MAKE LIFE ON THE FARM APPEALING

Since the war a problem which has been worrying agriculturalists all over the country is that of keeping the boy and the girl on the farm. All the literature that I have seen on the subject shows quite plainly that no panacea has been discovered to meet the difficulty in connection with the exodus of the boys and girls from the farms. I think that hon. gentlemen will all agree that we can at least go a long way towards solving the problem by adopting better farm methods; by making the home more attractive; by keeping better livestock; by making more profit on the farm, which will make possible more comfortable conditions such as will be conducive to happiness and contentment; by making conditions tolerable for the farmer's wife, and generally by doing everything we can to make life on the farm appealing. In addition to this, I think that good roads and cheap automobiles should play a very great part in helping to keep the young people on the farms by rendering very valuable assistance to the farmer in different ways in connection with his work and by enabling him and his family to move around and mix with the neighbors, thus obtaining some social pleasure out of life.—Hon. S. E. Tolmie, in House of Commons, May 14, 1920.

RETAIL PRICES WILL SLUMP

WASHINGTON, August 27—Retail prices in the opinion of the Federal Reserve Board, will decline slightly during the coming fall and winter months and will slump next spring, to lower levels.

Summarizing recent changes in prices of various commodities in the United States, the Board in a report last night said that "Saving afforded by manufacturers through lessened costs of materials and increased efficiency of labor must eventually be reflected in a downward movement of retail prices."

Changes on the prices of raw materials, which were reported to have declined sharply during the past few weeks, will not show their effect, according to the Board, in retail prices until early next spring.

The Board stated that an "important downward tendency" in prices of all commodities except food had been evidenced throughout the United States, the reduction in prices of raw products having been especially marked.

This general lowering of the price level, it was believed, indicates a probable drop in food prices during the coming months.
