ELECTORS OF THE NORTH!

Your Fellow Countrymen of the East, South and West Extend to You Their Heartiest Congratulations on Your Approval of the Policy of Bennett and Better Times—The People's Paper Wishes to Voice the Sentiments of the Electors of Conception Bay.

The People's Paper wishes to voice the sentiments of the electors of Conception Bay, St. John's East and West, and of all the Districts to the South and West, in extending to their fellow countrymen in the North, the most enthusiastic and heartfelt congratulations on the welcome and unqualified approval of the policy of Bennett and Better Times. There has been no happening in the political history of Newfoundland which has been acclaimed with such joy and popular acceptance as the grand new policy of Bennett and Better Times, which has been proclaimed, then the announcement that the great majority of the fishermen of the Northern Bays had voted for Bennett and Better Times, and that they had decided to join with the rest of Newfoundland in electing the present Government from power. This noble and patriotic action on the part of the fishermen of the Northern Bays is a just condemnation of the past policy of the Government, and a declaration of their belief in the future of the North. They have shown that they are not to be misled by the promises of the Coakerites, and that they are not to be hoodwinked by the parrot cry of the Humber; when they are face to face with conditions that point to a throttling of the fisheries, the destruction of their homes and fishing property, the wiping out of all sources of supply for our great staple industry, and nothing in exchange but the shack of the Humber and "the trapping of mosquitoes on its banks," as one Northern fisherman so ironically expressed himself, they determined to assert their own opinions, and to assert them so clearly in favor of the policy of Bennett and Better Times, that there it has greatly strengthened the most decided buoyant and optimistic feeling now prevailing all over Newfoundland, arising out of the sure election of the Bennett party; a feeling that we are moving more rapidly than ever towards the welcome era of happiness and prosperity, and that all we have to do now is to keep this feeling uppermost in our minds so that we will be inspired the more to rally all the forces in favor of the great cause of better times to the polling booths on May 3rd, and then step right out once more on to the threshold of an era of such unbounded prosperity as we have never before witnessed.

All honor then to the fearless, honest, independent fishermen of the North. We clasp hands with you on behalf of the electors of the East, the South and West in again tendering you heartiest congratulations, in the complete assurance that an united Newfoundland spells for us all that unity of endeavor, that unity of energy and unity of purpose, which, when directed towards a nation's or a country's welfare, brings to every man, woman and child therein as it will to us, the blessings of peace and plenty of prosperity and contentment, love of home and family not amongst strangers but in this our own land which is our birthright, and in which we prefer to live surrounded happily by our own children enjoying to the full mankind's highest aim and ideal upon this earth, the blessings of comfort and contentment.

A Reason Why.

ST. JOHN'S WEST IS ANTI-COAKER
Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—If anybody wishes to know why there is such a stormy feeling against Coakerism in St. John's West, and why the Opposition straight ticket will win by hundreds of votes I wish to state one reason. It is—that around my neighborhood in Springdale Street, Monroe Street, Gilbert Street, Charlton St., and other streets nearby where a large vote was polled for the Squires-Coaker party before, the electors are now determined to cast their votes in favour of the BENNETT STRAIGHT TICKET. We want to have nothing further to do with Coakerism which stands for the ruin of our homes and all St. John's, and will this time give the BENNETT GOVERNMENT a chance to bring good times to us once more. Once is enough to be betrayed by Coaker's pawns so out they must go. With this stronghold gone from them, they are only now hanging by their eyebrows in St. John's West, which is not a strong enough hold for them to last much longer. I don't see how they can get any but a miserable vote because every part of the West End seems to be in favour of the straight ticket, CASHIN, LINEGAR and HUNT.

Yours truly,
SPRINGDALE ST. VOTER.

Mr. Sampson Said It Was Impossible to Carry Out Squires Manifesto.

On Monday, June 27th, 1921, during a debate in the House of Assembly, Mr. J. R. Bennett charged that every possible pledge contained in the Prime Minister's Manifesto had been broken or unfulfilled. Mr. Sampson who was the Coaker spokesman at the time, replied that it was impossible to carry out the Manifesto and later in the debate he stated "We did not have to work on the Manifesto."

NO MORE DRAINING OF THE TAX-

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—For the information of your many readers, as well as for their encouragement, I should be pleased if you will permit me to pass along the good news that has come to me after a recent visit around Trinity and Conception Bays. I have spent nearly eight weeks on business around both Bays, and everywhere I went I found that the people had made up their minds to turn out the present Government. As one indignant voter in Trinity Bay remarked to me they are nothing but a pack of misfits, and all they have done the past three years was to take the very life blood out of the fishermen, the producers of the Colony. They have made the fisheries not worth prosecuting by their brutal taxation and tampering with the free selling of fish and instead of encouraging business men and lassoing Coaker, they are now trying to strangle the former and letting the latter run looser with more of his crazy ruinous ideas. I never heard such outspoken hatred towards any Government and all of it was along the lines as above. I was assured that it will be all up with them on May 3rd, after which all the people look forward with confidence to the BETTER TIMES THE BENNETT GOVERNMENT will introduce, and so these two bays will return 12 supporters for Bennett, making with the six in St. John's 18 to start with. The Outposts have been told too that St. John's is all for Bennett and so this encourages them to believe the rest of the country will support the good times party also.

Yours truly,
TRAVELLER.

No Fear of St. John's East

COAKERISM WILL GET A BIGGER
THRASHING THIS TIME.
Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—The troubles of this life are many as we all know and experience from time to time. Some we cannot very well help and must endure but others are inflicted on us which we might rid ourselves of more effectively, if we act a little more earnestly. The election now on has brought to us again this infliction of Coakerite candidates, and this after the hardest winter on record. Who in the name of common sense "stuffs" Harry Bartlett with the idea that he can carry the flag of Coakerism in such an intelligent district as St. John's East? However, there is good hope for the future in the splendid news we are hearing that the whole country is up in arms against this menace and that we are to have the BENNETT PARTY AND BETTER TIMES. There is no fear of St. John's East but to rid the district for all time of Coaker touts like Bartlett, we should give him a thrashing at the polls this time that will prevent him from ever again propounding Coaker's policy in St. John's East.

Yours truly,
KING'S ROAD VOTER.
