Forecast: Strong easterly winds with snow and rain. Thursday—Northwesterly gales and a change to decidedly colder weather.

MANY SPIES

Over-run Salonica and Post the Germans.

Paris, Jan. 12.—Numerous extracts from documents seized at Salonica when the Consuls of the Teutonic allies were arrested there recently were printed in yesterday's newspapers. Among the papers, according to the published statement, were copies of daily reports telegraphed to Vienna by the Austrian Consul-General, giving the numbers and descriptions of allied troops that were landing at Salonica; reports of spies on the movements of allied forces into the interior and records of payments to these spies and to local newspapers. The system of espionage, the accounts stated, was extended to Greece, and among the published papers there are what purports to be copies of reports made by agents at Greek military centres and by port functionaries. A good friend of Germany and can be trusted," is a sentence printed as being taken from one of the reports made regarding a certain prefect, while a certain officer "One secret agent is declared to have written on December 30 that Greek troops which were supposed to be leaving the city marched out on one side and came back on the other. The Paris brethren, a secretary of the German Legation, is represented as reporting that he was endeavoring to establish communication by spies with Monastir.

CANADIANS BEST

In Artillery Shooting Taking Place at Salisbury Plains.

London, Jan. 12.—The Sixth Artillery Howitzer Brigade gained high praise from an English general at Salisbury, where the unit went for special practice. He asserted that it was the best shooting he had seen, not only of the Canadian, but of any artillery.
