox played the wedding march. After the ceremony the newly married couple left for Moncton where the groom has an extensive medical practice and where they will make their home.

KILEY-KIERVIN. A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's Church Wednesday morning at six o'clock, when Daniel Kiley was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Kiervin, youngest daughter of Mr. Kiervin, of the bride's street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward Seully, C. S. S. R. The bride wore a gown of cream crepe de chene with white picture hat. The ushers were W. B. Proctor and F. O. Sturdy.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch. The bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's mother, Cobourg Road, the guests being exclusively intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Kiley will reside at 234 Bridge street.

JACKSON-HOPEY. On October 15th, 1907, at the residence of William Hohey, Balnes Corner, St. John Co., N. B., a pretty wedding took place. The bride was Miss Helen Hopey, daughter of Mr. Hopey, and the groom was Walter Jackson of St. Martins. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Townsend, in the presence of a large company. The bride was charming in a costume of blue, trimmed with white. She was given away by her father, George Ross acted as best man, while the bride was attended by Ethel Ross. After the congratulations had been offered the company sat down to supper. The presents were numerous and beautiful, including a large number of useful articles for householding. The happy pair left on Wednesday for St. John and other points of interest.

MARGRAVES-PERKINS. Announcements have been received here of the marriage in Proctor, B. C., of Miss Daisy A. Perkins, third daughter of Capt. J. D. Perkins of this city, to James Margrave of Taber, Alberta. The ceremony was performed at "Sunny Glen," the home of Edwin S. Oliver, brother-in-law of the bride, by the Rev. H. H. Graham, rector of St. Saviour's church, Nelson, B. C. The happy couple will reside in Taber, Alta., where J. Margrave has a lucrative business. The bride's gown was a dainty creation of cream, white and white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss ABIE CATHERS, who wore a becoming gown of cream Bedford cord and carried pink chrysanthemums. Stanley E. Fisher acted in the capacity of groomsmen. Miss Effie Simpson presided at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march.

PETERS-BUTTIMER. At Salmon Beach, Gloucester Co., by Rev. F. H. McCally, a Wednesday evening at the residence of Allan Buttimer, brother of the bride, Miss Nettie Buttimer was married to Walter Peters, of Canada. The ceremony took place at a reception at the home of Mrs. Peters was the recipient of an address and a suite of parlor furniture from the Methodist congregation of Salmon Beach.

SMITH-CHIPMAN. ANNAPOLIS, N. S., Oct. 10.—On Wednesday, September 4th, a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sewell, Coldstream, N. B., when their niece, Minnie B. Estabrooks, was united in marriage to William A. Noble of Coldstream. The ceremony was performed on the lawn in the presence of eighty guests, Rev. A. F. Baker of Hartland being the officiating clergyman. The bride was prettily attired in a dress of cream tulle with lace trimmings. Miss Alice Noble was bridesmaid and wore a dress of white organdy. The groom was supported by George Shaw. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring and to the best man a pearl stick pin.

VEAZEY-GANONG. A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Leinster street Baptist parsonage, 177 Sydney street, Monday evening, October 14th, when Charles Herbert Veazey, of St. Stephen, N. B., and Miss Sarah Louise Ganong, of Calais, were united in marriage. The bride was in a fashionable costume of navy blue cloth with hat to match. After visiting a number of Canadian cities Mr. and Mrs. Veazey will return to Calais, Me., where they will reside.

COCHRAN-RYAN. The marriage of Miss Katherine R. Ryan, daughter of Mr. Ryan, St. Patrick street, to James Cochran, son of P. J. Cochran of the Royal Pharmacy, was solemnized in the cathedral Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock by Rev. A. W. Meahan. The bride was dressed in a travelling costume of navy blue and wore a pale blue mushroom hat. The groom's attire consisted of a tuxedo of honor. After the ceremony the guests adjourned to the home of the bride, where refreshments were served. There were many beautiful and useful presents, among them checks from the bride's and groom's father. The groom's present to the bride was a pair of gold. The happy couple left yesterday morning for the Holy Austin for Boston and vicinity, and on their return will reside at 113 St. James street.

HARRIS-ROACH. A charming ceremony took place Tuesday evening, October 8th, at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hand, 113 St. James street, when Miss Marion Lorne Roach became the bride of Leonard Christopher Harris, M.D., of Moncton. Rev. J. E. Hand tied the nuptial knot.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Richard Roach. The bride wore a gown of white silk trimmed with rose point lace. She wore a bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Beatrice Roach, was prettily attired in pale blue silk with hat of corresponding tint.

