MURDERED IN MADISON SQ.

Persian World's Fair Commissioner Shot Down by Armenian Socialist.

New York, July 23.—While walking in Madison square yesterday, E. S. Tavahanjian, a rug importer, who is said to have been a commissioner for Persia to the World's Fair at Chicago, was shot and instantly killed.

The assassin, who approached him from the rear and shot him without warning, was pursued by bystanders for several blocks and turned and wounded one of them with a shot from his revolver. He was overtaken and arrested.

One of Tavahanjian's employees said the assassin had been trying to extort money from the merchant, to be used to finance an Armenian revolution. The man arrested and accused of killing the merchant told the police his name was Beros Hanpazian of Chicago. The police say he declared that he killed the man to save his country.

HIKED FOR SWEET LIBERTY.

Prisoner at Brockville Takes Advantage of Wash Day.

Brockville, July 23.—William Turner, better known as "Problem," a tough character, made a daring escape from the jail yesterday, where he was awaiting removal to the Central Prison on a six months' sentence for vagrancy. This was washday at the jail, and since his incarceration, seven weeks ago, Turner had been engaged at this work. The work had been completed, and with two prisoners, Turner was taken to the yard to hang out the clothes. Turnkey Wright was in charge and first assigned Turner to emptying a pail of ashes. He obeyed the command, but throwing the bucket on the pile, took advantage of the yard through a gate into the street. Up to a late hour last night he had not been recaptured.

There is such a thing as being oppressively good.
