

New Advertisements.

BOARDING - A vacancy for two gentlemen boarders in a private family. Apply at this office.

TO RENT - A Wood and Lumber Yard, situated on Woolwich street. Apply to Thompson & Jackson.

BOARDER WANTED - Wanted, a gentleman boarder, in a private family. Enquire at this office.

COOK WANTED - In a family. References required. Apply at Mr. Cooper's store, Wyndham St. Guelph.

TO LET - Several rooms in a house, situated on the Roman Catholic Globe. Apply to Messrs. O'Connor & McMillan, Bar-risters, etc.

WANTED - Four Cabinet Makers or Joiners at STEWART'S PLANING MILL, Guelph, Nov. 15, 1872.

COW LOST - A red cow, one horn broken off. Any person hearing her at the Royal Hotel, Guelph, will be liberally rewarded.

STORE TO RENT - The store on Sandhill street, including the machinery, is suitable for general business. Apply to Geo. Anderson, grain dealer.

TO LET - The large room over the MERCURY OFFICE, formerly used as a Temperance Hall. Suitable for an office for any light manufacturing purpose. Enquire at the Mercury Office.

WANTED - A young man from 16 to 19 years of age, as Assistant in a Grocery and Provision Store. He must write a good hand and be well recommended. Apply immediately to George Fraser, Elora.

BUILDING LOTS FOR SALE - Two lots of 66 feet frontage, each on Wellington Street, being a portion of the open space between the Curling Rink and Mr. Barclay's property, is for sale. They are very desirable for building purposes, and will be sold cheap. For terms, &c., apply to the undersigned, Town Hall Building, Guelph.

PICTURE FRAMING. The subscriber begs to inform his old customers and the public that he is prepared to do all kinds of Picture Framing at his shop in the building attached to the Old English Church, St. George's Street, Guelph. Parties are invited to examine quality of work, and ascertain prices before going elsewhere.

STORE AND DWELLING FOR SALE OR TO RENT - The subscriber offers for sale on reasonable terms a well built and finished store and dwelling at Bristol, Township of Elgin, at present occupied by Mr. Mackenzie, Postmaster there. The store is situated in a good locality, on the gravel road between Guelph and Bristol. This is an excellent opportunity for a party with limited capital, as a good business can be carried on, and arrangements may be made to continue the store office in connection with the store. For particulars apply to JAMES MASSIE, Elora. Nov. 5th, 1872.

INSOLVENT ACT OF 1869. In the matter of EDWARD T. A. PERRY, an insolvent.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS. All parties indebted to the estate of the above named insolvent are requested to pay the same to the undersigned immediately, and save costs.

EDWIN NEWTON, Assignee. Guelph, Nov. 12, 1872.

INSOLVENT ACT OF 1869, AND AMENDMENTS THEREON. In the matter of GEORGE HOW and EDWARD HOW, as well individually as co-partners, trading under the name, style and firm, of HOW & BROTHERS, Insolvents.

A SECOND DIVIDEND SHEET has been prepared, open to objection, until the twenty-fifth day of November, inst., after which dividends will be paid.

W. T. MASON, Assignee. Dated at Toronto, this Nineteenth day of November, A. D., 1872.

AUCTION SALE OF STOCK AND IMPLEMENTS - W. S. G. Knowles has received instructions from Mr. Charles Heath, to sell on his farm, on Brock Road, one mile from Guelph, on TUESDAY, the 19th NOVEMBER, the following stock and implements - 1 aged horse, mare 8 years old, 2 mares 3 years old - all the mares in foal to B. D. Hoffman's horse, "Valparaiso" - 1 gelding 4 years old, 1 foal, sired by "Old Whiskerbone," 4 cows in calf to a thoroughbred bull, 1 yearling heifer, 3 calves, three thoroughbred cows, from Stone's stock, 1 ewe lamb, 2 ram lambs, same stock, also a sound down eye, thoroughbred Berkshire boar - sired by Stone's imported boar - 4 spring pigs - sired by Allan Simpson's boar - also a sow got by same, spring boar pig - got by C. Heath's own boar, and also a pair of 30 small pigs, 1 wagon, 1 buggy, 3 sleighs, one cutter, two ploughs, one pair harness, 3 stoves, 1 tarpaulin, 2 cutters, tin boxes, 1 fanning mill, grain bins, and a number of other articles. Also a quantity turkeys and geese, also a pair of 200 lbs. and 10 sheep from J. Kirby's stock, out of his imported ram. Terms - For the turkeys and geese, for the rest, sums of $5 and under cash, over that amount 12 months credit on furnishing approved joint notes. No reserve, as the prior is leaving the farm. Sale to commence at twelve o'clock, noon.

