ion. Book free.

The post hath come to his guardon, He, who as forest bird Dealeth in golden magic So Learie at his will are stirred. His own hath come to the Master ! Gift him the cavied bays! These for the nights of vigil, These for the toilful days.

Gird him with hearty greetings? Guard him from captions one Voice him the people's verdict, "Sing! for we joy to hear!"

What may the heart of the victor Count as the descret prime? Is it that gratulation Looketh from kindly eyes? Is it that they who slighted Now dealeth courtly phrase? What is it best repayeth The dree of the lously days?

Hearken the voice of the strate!

"Welcome and great the meed.
But in the Valley of Doubting
My spirit were faint for need.

"Had not the decreat guardon Come in that far-off time, When resonant bells of Feney Rung me their earliest chime

"Ere critic knew to cavil— Then on a creaming child Rhyming in crudest fashion A listening mother smiled." The best my gift hath brought me?
Enthusiast! it was this—
Chrism before the conflict,

r's eignet kiss!

Now that the battle of education is raging answ, in Pa lineant, the country, and the press, the friends of the undenominational system would do well to cast a glanes at the country indeed is the need of a supernatural associons, to the tites recalts on those parts of the continent where it has had recounts for the problem of constructing a raligion of the and morals from their dwe control of education for a full generation, supply the most instructive object leasons as to its effect on the ratio of crime to population, and the tessions, gapen the most instructive object leasons as to its effect on the ratio of crime to population, and the tessions for ratio of crime to population, and the tessions for ratio of crime to population, and the tessions goes on to age; "Whether to intent out to the ware quotient for the problem of constructing the author of which, after hamenting the total cheeved with rings and all manner of the Zulu assemble for special canacitant. In both wide diffusion of knowledge, apart from religious inatraction, would seem to footer, instead of the Cablolic Cateobiam, "the control of education of the owners, and the property of the property of the property indeed in the control of education for a full generate and morals from their dwe country to Natal by the government of trade. The Ladians dress in secular priest. Nearly all the pupils were catechumens preparing for baptime. On two evenings in each week the bills overlooking the stream of the other August treating the other August been brought from their own country to Natal by the government on account of their superior know country to Natal by the government on the country to Natal by the government on account of their superior know country to Natal by the government on account of their superior know country to Natal by the government of the country to Natal by the government on account of their superior know country to Natal by the government of the country to Natal by the government of the country to Natal by the government of the count Now that the battle of educati spart from rengions inserventum, would seem to factor, instead of chooking or diminishing the ories and tendency, does in both, residuated ories, and more aspecially jevenile ories, and more aspecially jevenile ories, attachingly on the lancesses. The state confirmation of this fact, to histocontrastion of this fact, to histocontrastic original to the senting the state of society, comes from Italy, where it has been almost unablement and the subject of collectifications can be expected on the subject of collectification and collectification can be expected on the subject of the subject of collectification can be expected on the subject of the subject of collectification can be expected on the subject of collectification can define can be expected on the collectification can define can be expected on the collectification can define can be expected on the collectification can define can be expected on the collectification can be expected on the collectifica would seem to foster, instead of checking or diminishing the crim-final tendency, since in both, orime, important point is that youth should her of those under sentence in the different penel institutions had grown from 15,037 at that date to the death for the propagattop of a heism under the specious name of Undenominational education. The 28,336 in 1894, while Italy holdamong all the nations of Europe the disastrons primary in crimes of blood, leaving far behind even Spain, where the national tempersment is not less fleros and flery than that of her own people. The pet theory of State educationalists,

that exime is a function of igno rance, is expliced, by the figure of attendance in Elementary schools.

It is too late to correct the evil's prothat crime is a function of ignorance, is explied, by the figure of attendance in Elementary schools in Italy, where they have increased between 1871 and 1891, from 1723,000 to 2,245,006. Meanwhil he advance of precocity in crime a a still more rapid rate of progression is evinced by the ratio reached by prisoners under age of one-fifth of the total while of these a very large proportion had not yet attained their fourteenth year. Meantime the lateination of education has reached in Italy an ideal perfection who have preceded they on the path of innovation, and to profit by their methods should make it the model to be held up to the admiration of ell advocates of the system far surpassing here even that of France, where the fruits of the Revolution might the fruits of the Revolution might bave been expected to ripen to an sery of precocious depravity, and if earlier and more inli-blown maturity. In the latter country, the chers are obliged to inculcate ence, it is to the working of the Volome amount of axiomatic morality, untary system, and the efforts made uch as the elemen ary proppts on its behalf, that this comparative euch as the elemen ary procept-that the pupil should not hill, ate 1 immunity is due.—London Tablet or cheat; but in Italy, it would seem that even this bald recom-mendation of good conduct is om-lum, no doubt because tainted, with olericalism. Yet it was of France that Doctor Lebon wrote, that the days after my arrival in Natal I spent cluding churches and schools, in several contents of the several contents of the several cluding churches and schools, in several cluding ch existing system of education " trans enemies of society," and that "art." ants, of every nationality under the sun. The streets are well laid out, while charming villas abound on the broadout of those scholastic palaces. The sugar-cane is largely cultivated, which accounts for the product of the second of a supernatural sanction for athics felt appearance of the sugar-cane is largely cultivated, which accounts for the product of the second of the supernatural sanction for athics felt appearance of the sugar-cane is largely cultivated, which accounts for the presence of the supernatural canotics for a supernatural sanction for athics felt and supernatural sanction for a supernatural sanction for supernatural sanction for a supernatural sanction for a superna hed the reli-veiled infidelity. Thus we see the nouse of juvenile crime, and a ni

