LONDON CITIZENS
Are Talking About the New System.

177 Dundas St., London, Dec. 23, 1891.
I have used Dr. J. Eugene Jordan's Histogenetic Medicine for different members of my family, with good results, during the past year, and cheerfully recommend the medicine to the citizens of London, feeling convinced that Dr. Jordan's theory of reaching diseases is the correct one.

350 Waterloo St., London, Dec. 28, 1891.
Having used Dr. J. Eugene Jordan's Histogenetic Medicine in my family with good results, I cheerfully recommend them to the citizens of London, and strongly advise all sufferers to give them a trial. Dr. Jordan's medicine, in my opinion, is the best system of medicine on earth. I speak from experience having paid hundreds of dollars for other remedies, receiving little or no benefit. My wife is a new woman since she began using Histogenetic Remedies. I will be pleased to answer any inquiries.

HISTOGENETIC MEDICINE ASSOCIATION.
Gentlemen, This is to certify that I have suffered from rheumatism for the past 22 years. At five different periods I have been so bad that I had to remain in bed for several months at a time. This summer I was suffering severely with pain all through my body, and was unable to do any work. I began taking Histogenetic Medicine on June 13 and continued for eight weeks. I began to feel better, and the pain gradually faded. I feel now as if I am a new man, and I can do all my work as usual. I am now six weeks since I stopped taking the medicine. I feel better now than I have for years and I heartily recommend the people of London to try Histogenetic Medicine, as they did more for me than all the doctors' prescriptions or other medicines that I had taken before.

JAMES JACK,
London, 269 York Street, Sept. 13, 1891.
Call or write for free medical book explaining the Histogenetic Medicine. All the information free. The principles used in the preparation of the medicine are as necessary for our existence as the air we breathe. The medicine have no taste—grand for children. Griped cured in a short time. Specific for inflammation of the lungs, almost impossible to die from that trouble if medicine given promptly at the start. Cost you nothing to investigate the system. It is a reform, and therefore the duty of every one to know something about it.

GOOD ENGLISH.
There is an old story of the advice William Cullen Bryant once gave to the man who offered him an article for "The Evening Post," which is so good that it will bear frequent repeating:

"My young friend, I observe that you have used several French expressions in your article. I think, if you will study the English language, that you will find it capable of expressing all the ideas that you may have. Be simple, unadorned; be honest in your speaking and writing. Never use a long word when a short one will do. Call a spade not a well-known oblique instrument of manual industry; let a home be a home, not a residence; a place, not a locality, and so of the rest. When a short word will do, you always lose by using a long one."

MASS MEETING,
Grand Opera House,
—ON—
Thursday Even'g
Feb. 18, at 8 O'Clock.
Mr. A. F. Jury,
Mr. C. S. Hyman, Mr. Geo. C. Gibbons and others will address the meeting.
"God Save the Queen."

I have had the honor to sit in Parliament about twenty years and have seen many men come and go at Ottawa, and I say in all soberness and earnestness that few men in my experience have come to the front during their first session in the House and created so favorable an impression and taken so high a position among the legislators of the country as has your popular representative, Mr. Hyman. He has thoroughly mastered the subjects he has taken up on every occasion, and since the House of Commons is so largely interested in this question of trade and commerce, it is extremely desirable that all interests should be represented there; and then it is particularly to be desired that so clear-headed a man as Mr. Hyman should retain a place in the House and by his judgment and foresight be a continued benefit to the nation. There is not a shrewder business man in the House or one more able to express his opinions in an acceptable and convincing manner. London should be proud of her representative, and when an election is forced upon them the people should recognize their duty and do that which they believe will benefit them most.

—(Wm. Paterson, M.P.)

A GRAND RALLY THURSDAY.
A big rally in Mr. Hyman's interests will be held to-morrow night at the Grand Opera House. Addresses will be delivered by Mr. A. F. Jury, of Toronto, Hon. A. S. Hardy, of the Provincial Legislature, Mr. Hyman, Mr. Gibbons, Q.C., and possibly others. Mr. Jury needs no introduction to a London audience. He is a well-known advocate of the interests of his fellow-workmen and an able and fearless exponent of high tax fallacies. Hon. Mr. Hardy, the Minister of Crown Lands, is one of the ablest of Mr. Mowat's colleagues and an eloquent speaker. They will get a rousing reception from the independent electors of London.

