

The Poet's Corner.

By Sister M. Clemence, of S. S. de Notre Dame, Milwaukee, formerly Miss Mary C. O'Reilly, of Ashtabula, to her sister Ann.

List! the breezes are responding To the evening's solemn knell. Eighteen Eighty-one is dying Bidding all a sad farewell.

Little Foxes. Among my tender vines I spy A little fox named—By-and-by.

Words of Wisdom. The most benevolent intentions and the most beneficent actions often lose a great part of their merit if they are void of delicacy.

Having nothing out of place or out of season. Let us play in the playground, not in the churchyard; and sleep in the bed-chamber, not in the church.

Authors generally endure criticism with commendable fortitude, but as most criminals, when under the drop, conduct themselves with calmness.

There is as much greatness of mind in the owning of a good turn as in the doing of it; and we must no more force a requital out of season than we wanting in it.

All beauty is truth. Poetry is winged fable; but it is, likewise, fact on fire—and its chief excellency is its truth.

The greatest pleasure of life is love; the greatest treasure is contentment; the greatest possession is health; the greatest ease is sleep; the greatest medicine is a true friend.

True courage consists not in a stupid contempt of danger, but in preserving on the most dangerous occasions the calm use of our reason, with a determination to act up to its dictates.

There is no power of love so hard to get and keep as a kind voice. A kind hand is deaf and dumb. It may be rough in flesh and blood, yet do the work of a sound heart, and do it with a soft touch.

Fun and Fancy.

Large numbers of people will leave this town and vicinity for Manitoba and the North-West next month, among whom are the following:

The Rev. I. Barr, Incumbent of St. Paul's (Episcopal) Church, preached his last sermon here on Sunday morning last, to a large congregation. Although but a few months amongst us, he has greatly endeared himself to the members of his congregation, and made many warm friends outside his own church, all of whom deeply regret his sudden departure.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Watson are bound for the Prairie Province. Their presence will be greatly missed by everyone, they having taken the lead for about four years past in the choir of St. Paul's Church, Mrs. Watson having presided at the organ for three years. Whenever anything in the shape of a musical entertainment has been got up for the benefit of any church, public or charitable institution, they were always ready to lend their services, which never failed to ensure success to the entertainment.

Mr. C. Griffin, one of the oldest residents of Wingham, has sold his property in the Town Plot for $1,000, and intends leaving, with some of his family, at an early date.

E. Rockey & Son will take up a number of horses and dogs.

Mr. Wm. McConnell, who has acted as Bailiff for the 8th Division Court since its establishment here; Mr. Wm. Birch, another old resident (and family); Messrs. P. McKibbin, G. J. Clarke, C. M. Newans, Reynolds Bros. and J. Connell, all residents of the town, intend leaving as soon as they can make necessary preparations.

A number of people in the adjoining townships are selling their farms and preparing to go west, amongst whom we notice Mr. Thos. Haislop, member of Turnberry Township Council, who intends settling in Kansas; Messrs. R. Johnston and E. Phair, sen., of Turnberry; Mr. F. Clegg, Morris, Mr. S. Leggett, East Wawanosh, and a host of others, whose names we will endeavor to give in a future issue, are all selling out and preparing to start.—[Wingham Advance.]

"Did you receive my card, Mrs. X.?" "Oh, yes," replied Mrs. X., "and I have been expecting to return your call, but this is one of the terrible things that I always keep putting off." Mrs. B. looks pleased, but she doesn't feel that way.

Worse than War. "The throat has destroyed more lives than the sword," by imprudence in eating and intemperance in drinking; but when the health becomes impaired the miserable disquiet may find prompt relief in Burdock Blood Bitters. It regulates the bowels, acts upon the liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, and stimulates all the secretions to a healthy action.

Given Away. We cannot help noticing the liberal offer made to all invalids and sufferers by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. You are requested to call at any drug store, and get a Trial Bottle free of cost, if you are suffering with Consumption, severe Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Loss of Voice, Hoarseness, or any affection of the Throat or Lungs. It will positively cure you.

Newspaper Laws. We call the special attention of postmasters and subscribers to the following synopsis of the newspaper laws:

1. A postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publishers for payment.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.

3. Any person who takes a paper from the post-office, whether directed to his name or not, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

4. If a subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the post-office. This proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take a newspaper and periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

A General Stampede. Never was there such a rush for Drug Stores as is now at ours for a Trial Bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. All persons afflicted with Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Severe Coughs, or any affection of the Throat and Lungs, can get a trial bottle of this great remedy free, by calling at your drug store.

Woman's True Friend. A friend in need is a friend indeed. This need is especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease, more particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial always proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Nature, after all, is the great physician. She hides all the secrets of health within her broad, generous bosom, and man needs but to go to her intelligently for his every need. The discovery of the great Cough Remedy, GRAY'S SYRUP or RED SPRUCE GUM, is an apt illustration of this. As a cure for Coughs, Colds, Loss of Voice and Hoarseness it stands unrivalled, while its low price and readiness of access places it within the reach of all. Try it and be convinced. All chemists keep it in 25 and 50-cent bottles.—ad