C. HEATH, Auctioneer. W. S. G. KNOWLES, Auctioneer. November 4, 72.

AUCTION SALE OF Real Estate and Household Furniture. Mr. W. S. G. Knowles, Auctioneer, has been instructed by Mr. Wm. A. Bookless, to sell by Public Auction, on the premises, Liverpool Street, on

On Tuesday, 26th November, At 1 p.m., the following Household Furniture, Drawing room set, Bedroom sets, Dining room set, Cooking, Parlor and Bed room stoves, Carpets, Piano, Walnut Centre Table, Beds and Bedding, and a large number of other articles too numerous to mention. This furniture is all new. The parties set took the first price at the Central Exhibition, 1871, and is the best furniture ever offered at public auction in Guelph.

Also, a heavy draught horse, aged, a mare in foal, a colt six months old, double pleasure sleigh, new single cutter, three robes (two buffalo and one bear), a force pump and 150 feet of inch rubber hose, and a large lot of horse clothing, harness, &c. The above will be sold without reserve. Terms cash.

Also, a double brick HOUSE on Liverpool Street, containing seven rooms in each division, with a quarter of an acre of ground attached. Rental $300 per annum. Terms will be made known on day of sale.

W. S. G. KNOWLES, Auctioneer. Guelph, Nov. 16, 1872.

ONTARIO COAL YARDS. MURTON & REID. Have received and are receiving a large stock of Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. CO'S COAL of all sizes.

EGG, STOVE AND CHESTNUT, IN FIRST-RATE CONDITION, CLEAN AND DRY. This Coal, for general use, is the best article in the market - low for cash.

All other Coals, such as Briar Hill, Montic Morris, Lehigh and Blossburg, in large quantities. Order early and secure your stock at present prices.

Office - James Street, one door south of the Canada Life Assurance Co., Hamilton.

GEO. MURTON, Agent at Guelph.

Guelph Evening Mercury

SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 16, 1872

Town and County News.

The tax in Orangeville this year is 27 mills on the dollar.

On Wednesday afternoon a boy named Mance, employed in Mr. William Cassidy's saw mill, Douglas, had his hand taken off by the saw.

On Halloween night some thief stole four large geese belonging to Mr. James Lyons, lot 26, con. 3, Garafaxa. On the Saturday night following, Mr. Leonard Short, a neighbor, had four of the largest turkeys in his flock carried away.

The Hamilton Standard says: - Two boys, about 16 years of age, ran away from Guelph on Monday and came into this city. One of the boys does not bear a very good character, and it is supposed he enticed the other one away. His mother came into the city, and informed the police. The boys were round at the Royal Hotel, and the mother was looking for them. They were not there, and she was very much distressed. They did not meet with any success.

BETWEEN twelve and one o'clock on Tuesday night, two young men stopped their wagon at the toll house on the Guelph road, about a mile below Fergus, occupied by Mrs. Nidlow. The scamp first forced the door of the stoop open, and afterwards the door of the house. They then entered, but on Mrs. Nidlow telling them that she was not alone, and that she knew who the intruders were, they left the house and drove off without committing any further outrage.

Rosa D'ERINA - Mr. MacCourt, the agent, has called on us to state that the celebrated cantatrice Rosa D'Erina, will give one of her rich musical treats in the Town Hall on Friday evening next, the 22nd Nov., and we would strongly recommend those who have not been fortunate enough to have heard the enticing strains of this notable artist to hold Friday evening in reserve for this pleasing purpose. The programme of the concert will appear early next week. We also understand that Rosa D'Erina will add the power and prestige of her musical abilities to the choral services at St. Bartholomew's on Sunday morning, the 24th inst., and at a concert of sacred music on the evening of the same day and at the same place.