Ladies are specially welcome, and seats will be reserved for them.
Anyone who has doubts as to the best trade policy for the great mass of the people is invited.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.
—Mr. Thos. Churcher, of South London, who has been very sick, is now recovering.

—Mr. George Bryan, of Messrs. Pigot & Bryan, is home from a two months' trip to English markets.

—Ash Wednesday comes this year on March 2; Good Friday, April 15, and Easter Sunday, April 16.

—The Bishop of Huron will address the police force at their weekly meeting in Victoria Hall this afternoon.

—Daniel Curtin was discharged at the Police Court this morning on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. No complaint appeared against him.

—Hon. A. S. Hardy, M.P.P., A. F. Jury, Mr. Hyman, Mr. Gibbons, Q.C., and others at the Grand to-morrow night. Ladies specially welcome.

—The Bishop of Huron will address the annual missionary meeting at Holy Trinity Church, Lambeth, on Thursday, at 7:30 p.m. (not Tuesday as formerly announced). All are cordially invited.

—One drunk was remanded for a week at the Police Court this morning. He was found lying on the G. T. R. track in East London at an early hour this morning. Had he not been found he would undoubtedly have been frozen to death.

—Mr. Al. D. Holman has arranged with the Galt Hockey Club, one of the strongest teams in Ontario, to play a match with the Princess Club, of this city, for a prize set of handsome gold badges. The game takes place at Queen's avenue rink the night of Mr. Holman's benefit, Feb. 23. This will prove another big attraction.

—Wesley Hall held a good-sized audience Monday evening, when the Epworth League in connection with Queen's Avenue Methodist Church had an open meeting. Mr. Abbott, president, occupied the chair. Miss Mutch and Miss Barnard rendered vocal solos; Mr. Cottam, two cornet solos; Harry Lenox, a vocal number in his usual good voice, and addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. McVitty and Mr. Garbutt. Rev. Geo. Heyd gave an interesting report regarding the convention recently held in Toronto. Refreshments were served during the evening by the ladies. Prof. J. W. Fetherston presided at the piano.

The Bishop of Huron.
It is understood that Bishop Baldwin, well known as one of the most eloquent preachers of the day, and beloved by all denominations for his warm Christian sympathies, will, during Lent, deliver a series of discourses in Grace Church in this city, preaching every Wednesday evening, commencing with Ash Wednesday, March 2. The bishop's generous offer to undertake this duty was an entirely voluntary act on his part. In consideration of the heavy demands the care of the church is so large a diocese as Huron always makes on the time and strength of its chief pastor, this evidence of the deep interest taken by the bishop in Brantford cannot fail to be highly appreciated both by the members of his own church and other communions.—[Brantford Expressor.]

No Speaking Nominations Day.
It is understood there has been an arrangement between the two parties by which there will be no speaking on nominations day—next Friday. The City Hall has been rented for an assembly that evening, and a big gathering would disturb the preparations. There are plenty of other opportunities to address the electorate before polling day.

The Ladies at Hellmuth.
Hellmuth College held a large and appreciative audience last evening, when the students gave a highly successful concert. The way in which the young ladies executed their parts must have been most gratifying to the musical director, Mr. Thomas Martin. On the programme were five piano selections by Misses Amy Sheild, Schroeder, Heiers, Taylor and Margaret Blackburn. All performed with remarkable success. Misses Jennie Brown, Rosa Williams, Lottie Childs, Grace Lacy and Emma Cogdon rendered vocal solos deserving of unlimited praise. Miss Calliger added to the success of the entertainment as piano accompanist. Three English recitations by Miss Anna Sonna were well-received variations in the programme.