The ushers were J. E. Hand and supported the groom throughout the ceremony.

The church was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums.

The full church of England service was used. Some special music was beautifully rendered by the choir. The reading of the Holy Gospels followed. The bride's gown was of white silk and the ceremony was being performed. Dr. Arnold Fox played the wedding march. After the ceremony the newly married couple left for Moncton where the groom has an extensive medical practice and where they will make their home.

KILEY-KIERVIN. A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's Church Wednesday morning at six o'clock, when Daniel Kiley was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Kiervin, youngest daughter of Mr. Kiervin, of the bride's street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward Seully, C. S. S. R. The bride wore a gown of cream crepe de chene with white picture hat. The ushers were W. B. Proctor and F. O. Sturdy.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch. The bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's mother, Cobourg Road, the guests being exclusively intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Kiley will reside at 234 Bridge street.

JACKSON-HOPEY. On October 15th, 1907, at the residence of William Hohey, Balnes Corner, St. John Co., N. B., a pretty wedding took place. The bride was Miss Helen Hopey, daughter of Mr. Hopey, and the groom was Walter Jackson of St. Martins. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Townsend, in the presence of a large company. The bride was charming in a costume of blue, trimmed with white. She was given away by her father, George Ross acted as best man, while the bride was attended by Ethel Ross. After the congratulations had been offered the company sat down to supper. The presents were numerous and beautiful, including a large number of useful articles for householding. The happy pair left on Wednesday for St. John and other points of interest.

MARGRAVES-PERKINS. Announcements have been received here of the marriage in Proctor, B. C., of Miss Daisy A. Perkins, third daughter of Capt. J. D. Perkins of this city, to James Margrave of Taber, Alberta. The ceremony was performed at "Sunny Glen," the home of Edwin S. Oliver, brother-in-law of the bride, by the Rev. H. H. Graham, rector of St. Saviour's church, Nelson, B. C. The happy couple will reside in Taber, Alta., where J. Margrave has a lucrative business. The bride's gown was a dainty creation of cream, white and white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss ABIE CATHERS, who wore a becoming gown of cream Bedford cord and carried pink chrysanthemums. Stanley E. Fisher acted in the capacity of groomsmen. Miss Effie Simpson presided at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march.

PETERS-BUTTIMER. At Salmon Beach, Gloucester Co., by Rev. F. H. McCally, a Wednesday evening at the residence of Allan Buttimer, brother of the bride, Miss Nettie Buttimer was married to Walter Peters, of Canada. The ceremony took place at a reception at the home of Mrs. Peters was the recipient of an address and a suite of parlor furniture from the Methodist congregation of Salmon Beach.

SMITH-CHIPMAN. ANNAPOLIS, N. S., Oct. 10.—On Wednesday, September 4th, a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sewell, Coldstream, N. B., when their niece, Minnie B. Estabrooks, was united in marriage to William A. Noble of Coldstream. The ceremony was performed on the lawn in the presence of eighty guests, Rev. A. F. Baker of Hartland being the officiating clergyman. The bride was prettily attired in a dress of cream tulle with lace trimmings. Miss Alice Noble was bridesmaid and wore a dress of white organdy. The groom was supported by George Shaw. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring and to the best man a pearl stick pin.

VEAZEY-GANONG. A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Leinster street Baptist parsonage, 177 Sydney street, Monday evening, October 14th, when Charles Herbert Veazey, of St. Stephen, N. B., and Miss Sarah Louise Ganong, of Calais, were united in marriage. The bride was in a fashionable costume of navy blue cloth with hat to match. After visiting a number of Canadian cities Mr. and Mrs. Veazey will return to Calais, Me., where they will reside.

COCHRAN-RYAN. The marriage of Miss Katherine R. Ryan, daughter of Mr. Ryan, St. Patrick street, to James Cochran, son of P. J. Cochran of the Royal Pharmacy, was solemnized in the cathedral Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock by Rev. A. W. Meahan. The bride was dressed in a travelling costume of navy blue and wore a pale blue mushroom hat. The groom's attire consisted of a tuxedo of honor. After the ceremony the guests adjourned to the home of the bride, where refreshments were served. There were many beautiful and useful presents, among them checks from the bride's and groom's father. The groom's present to the bride was a pair of gold. The happy couple left yesterday morning for the Holy Austin for Boston and vicinity, and on their return will reside at 113 St. James street.

