BASEBALL.

The Alerts demonstrated twice yeslerday that they could win-exhibi-Mon games. Such playing as they did would have won them the pennant when the season was half over. The sun is always more brilliant when it goes down, and so the Alerts' sun set in dazzling splendor. Both games were hard fought. The D.A.C. nine is a clever one, and a gentlemanly one, and nobody would have begrudged them at least one victory. Clark pitched both morning and afternoon, and deserves the greatest praise for his trying work.

MORNING GAME. No lover of baseball could complain of the play put up by both teams in yesterday's morning game between the Alerts and the Athletic Club of Detroit. It was neat, quick and clever. Brilliant plays abounded on many occasions. The pitchers were supported in a manner that encouraged them to keep up their speed and aided them in their ambition to put the batsmen to grief. The two errors made by the Alerts did not prove costly, while those of the D. A. C. helped the Alerts score the run in the fourth inning. To an observer the American club seemed the most confident on opening of the game. They have lots of life in their playing. One of the most noticeable features is the excellent manner in which they back up one another. Their coaching is good. In base-running they could do nothing. Snyder's clever made every baseman wilt in trying to steal second. Frank's quick eye also nailed a couple on first. As the game progressed and they made no head-way with Clark, they no doubt realized that the Alerts had improved wonderfully since the 24th of May, when the last game was played be-tween them, which the Alerts won. The Alerts jumped on the portly Guit-Clark had speed and good control, and up to the fifth not one foot had crushed the sawdust on a base past the first one. When the third player was retired in this inning, the third a single and a base on balls. It began and second bases were occupied, both to look as if the D. A. C. would tie hit. A base on balls, a stolen base, and an error of Clark's was the cause. The crowd by this time was ver bolsterous. Every good play wa The Detroiters' faces assumed a d termined look, and in the sixth the almost reached the coveted hom plate. Dingwall turned Clark into spinning wheel by hitting him on th ankle with a line drive, and it to him ten minutes to get into his usua position in the box. Ducharme force out Dingwall. assists and one put out, pleased the crowd. Clark, Sippi and Wood had a double play in the ninth.

Up to the fourth it looked as if the pitchers were trying to rival one another on base hits. Dr. Wood had secured the only hit. Delaney opened the fourth by driving a grounder at Chittenden. The shortstop's legs were wild throw to third he would have been put out. Sippi placed one at Buffalo.......... Ducharme. Delaney scored, and Sippl got first on a fumble by the first baseman. Delaney's two-bagger and Sippi's single to left scored the second run in the sixth. With the score a tie in the eighth, Strowger made a threebagger to the right field track. Our usually clever base-runner could have reached the plate, as the ball was badly fielded to the third baseman.

It was a restless audience when the placed a safe hit into center field. Not a spectator was quiet when Sippi stole second. On the go down Snyder bunted the ball safely along the third base line, and Sippi continued to the third bag. It was a beautiful judgment of base-running and eventually won the game, as Sippi scored on Mertsch's grounder to Chittenden, ending the same. Score: game. Score:

AFTERNOON GAME.

A larger audience saw another splendid exhibition in the afternoon. Clark pluckily went in again, and if he was hit somewhat harder than in the morning, his work, pitted against that of a fresh pitcher, was none the less commendable. He was plainly tired before the ninth inning, and relieved himself by throwing balls with his left hand at intervals. This rather surprised the grand stand. His left-handers are apparently as speedy and steady as his right. Hynd's work at center was a brilliant feature, but he most sensational play was a onehand catch by Dingwall, after spring into the air. He received an ovation. The audience was very generous, the visitors getting, if anyhard in the eighth, Strowger, Delaney. Snyder, Wood, Mertsch and Clark all making singles. THE LONDON TOURNAMENT.
The first annual tournament of the Western Ontario Bowling Association was begun yesterday morning on the was begun yesterday morning on the London club's grounds, across the river, before two hundred spectators, and was as successful as it was enthusiastic. No better weather could have been wished, and this did much to encourage the sport. The four rinks on the upper land were models of a bowling green, but the other eight rinks on the tennis plot were not so smooth, while most of them were a little heavy. This, however, disappeared as the day wore on, and each succeeding rink seemed to be disappeared as the day wore on, and each succeeding rink seemed to be against the local sports. Although not pleasant to be defeated, the proverbial good nature of the London club men prevailed, and whether ahead or behind, their beaming smiles evinced that no semblance of envy lurked about. It was a day enjoyed by everybody, especially as the ladies turned out in force to see the competition. The championship match was an interesting one, and fairly was an interesting one, and fairly well contested. "Ah, it's a beautiful one," didn't apply to the shots of the Londoners. For the most part it was the other way. Yesterday the preliminary, first, and part of the second round were played, and the first and second in the consolation. The meeting was large, representative, and enthusiastic. The following were present: Messrs. P. Rutherford, R. G. Fleming, Capt. Swain, John Sowerby, G. A. Flater and Wilson Taylor, Chatham; A. Gardiner, Colin McQuaig, J. G. Wallace, G. Whitney, and J. Canfield, Woodstock; C. Dempsey and H. B. Travers, St. Thomas; T. M. Scott, W. Hamilton, A. P. Scott and Dr. Snellgrove, Toronto Granites; F. Holmsted, and J. M. Best, Seaforth; W. Brydone, Wm. Taylor, W. Jackson, and Geo. D. McTaggart, Clinton; Gordon Smith, Paris; Thos. Blakeley, M. J. Kent, A. D. Huff, and

