LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Friends of the late John Humble were shocked to hear of his sudden death from heart failure at 8:45 a.m. on Sunday at his home in Truro. Deceased was claims agent for the C. N. R. and was spending the week-end at his home, in his usual good health, when he was suddenly stricken. He was about 50 years of age and a native of Stanley, where for a number of years he conducted a general merchandise business. For the last two or three years he has lived in Truro. He leaves to mourn, a widow formerly Miss Caroline White of Centreville, four daughters—Dorothy and Ruth at home, Geraldine at St. Stephen, and Evelyn at Kings College and three sons—Leverett at Stanley, Gordon at Kings College and Archie at home. The funeral services were held from his late home in Truro on Tuesday.

Don Scholey of Fredericton spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. L. Burton Clark at their home. He leaves for Vancouver this week.

Rev. D. R. Chowen, B. A., of Florenceville will preach in the Methodist churches at Centreville at 11 a.m., Bloomfield Corner at 3 p.m. and at Lakeville at 7 p.m. on Sunday Oct. 30. A large number of Centreville people attended the Liberal-Conservative rally at Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee of Bangor returned to their home on Friday after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lee.

Rev. I. W. Williamson is holding a series of services at East Florenceville lasting three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. West and Miss Margaret Campbell of Presque Isle spent Sunday here with relatives.

A number of our citizens were summoned for jury-duty at the setting of the Carleton County court in Woodstock last week.

A very pleasant party was given Tuesday evening in Sherwood's Opera House, in honor of Rev. C. R. Canham. A large attendance of parishioners from Centreville, Greenfield and Florenceville made the occasion one of exceptional good cheer and all enjoyed themselves most thoroughly. The Centreville orchestra very kindly furnished music, which added much to the success of the evening. The delicious refreshments served were provided by the ladies of the several Church Guilds. It was with regret that the company finally dispersed—as the evening came to a close all too soon. It was determined that the occasion should not be the last of its kind, but should be repeated at some future date.

Rev. H. R. Bell will preach as follows on October 30: Centreville 11 a.m.; Good Corner 3 p.m. and Carvell at 7 p.m.

The special evangelistic services being held in the United Baptist church at Carvell are being well attended and considerable interest being taken. These services will be continued every night next week with the exception of Thursday evening. Come along and bring a friend with you and hear some of the interesting themes that will be preached next week.

Mr. Baird of Chipman arrived on Monday to relieve Harold G. White, resigned, in the Bank of Nova Scotia here.

Mr. Stone of St. John is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Strahan.

Mrs. C. R. Cliff has returned from Mars Hill where she has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Cliff and Mrs. A. C. Gibson.