HARRIS-ROACH. A charming ceremony took place Tuesday evening, October 8th, at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hand, 113 St. James street, when Miss Marion Lorne Roach became the bride of Leonard Christopher Harris, M.D., of Moncton. Rev. J. E. Hand tied the nuptial knot.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Richard Roach. The bride wore a gown of white silk trimmed with rose point lace. She wore a bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Beatrice Roach, was prettily attired in pale blue silk with hat of corresponding tint.

The ushers were J. E. Hand and supported the groom throughout the ceremony.

The church was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums.

The full church of England service was used. Some special music was beautifully rendered by the choir. The reading of the Holy Gospels followed. The bride's gown was of white silk and the ceremony was being performed. Dr. Arnold Fox played the wedding march. After the ceremony the newly married couple left for Moncton where the groom has an extensive medical practice and where they will make their home.

KILEY-KIERVIN. A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's Church Wednesday morning at six o'clock, when Daniel Kiley was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Kiervin, youngest daughter of Mr. Kiervin, of the bride's street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward Seully, C. S. S. R. The bride wore a gown of cream crepe de chene with white picture hat. The ushers were W. B. Proctor and F. O. Sturdy.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch. The bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's mother, Cobourg Road, the guests being exclusively intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Kiley will reside at 234 Bridge street.

JACKSON-HOPEY. On October 15th, 1907, at the residence of William Hohey, Balnes Corner, St. John Co., N. B., a pretty wedding took place. The bride was Miss Helen Hopey, daughter of Mr. Hopey, and the groom was Walter Jackson of St. Martins. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Townsend, in the presence of a large company. The bride was charming in a costume of blue, trimmed with white. She was given away by her father, George Ross acted as best man, while the bride was attended by Ethel Ross. After the congratulations had been offered the company sat down to supper. The presents were numerous and beautiful, including a large number of useful articles for householding. The happy pair left on Wednesday for St. John and other points of interest.

MARGRAVES-PERKINS. Announcements have been received here of the marriage in Proctor, B. C., of Miss Daisy A. Perkins, third daughter of Capt. J. D. Perkins of this city, to James Margrave of Taber, Alberta. The ceremony was performed at "Sunny Glen," the home of Edwin S. Oliver, brother-in-law of the bride, by the Rev. H. H. Graham, rector of St. Saviour's church, Nelson, B. C. The happy couple will reside in Taber, Alta., where J. Margrave has a lucrative business. The bride's gown was a dainty creation of cream, white and white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss ABIE CATHERS, who wore a becoming gown of cream Bedford cord and carried pink chrysanthemums. Stanley E. Fisher acted in the capacity of groomsmen. Miss Effie Simpson presided at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march.

PETERS-BUTTIMER. At Salmon Beach, Gloucester Co., by Rev. F. H. McCally, a Wednesday evening at the residence of Allan Buttimer, brother of the bride, Miss Nettie Buttimer was married to Walter Peters, of Canada. The ceremony took place at a reception at the home of Mrs. Peters was the recipient of an address and a suite of parlor furniture from the Methodist congregation of Salmon Beach.

HON. DR. PUGSEY. After the cheering which followed Sir Frederick Borden's speech had died away, Premier Murray, in introducing Hon. Dr. Pugsey, of New Brunswick, the new Minister of Public Works, asked the immense audience to give the new minister a "royal welcome" and they gave it to him in the style, draping the strains of "A Jolly Good Fellow" which the band was playing in the gallery. It had gone eleven o'clock by this time, but it was not apparent the slightest decrease in interest and attention, and the people seemed anxious to hear the new minister of public works.

Dr. Pugsey said he had too kindly a feeling for the audience to make a speech at the late hour, especially as he knew so many of the people present were anxious to meet the premier at the close of the meeting and shake him by the hand. As one of the new Ministers of the Cabinet he must confess that there was not a prouder man in Canada than he, because he was to sit in the council of the country with such a leader as Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and his able lieutenant and right hand man, Mr. Fielding, who was being so honored at this meeting. He hoped the noble and patriotic work in the interests of Canada might inspire him so that at least to some extent he might leave a record for his honest and patriotic effort. As Minister of Public Works, coming the 11th of Public Works coming from the sister city of St. John, he pledged to do what he would endeavor to do for the best interests of this province as well as all other provinces in Canada and endeavor to do justice to all. (Cheers.)

He referred to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's statement in opening the exhibition at St. John a few years ago, that he would never rest until every pound of Canada's products expected, found his way through Canadian channels. This truth had been going on for years through Canadian channels. These words inspired us with the hope and confidence that the day was near at hand when Sir Wilfrid's hope would be realized to a large extent. (Cheers.) The speaker would be proud indeed, if any effort of his would lead to the realization of this hope of the people of the