Col. Fisher, London.
The president, Lieut.-Col. Macbeth, called the meeting to order at 9:15. The minutes of the meeting held on May 25 last, for the purpose of organization, were read and approved. A lengthy discusison took place upon the question of affiliation fees, and as to whether it was advisable to change the fee, as only three clubs had paid. These were London, Chatham and Paris. It was decided to leave the fee at $3 and request the delinquents to pay up.

The following officers were elected

President, Lieut.-Col. Macbeth (re-el-ected); first vice-president, N. H. Stevens, Chatham; second vice-president, G. D. McTaggart, Clinton; secretarytreasurer, Ed Weld (re-elected); ora-tor, P. Mulkern; songster, W. Jack-son. These were elected amid applause, and unanimously so.

On motion of W. Brydone and F.

Holmsted it was decided to request the secretaries of the different clubs usual championship course, four miles to forward the names of the members of the executive committee to the secthan the second Monday in May.

Mr. McTaggart and H. B. Travers thought the executive should be recommended to hold the annual tournament on the last Monday in July, tournaments of the Ontario or Do-

A Millionaire?

A FAIR CHANCE TO BECOME ONE.

more than one-half of all the great stock being set aside for an officer of fortunes in the United States were this company except as it is paid for made from mining investments?

Marshall Field, the merchant prince of Chicago, has made more money from his mining investments than from his drygoods business, yet he is known the world over as being marvelously our shareholders indicates with what successful in the mercantile line, but it is safe to say that not one person in one hundred ever heard of his mining Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate and multi-millionaire, has made and is now making millions from his mines. He owns copper deposits on Lake Superior so rich that they are perty may become, the difference betaking it out with a steam shovel.

The Standard Oil Company, the most successful combination of capital ever known, is founded on the same lines laid down for the COLORADO GOLD MINING & DEVELOPMENT COM-PANY. They confine themselves to developing only such oil territory as has proven to be of value. We conveloped to show a profit over the legitimate mining, you may feel rea cost of our investment, and our profits are more secure than those of the Standard Oil Company, for the reason that the value of oil is constantly fluctuating, while the value of gold ever remains the same.

The Hon. Calvin Brice, when asked. 'How can a young man of the present day become a millionaire?" replied

When you become a shareholder in the Colorado Gold Mining & Development Company, you are as much of a miner as though the title was vested in you direct, and your proportion of the profits will be in just such ratio as pleased to receive your subscription. the amount of your investment, for Correspondence invited.

Were you aware of the fact that, with us, all stand on an equal basis, no the same as by any other shareholder, and in all properties now belonging to the company, or that it may acquire, all shareholders are equal partners, as their interests may appear.

The many well-known names among favor our plan has been received, but in considering the same we ask you to waive that point and consider it from purely a business standpoint.

All the names in the world will not return you a profitable investment if you become a shareholder in a company which has capitalized a claim for a hundred times more than it is worth, for, no matter how profitable that protween what you paid for it and what it is really worth has to be made up before you stand on an equal basis with the promoters of the company.

Out of the hundreds of mining companies brought out in the United States and British Columbia, the stock of every one of them has DOUBLED in value over what it was FIRST offered at, so when you have an opportunity to enter a company an am equal basis fine our attention to only such mining with every other shareholder, and when properties as have been sufficiently de- that company confines its operations to sonably assured of a return on your investment.

Such a company is the Colorado Gold Mining & Development Company, and we should be pleased to have you carefully consider our prospectus, and, if satisfied, to receive your subscription for as many or as few shares of the above company as may be agreeable to you. Price, 10 cents per share; par value, $1; full paid and nonassessable, and subject to no further
