THE NICKEL.

To-Day and Saturday.

Pathe Film de Luxe:

A Lieutenant's Love.

Adapted by the Parisian Actors from the Theatre Francaise's greatest Theatrical success, "Lieut.
Liebe."

This Military Film is produced along most original lines. The story is that of an old Sergeant's daughter, who keeps a midnight tryst with an officer in a French garrison, and a faithful friend from the ranks who seeks to vindicate her honour, is court-martialled and disgraced. In the meantime the old man's daughter is killed by his own hand; he preferring death to dishonour. The film, while extremely impressive and tragic, is exceptionally well acted.

The Romance of the Foundling.

A pretty little episode of an orphan asylum, where a foundling is adopted by kind-hearted people.
She, however, has left her heart behind her in the grim institution, and the glamour of the world cannot keep her from her childish sweetheart. Excellent in conception and execution.

A Model's Redemption.

A story of the gay white way.

Jack Logan's Dog.

A drama of the lumber woods.

A Bachelor's Finish.

Comedy.

As Usual, Big

Bumper Matinee