Wedding in Toronto.
An interesting ceremony took place at St. Andrew's Church a few evenings ago, being the marriage of Miss Minnie L. McNeill, youngest daughter of Mr. John McNeill, of Hamilton, formerly of Toronto, to Mr. C. F. Prudhomme, of Toronto. Rev. R. Glog performed the ceremony. The bride was Miss Alice McNeill, sister of the bride, and Miss Alice Prudhomme, sister of the groom. The groom was supported by Mr. Stewart, G. Wells and Mr. Charles Somers. The bride wore a cream dress, with silk and pearl trimmings, and it is needless to say the looked charming. The bride's sister wore a light grey, with jewel trimmings. The groom's sister wore a cream dress with silk trimmings. A reception was held at 52 Kensington avenue, the future home of the happy pair. The presents were numerous and handsome.

Their Annual Reunion.
Court Pride of the Dominion, A. O. F., held their annual reunion in their rooms in the Albion Block last evening. The attendance was large and the occasion a pleasant one. A. O. Jeffery occupied the chair and after his opening address came a song by Arthur Wyatt, quartet, Misses Wilson; recitation, L. J. Hessel; song, Mr. Daly; recitation, Falcon Guitar Club; song, Fred Rossiter; recitation, A. Wyatt; song, A. Drennan; recitation, A. George; quartet, Misses Wilson; song, Fred Rossiter; song, J. J. O'Neil; duet, Messrs. Tuxford and Simpson; song, Fred Rossiter; quartet, Messrs. Rossiter and George, and Messrs. Rossiter and Chapman. The secretary, James Wootton, read the annual report of the court, showing a membership of 225, and amounts of funds in the bank, $5,210 56. The court was assessed for $64 90. Last year $733 95 was paid out in net benefits and up to date this year $535 had been expended in this way. A large increase of funds during 1891 was $315. During the evening supper was served.

Ridgeway's Loss Is London's Gain.
The Ridgeway correspondent of the St. Thomas Journal says: "Two gentlemen from London were in town on Friday for the purpose of making an offer for the Casket Company. They were shown through the plant, and it is understood there is a probability of the factory being removed to London. Mr. John Ferguson, the leading undertaker of that city, is interested in the deal. Probably it would be more alive on the question of allowing the factory to leave here. The company made an application over three months ago for an exemption from taxation, but has never been granted. Some of our best citizens have lost thousands of dollars in the concern, and now it has gained a reputation throughout the country for the superior quality of goods that is turned out, and the shareholders may expect some return for their money invested. The town shows very little interest in granting their very reasonable request. Its removal from town means a large number of empty houses, the throwing out of employment of from 50 to 75 hands, who spend their money among the different merchants."

The Jubilee Singers.
After an absence of eight years, during six of which they enjoyed a professional trip around the world, Loudin's Original Fiak Jubilee Singers have again visited this city. The number of songs they render has been considerably enlarged, and now they have seven printed programmes, each containing fifteen numbers. At the concert, given by them last evening in Victoria Hall the attendance was large and everybody was pleased. The programme was composed entirely of vocal selections, and encores were demanded after many of them. E. J. Loudin, manager and director, of the company has a rich, deep bass voice, was heard to advantage in "One Hundred Fatigue Deep," Misses Patti J. Malone and M. P. Callaway, soprano, and Misses Maggie E. Wilson and Georgia A. Gibbons, contralto, rendered "Greetings of Spring" in a way that pleased everybody. "The Old Ark's Moving" was a comic chorus. The other members of the company are worthy of unstinted praise. They are Miss M. Louise Clay, soprano; Messrs. John T. L. Lane and J. H. Brooks, tenor, and W. E. Geary, bass. Miss Leata F. Benson is an efficient accompanist. The expeditious way in which the programme is carried out is a commendable feature of the entertainment. The Jubilee Singers will give another of their pleasing concerts in Victoria Hall this evening, and a large audience should greet them.

The Toronto Telegram pertinently remarks: "Solemnly indeed does the London Free Press urge the temperance people to smite down Hyman and boost up a million pale ale and lager beer bottles."

Many letters from correspondents are either held over or are dispensed with, through lack of space, owing to the electoral campaign.