Guelph Manufactures in France. The following cable telegram was received by the Guelph Sewing Machine Company last Monday from their European agent:

LONDON, Nov. 11th, 1872. To Guelph Sewing Machine Co. Canada.

Guelph taken highest medal at Lyons (France) Exhibition for complete perfection. SHILLINGFORD BROTHERS.

This must prove a source of gratification to our Guelph firm, and one on which they are to be congratulated. A medal is a gold one. The judges must have found it a difficult matter to decide on this verdict, as there were an immense array of machines from all parts of the world at this noted exhibition, yet Guelph, in France, as in many other parts of the world, as well as in Canada, has proved by her productive wares that in certain classes of manufacture she stands pre-eminent in the race for supremacy. The machines of this company are justly entitled to the many honors they are receiving, and the fact that they are doubling the business - being at present unable to fill orders - is the best possible guarantee of the merits they are claimed to possess.

The Town Council of Owen Sound have granted $500 to the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railway Company, to assist in paying the expenses of a preliminary survey of the road between that town and Paisley.

The people of Stratford irrespective of politics, have taken steps to give C. J. Brydges, Esq., a public dinner, on the occasion of his visiting that town for the supervision of the change of gauge of the line from Fort Erie to Sarnia.

SOME maliciously disposed person set fire to Mr. Gustave Noecker's barn on the third line of Wallace, in which there was at the time of the fire nearly all of Mr. Noecker's crop.

The death is announced at Mount Pleasant, Ont., of John Carlyle, Esq., a native of Dumfriesshire, Scotland, and brother of Thomas Carlyle, London, England, at the age of 81 years.

The Waterloo Chronicle says that Mr. Isaac Huber has left for Manitoba to enquire as to the prospects of establishing a woolen factory in that country, and if satisfied he intends to return to Ontario and take out machinery from Ontario for that purpose.

The London Prototype says that an extensive paper mill is about to be established on the Thames, by a company composed of some of our leading business men. It will be located in the township of North Dorchester.

On Tuesday evening last, the office of Messrs. Wendling & Murray, in their woolen factory at Bridgeport, was entered by some person at present unknown, during the temporary absence of Mr. Murray, and the cash-box carried off. He only got a few dollars for his trouble.

SHORTER CREDITS - The Monetary Times says: - It is satisfactory to notice a growing feeling among the mercantile in Ontario in favour of shorter credits. We have a circular issued by half-a-dozen of the best firms in Newmarket, limiting all future credit to a maximum of six months, commencing from the first day of April next. The very sound reason is urged that "we shall be in a position to buy our goods to better advantage, and consequently enable us to sell at corresponding reduced prices." Let other towns and villages follow this good example, and, without doubt, the effect will be salutary.

A correspondent says Victor Emanuel is now looking more repulsively than usual, his head nearly disappearing between his shoulders in consequence of his increasing bulk, and his complexion, always dark, having become nearly black. His neck is now so short from obesity that his enormous mustaches rest on each shoulder, and a perpetual scowl clouds his face.

Guelph General Hospital.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS.

A meeting of the subscribers to the Guelph General Hospital, called by the Provisional Directors, was held in the Town Hall on Friday night, for the purpose of electing twelve permanent Directors, who will be entrusted with the management of all matters connected with the Hospital. The meeting was well attended, most of the business men, merchants and manufacturers being present.

Mr. Stinton, M. P., was appointed chairman, and Mr. McLagan secretary.

The chairman explained the object of the meeting, and read over those portions of the Act regarding the mode in which Directors are to be elected, each subscriber of $4 being allowed one vote, and for every $4 more subscribed one additional vote.

Mr. Biscoe and Mr. Peterson were appointed scrutineers to take the ballot.

Moved by Mr. Elliott, seconded by Mr. Stevenson, that nominations be first made, and when these are exhausted, then that the vote be proceeded with.