Fr. James O'Haire, who is travell at Durban, which is the port of Nata. eral districts. I have not yet been It is a town of about 30,000 inhabit able to visit them all, but I have seen every side, while flowers are every-where. Indeed, Natal is called, and important point is that youth should is, the garden of South Africa. The and tell you wast Cataonic mission-aries in this part of the dark continent-are doing to bring within the Church of God the great Zulu people. You may guess the power and strength and vastness of the Zulus when I tell you that if united they could bring into the field an army of 100,000 men. I said Mass in the chapel of the In-dians in Durban. Later I celebrated by an Austrian priest who stood be-side me. Ask the prayers of all Catholics in the old continent that health and strength and long life and beaven's choicest blessings may come to the great vicar-apostolic of Natal, whose zeal and energy and prudence and charity have initiated, and still control this magnificent apostolate for the Zulus and their tribes. I must, howthe idea that the trappists alone are engaged in this glorious propaganda for the conversion of the Zulus. The bishop vicar-apostolic of Natal is him self an Oblate of Mary Immaculate, and nearly all his priests are Oblates.

The Gold Fields of British Columbia, New Reselved in Reselved.

Weather

FOR READING.

Long Evenings

PLENTY OF TIME

He will soon let go, like Goff Bros. Boots they go so fast at prices to suit the pocket that our business for 1896 boomed ahead of 1895, and we invite our friends to help make 1897 the best year of all.

FOR 1897.

THE

Call at Carter's Bookstore and select some nice readable literature from the well filled shelves and well furnished news stand. The cost is small, while the benefit is of the enduring kind. The greatest minds of this age and oounts of the proceedings in densed for busy people; ac-

GEO. CARTER & CO

Your friends would appre

stored until required.

JOHN NEWSON

The Bargain Giver.

Boots & Shoes

RELIABLE

ALL KINDS OF

WORK

Performed at short notice at The HERALD Office.

Tickets Posters

> Dodgers Note Heads

Letter Heads Check Books

Roosipt Books

Note of Hand Book

espatch at the Hunard rigitetown. P. E. Island

JAMES H. REDDIN, Address all con the HERALD. ARRISTER-AT-LAY

CAMERON BLOCK.

eneas a. Macdonald AND ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

NOTABL PUBLIC, &

MONEY TO LOAM.

Another shipment of the celebrated Cross-Cut Saws, made by Hy. Disston & Sons, Philadelphia, Penn., U.S.

FENNELL & CHANDLER

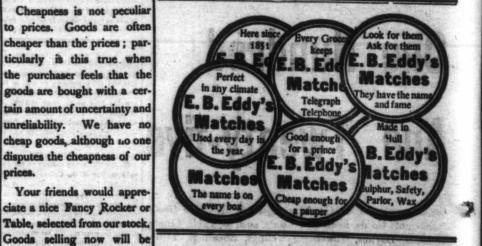

FARMERS

Before buying see our stock of MEN'S AND BOYS' STRONG BOOTS FOR FALL

PRICES LOW. BEST GOODS.

W. H. STEWART & CO., London House Building July 29, 1896-y

€AT COST

The Balance of our

On hand, will be sold at cost.

Overcoats, Reefers, Suits In Worsteds, Tweeds and Serges.

HAVE A LOOK THROUGH OUR STOCK, NO BETTER VALUE IN THE CITY.

D. A. BRUCE. Charlottetown, Jan. 20, 1897.

lohn TMellish, M. A., L.L. B Barrister & Attorney-at-Law, SOTARY PUBLIC, etc.

Seek After Insurance Will make no mis their Insurance is preatest Compani-sife) represented 1 220,000,000,

JOHN MO Dec. 16, '96-8 mo

EDDS'S BREAKFAS

DELICACY OF FLA BRATEFUL and CO

Propered by JAMES Oct. 7, 1896. Wate

SPECT a RII

These Leadi

Lowe

20 102