June 1 18 Those contemplating the holding of teapurties and plouies during the season would do well to peruse the annous coment of J. Xupply & Son, in this issue. The firm has a reputation as caterers of the highest standard, and may be relied upon to ensure the best of satisfaction. For several seasons past the closest atjustion has been directed to the wants of teaparties, etc., with the best of success, and this season they are in a better position than ever to fill the bill.

Tun interest of the heirs of the late M. thank Hickey in the firm of Hickey & Nionolson. Tobacco Manufacturers, has been purchased by the last named member of the firm, who will continue the business under the old fun's name. The article manufactured by the late firm was of the very best quality, and we feel sure that under Mr. Nicholson's management the weed will loose none of its flavor. He has our best wishes for a continuance of the successes which attended the late firm.

First occurred in a warehouse on Richmond Street, near Prince, owned by Mr. J. H. Gates, about 12.15 o'clock Monday more ting. The blars originated near one of the Joors of the building and was, without doub's, the work of an incendiary. The building was badly burned, and the merchandise owned by C. L. Smallwood, by whom the warehouse was usud, badly damaged. There was insurance only on the Building's contents. The alarm given Saturday evening wascaused by the crossing of the wires.

BicGracor & Sons warehouse, at New Glasgew, N. S., was broken into last Wednesday night and nine tarrels of flour stolen. An entrance was made by lifting a window and squeezing through some iron bare, a place about eight inches square. It was a daving burglary and daringly carried out, as the building is in the centre of the town, and a horse and truck were required to take away the flour. A man named Elickias has been sent up for trial in the Stapreme Court charged with the theft.

A sex sational runsway occurred concerns Street, Friday afternoon, by which a splendid light-friving wagon came to grief, and a young child narrowly escaped serious injury. The animal belonged to Mr. Lemnet Wood, of Lot 48, and was standing without a caretaker, ep. the Grafton Sereet, wide of Market Squary when it took fright and thar et on its will run. At Duoi & Rogers hardware store, the horse took to the sidewalk and continued onward in his mad career, until the London House corner was reached, when, the wheel of the wagon coming in contact with a post; the "shafts snapped, the which completely overturned and the frightened sulmal galloped madly over Rici mond Street. While rushing down the sidewalk the wheel of the wagon struck the wheel of a beby carriage, in which was the young child of Mr. Ernest Dawson, and unashed it. Happily the child was unburt, but the attendant received a pretty had some.