The chairman reported that the following gentlemen had the highest number of votes, and were therefore elected Directors: John Horsman, Jas. Massie, D. Stinton, N. Higinbotham, C. Raymond, Dr. Clarke, Geo. Elliott, A. Lenon, F. W. Stone, P. Gow, John McCrae, Robert Bell, &c.

A vote of thanks was then passed to the chairman, when the meeting separated.

Central Exhibition. The Directors met on Wednesday afternoon, the 13th inst., the President, Mr. James Laidlaw, in the chair, and there was a large representation of the Directors. On the question of Government aid to exhibitions on the scale now established in London, Hamilton and Guelph, it was considered that these agricultural and arts exhibitions had passed the mere experimental condition, and had become permanent institutions in their respective districts; and, being conducted on a scale scarcely if at all inferior, in most respects, to the Provincial Association, it was felt that the time had arrived when the Legislature might justly be appealed to for pecuniary assistance on behalf of these important and extensive undertakings. It was accordingly resolved to take action in the matter, and a committee consisting of Messrs. Laidlaw (President), Stinton, M. P., L. Parkinson and the Secretary, was appointed to seek the co-operation of the London and Hamilton Societies, and to draft a form of memorial, to the Provincial Legislature, for their approval. The following is the report of the Special Committee appointed at last meeting in reference to the subject, and which was adopted by the meeting:

Whereas, the appointment of Judges at the Central Exhibition of 1872, by its Executive Committee, to consider certain disputed awards in Class 36, having been approved and adopted by the Directors, and your Committee, that in view of the difficulty referred to, apparently arising from a misconception of the rule of this Association relating to the case, and that the urgency of immediate action on the part of the Executive Committee, to adjust the same satisfactorily, admitted of no opportunity at the meeting to confer with the Judges in the matter or obtain their explanations or views of the subject in dispute.

The appointment of the Judges by the Executive Committee, unfortunately left the course pursued by those Judges who had made the awards, open to reflections and imputations, which, in justice to them, it is the duty of this Association to endeavor to dispel.

Your Committee, therefore, beg to recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

That the thanks of the Directors of this Association be and are hereby tendered to Mr. Young, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Jeffrey and Mr. Hogg, for their assistance in the capacity of Judges, in Classes 36 and 37, at the Central Exhibition, and while they regret the circumstances which have subsequently occurred in connection with causing a further appointment of judges, the Directors desire to express their entire approval of the course pursued by them in the discharge of the arduous duties they had undertaken, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the ladies and gentlemen referred to.

CHARLES SHARP, Chairman of Com. November 13th, 1872.

It was decided to hold the Christmas Fat Cattle Show at Guelph on the 11th December; this would enable Fergus and Elora to arrange satisfactorily for their show, and it was also determined to hold a fat cattle show also, it was thought that buyers would prefer following the line of railway southwards, as being more convenient, and that the order of arrangement therefore should stand Fergus, Elora, Guelph, and Galt. The Secretary was instructed to notify the exhibitors accordingly with the Galt Society. The Secretary reported that he had written twice to Miss Lyons, of Dundas, in reference to the payment of a prize awarded to her through a mistake of the judges in the collection of native insects (she having no collection on exhibition) and no answer being returned to these communications, it was unanimously resolved that a prosecution on behalf of the Society be instituted for the recovery of the prize so paid, and that the Misses Lyons be prohibited from exhibiting at any future exhibition in Guelph.

NARROW GAUGE RELINQUISHED - At a meeting of the Peel County Council, held at Brampton on Friday last, an application was made to submit a By-law granting a bonus of $70,000 to the Credit Valley Railway. On a question of gauge being raised, the President, Mr. Laidlaw, stated that the width adopted was 4ft. 8 1/2 in., the same as the Great Western - Thus the narrow gauge champion has turned his back on his hobby, the 3ft. 6 in. gauge.

Philosophers do sometimes commit suicide. One did in Cleveland the other day and the modus operandi was interesting. He first loaded his revolver and connected it with clock-work, so that it should be fired off at a certain time. Then he took a dose of chloroform, and before he awoke had passed peacefully and peacefully into eternity.

