FAIR, WARM, THOSE SHOWERS

THAT DON'T COME HERE.

Toronto, June 11.—11 p.m.—The pressure is about average throughout the Dominion. The weather is showery over the western portion of the lake region and in Manitoba. Elsewhere it is fine.

Minimum and maximum temperatures reported for today are as follows: Edmonton, 50—64; Calgary, 38—58; Prince Albert, 44—76; Qu'Appelle, 42—64; Winnipeg, 50—64; Parry Sound, 60—84; Toronto, 56—85; Montreal, 62—86; Halifax, 48—68; Chatham, 46—78; Quebec, 58—86.

Toronto, June 12.—1 a.m.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lakes region, covering the peninsula and as far east as Belleville, are: Light variable winds; fair and very warm, with local showers, particularly in the northern portion.

aged mother, who is in her 85th year, a resident of this city.—Toronto Globe.

—The L. E. and D. R. platform at Port Stanley has been fenced in, and tickets must be shown before entering the gates. No station promenades this summer.

—An unknown man stole a hide worth $2 from the wagon of a Windsor farmer named Johnston on the market yesterday. The police have the matter in hand.

—Sarnia Observer: "Wedding bells will ring in London before this month is past, for the only daughter of a former merchant of Sarnia, to one of London's promising barristers."

—The Seventh Fusiliers parade at the drill shed tonight. The object of the parade is to find out how the officers and men held in regard to going to Chatham on the 1st of July.

—The 5,000 or 6,000 people who infected Victoria Park dust for two hours last night were given a rare treat by the Musical Society Band. The concert was the best given this season.

—A father suggests that the Humane Society inspector or other officer make an example of those large boys who, instead of being a protection to small boys bathing in the river, "duck" them until they are nearly suffocated.

—The L. E. and D. R. has completed the extension of their passenger and freight platform at the St. Thomas station. The fence system will be adopted at the Port, and hereafter people will have to show their tickets before passing the gate.

—Conductor Ambrose Segner, of the L. E. and D. R., has gone to Hot Springs, Arkansas, for several weeks' sojourn for the good of his health. Mr.
Segner has taken Mr. Lobo township, and Mr. Bennett, of the L. E. and D. R., Walkerville, will assist Mr. Empoy on his run.

—John Ross and Patrick Pagan, charged with breaking into Thomas Martin's house on con. 8, Lobo township, have pleaded not guilty, and will be tried before Judge Edward Elliott on Monday. One of the pair was recently turned from the Salvation Army Hotel for using profane language.

—Mr. J. J. Spitzberg, M.P.P. for Kent, in which reference was made to the state of the crops in that county. Fall wheat along the Ridge road was killed by ice in the winter, but back on the low land, where properly drained, wheat now looks well. Very little spring wheat is sown in Kent. Oats are likely to be a good crop. Corn and beans are showing up well. Apples and peaches promise a fair crop. Grapes were nipped in many localities by the late frost, but in favored localities may give a fair crop.

—The second evening of the annual exercises at Hurlmouth College was given to the election department, and will bring a large audience assembled in the auditorium. The selections were varied in character, and many of them contained passages of considerable difficulty, but they received a finished pen-cillation. Misses Morey and Congdon are the graduating students in this department, and to them fell the greater part of the programme. In "The Maiden Rock," "The Scarf of Gold and Blue" and "The Corsican Vendetta," Miss Morey showed culture and ability; and Miss Congdon proved herself possessed of much power and versatility in "The Gipsy Flower Girl," "Mice at Play" and "A Canine Comedy." The two young ladies gave a selection from Shakespeare's "All's Well that Ends Well," act I, scene III, in a finished manner.

GOOD NEWS FROM CHINA.

The Missionaries at Chengtu Safe,

Though the Mission Property

Was Destroyed.

Toronto, June 11.—The following cable received by the Methodist mission office in this city today brings the welcome news of the personal safety of the missionaries in China, who it was feared had been murdered: "Riots at Chengtu, Kiating. Property utterly destroyed; workers safe."

New York, June 11.—The following dispatch of today's date from the Rev.
J. B. Hikes, at Shanghai, has been received at the office of the Methodist Missionary Society: "Property at Cheng Tu destroyed; missionaries all safe."

Date of General Election.
