Your Fall Cough.

is very liable to be an all winter cough unless you at once change the condition that causes it. There are a great many remedies that will stop a cough but unless they stop it in the right way they should be avoided.

PHORATORINE COUGH & COLD CURE is the only one we know of that quickly removes the cause of a cough—the inflammation of the air passages. One bottle is generally all that's necessary. Sometimes less will do it. Obtain a bottle at once from

DR. F. STAFFORD & SON,
St. John's, Newfoundland.
Price 25c. a bottle. Postage 3c. extra.

Marine Notes.

The S. S. Hippolytes is expected to-day coal laden to Crosbie & Co. from Philadelphia.

Sunday last the Sch. General Laurie on her way to New York from Campbellton, with laths, arrived at Halifax. On discharging she will proceed to Sydney, will load coal for this port and then proceed to Brazil fish laden.

What About The Bishop Affray?

Had the Chronicle man in mind his own writings of 1909 and the kicking of Sir Robert Bond over the wharf at Western Bay, when he mentioned the shooting of Roosevelt yesterday? Most people will agree with him that it is fortunate the people are almost without exception, very law abiding, or he himself would have been seriously inconvenienced many times in the past.

Again, was he hinting at Sir Edward Morris's threat to jail editors if they did not mind their p's and q's in criticizing him? If so, we are ready to meet him, as soon as he likes.

Has the Chronicle man forgotten Sir Edward Morris's bitter, false and malicious personal attack on us in Bonne Bay, when he posed as an "insider" in politics. If he is so venomous as an official, what is his capacity as a politician? It looks as if he is quite capable of living up to the reputation given him by Mr. P. T. McGrath in the nineties.

Tug in Quest of Missing Craft.

The tug D. P. Ingraham, which left port at daylight this morning to make a search for the missing schooner George May, had not arrived back up to press hour. The tug is scouring the waters around Baccalieu and vicinity where the wreckage was reported to be seen in an endeavour to rescue, if possible, the men on board the missing craft. Whilst hopes are not yet abandoned for the safety of the George May yet it is feared that she did not survive the terrible storm she encountered on Sunday night last.

LOADING FOR BRAZIL.—The Sch. Nellie Louise is now loading fish at Bowring Bros. for Brazil.

MR. J. R. MIDDLETON, the genial agent of the Copeland Chatterton Business Systems, Ltd., of Toronto, is in the city again on his annual business visit.

CITY OF SYDNEY DELAYED.—The S. S. City of Sydney did not leave Montreal until daylight this morning. She was delayed taking a full cargo of freight.

A SPLENDID FISHERY.—People in from Twillingate to-day say that the shore fishery the past summer was the best in 40 years. The fish were plentiful. The French Shore and Labrador voyages were also most substantial and the crafts hailed from 300 to 1,200 gals. only one had the former quantity.

MR. MICHAEL O'TOOLE, a well known and respected resident of the South Side, died this morning after a long and painful illness. The deceased who leaves a wife and 3 children was well known and liked. He was a member of the Star of the Sea Association. To his wife and family the Telegram extends its sympathy.

MR. JOHN MURPHY is now at Argentina and made his first attempt to Gill net fishing yesterday. Despite the fact that the weather was bad he made a fair haul and the fishermen who saw the nets work think that this system of fishing will be highly successful. Mr. Murphy deserves praise for the possession of so much luck and enterprise.

WATERFRONT LARCENIES.—The theory now held out by the police is that most of the waterfront larcenies committed on board scows, are confined to the fisherfolk themselves. Yesterday an instance of this was proven. The evening previous two pairs of boots were given belonging to Richard Mesh. Detective Byrne arrested a fisherman of Keels, B. B., on suspicion. Later the suspect admitted his guilt. The property being found in his possession. To-day the accused was fined $10 or 30 days.

"Savin' Mother."

The farmer sat in his easy chair, Between the fire and the lamplight's glare;
His face was ruddy and full and fair, His three small boys in the chimney-nook
Coned the lines of a picture book. His wife, the pride of his home and heart,
Baked the biscuit and made the tart, Laid the table and steeped the tea,
Deftly, swiftly, silently. Tired and weary and weak and faint,
She bore her trials without complaint, Like many another household saint—
Content, all selfish bliss above, In the patient ministry of love.

At last, between the clouds of smoke That wreathed his lips, the husband spoke:
"There's taxes to raise and interest to pay,
And if there should come a rainy day, 'Twould be might handy, I'm bound to say,
'T have sumptin' put by. For folks must die,
An' there's funeral bills, and grave-stones to buy—
Enough to swamp a man purty nigh. Besides there's Edward Dick and Joe To be provided for when we go.
So 't I was you, I'll tell you what I'd do,
I'd be saving of wood 's ever I could;
Extra fire don't do any good;
I'd be savin' of soap an' savin' of ile.
And run up some candles once in a while;
I'd be rather sparvin' of coffee and tea,
For sugar is high,
And all to buy,
And cider is good enough for me.
I'd be kind of careful about my clo'es,
And look out sharp how the money goes.
Extry trimmin' 'S the bane of woman.

I'd sell the best of the cheese and honey,
And eggs is as good, nigh about, 's the money.
And as to the carpet you wanted new, I guess we can make the old one du;
And as for the washer and sewing machine,
Them smooth-tongued agents, so pesky mean,
'Oud better get rid of 'em slick and clean,
What du' they know about women's work?
Do they kalkilate women was born tu shirk?"

The Fogota left Seldom at 6.30 a.m. to-day.
The Euphrates sailed this morning with a full freight and deck load for Conception Bay.

DANGEROUS MISHAP.—This forenoon a barrel of flour while being hoisted out of the hold of the Stephano, broke loose from the slings and fell below, smashing in atoms. Luckily it did not strike any of the workmen, who were underneath it.

NEW POLICE OFFICER.—Const. Alexander Chisholm went on duty on Water Street last night for the first time. He cannot be called a recruit, as he had been a member of the police force of St. John, N.B., for some five years or more. Const. Chisholm is a son-in-law of Const. Fahy of Bay Bulls.