BY TELEGRAPH

Snow Storm in Buffalo.

Man Shot in Opera House.

The Horse Disease.

Double Murder in Dummer.

Particulars of the Horrid Crime.

The Elora Times and the Public Morally Dodge.

Some people are too hot-headed or too rancorous "to possess their souls (if they have any) in patience," and such are the publisher of the North Wellington Times and his fugleman of the law office. During the election contest for the Commons when matters began to look desperate for Mr. Drew, his organ made a number of statements in capital letters, repeating them weekly, amongst others that of accusing his opponent, Mr. Higinbotham, of cheating the revenue of the country. Knowing the desperate straits of Mr. Drew, and his supporters, we excused these efforts to bolster up a fallen cause; when more direct attempts were made to coerce Mr. Higinbotham into giving Mr. Drew's client money under threats of exposure, we said nothing, although such conduct shows the mean and despicable tricks resorted to in aid of a bad cause. Even last week when an offer of $1000 being offered to induce a witness to give certain evidence, we said nothing, remaining quite satisfied to publish the result of the trial then expected to come off. We have the assertion of Mr. Higinbotham that there is no case against him, and in common fairness, as in accordance with all law, we are bound to believe him; but not so his political opponents in this village, for the Times on Friday last published a most unfair and one-sided report of a suit which did not come off at the "Wellington Assizes," in which Mr. Jacob is attorney for the plaintiff and Mr. Drew counsel; Mr. Higinbotham being defendant. How the Times got the paragraph, or the particulars out of which it was made, we are easily inferred, for who is so familiar with the case as the attorney for the plaintiff? Yet who could be more fully aware of the impropriety and sheer dishonesty of such an act, as to publish the statement made in the Times, than men learned in the law? But we beg pardon. It was all done "in the interests of public morality," according to the Times, and that journal and its particular patrons are models of propriety, (?) we may commend their zeal where we question their judgment. Fancy, reader, the Times and his friends referring to "public morality" after the exhibition they made of themselves at the last election. After the way in which Mr. Drew's friends bought votes, after the expenditure by that gentleman and his friends of some $12,000 at the last election - according to the uncontradicted statement of Mr. Mackenzie, M. P., at Mount Forest - after the publisher of the Times and Mr. Drew's law partner being his most active agents therein, for these people to talk of the "interests of public morality" is nauseating.

Supposing - what we would neither admit nor believe - supposing that Mr. Drew will be able to prove in Court half what the Times says about Messrs. Higinbotham and Black, the effect of such a verdict on the public mind, and on these parties had it been promulgated in open Court; while this attempt to prejudice and prejudice the case in the eyes of the public shows that it is prompted rather by a malicious delight than "in the interests of public morality," especially when these advocates of public morality are best known.

Presbyterian Ter-centennial Celebration. The celebration of the ter-centennial of the establishment of Presbyterianism in England, will be held in Philadelphia on the 29th inst. The place of the celebration will be the Penn Square Presbyterian Church, which will be profusely decorated for the occasion. The following extracts from a recent speech in Liverpool, by the Rev. Mr. Graham, of Mount Pleasant Presbyterian Church, there, explains the great event which it is now intended to commemorate:

"It was on the 20th November, 1572, that a few men met at Waudsworth, in Surrey, then on the outskirts of London, and formally established a Presbytery. Whether it was the establishment of a church, or of a Presbyterian, or a Presbytery itself, I need not discuss. Suffice it to say that it was the first outward form in this country of the main working principles of Presbyterianism - namely, a teaching elder not a priest, ruling elders chosen by the congregations, and both for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.

During the very hours they were meeting in Waudsworth John Knox was dying in Edinburgh. The cradle of our English Presbyterianism was rocked beside the deathbed of the father of our British Presbyterianism. Four days afterwards, on the 24th of November, Knox passed away - all of him that could pass away, for he was the apostle of Scotland, and for the benefit of the Christian people, from the Word of God. There were only eleven in all. This was done in strictest secrecy and amidst stern persecution.