British Ship Dismantled --- Severe Losses on the Lakes.

DISMANTLED.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 9 .- The British ship Flintshire is reported 500 miles out and partly dismantled as the result of several severe storms. She is making for this port under a jury rig. The Flintshire sailed from here on Sept. 23 last, grain laden, for Queenstown, and her departure was made notable by the fact that upon crossing the bay she suddenly ran into a terrific gale and was unable to land the pilot, Capt. Scott, who was carried down the coast several hun-

NEW ENGLAND BLIZZARD.

Boston, Nov. 9 .- From all parts of New England come reports of extremely unseasonable weather, and a storm of supprising strength, in which lightning and hail were mixed and the wind almost cyclonic in its whirling and freakiness. The storm did not inflict such heavy loss to shipping and property as might have been expected from its seeming violence. The wind, being only from the westward, did not give

Many of the streets in towns of this section are literally covered with branches of trees blown off by the high wind.

On the coast the wind became so high that the marine observer in the Sandy Hook tower was forced to leave his post, because the building swaved so much that he feared it would collapse. Just before he left he reported that there were tremendously high waves at sea. Some time earlier in the day an unknown sloop, lying in the Horseshoe, inside Sandy Hook, dragged her anchor and was driven high on the beach.

The True Gause of Many Ills

is Constipation, an Irregularity Which Is Corrected and Permanently Cured by Dr. Chase's Kid

Ask any reputable physician what is the cause of the most bodily derangements and the greatest suffering and he will undoubtedly tell you con-stipation or inactivity of the bowels. will also add that this need not be the case if people would pay proper attention to this most important func-

Through ignorance, neglect, or a sense of false modesty, people allow the bowels to get into a state of chronic constipation, and there follow kidney disorders, torpid liver, indigestion, and a complete upsetting of the digestive, filtering and excretory systems. Appendicitis, inflammation of the bowels, Enght's disease, and all the dreadfully painful and fatal complications of these diseases are usually set up as a direct result of neglecting to keep the bowels healthy and regular. Many people imagine that they can prescribe for constipation, and so dose selves with salts and other strong, harmful, and weakening drugs, which effect an action of the bowels, but if taken repeatedly deaden and paralyze the system so that it is rendered unable to act for itself, and will not respend to the influence of curative of the filtering and excretory systems -the liver, kidneys and bowels. heaviest storm of the year, is abating and would pass over today. VESSELS ADRIFT.

On Lake Superior four consorts were torn from their steamers, and three of them are still adrift or have gone ashore. The steamer Stafford was wrecked at Good Harbor, Mich., and may be a total loss. Several large steamers were driven back to Chicago after being exposed to the gale for a few hours, and large boats were generally seeking shelter on Lakes Superior, Michigan and Huron.

BITING COLD.

The wind, which at many places attained a velocity of over 40 miles an hour, was accompanied by fine snow, and was biting cold, made it bitter work for the mariners. So far as known, no lives have been lost. ON LAKE ERIE.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 9. — The ter-rific storm which swept over Lake Erie yesterday and last night con-tinues with unabated fury today. The few vessels arriving here today enter the harbor with difficulty. The captain of the passenger steamer City of Erie, which arrived here early today from Buffalo, reports that he sighted the mast of a sunken vessel sticking out of the water 25 miles north of Cleveland. There were no tidings today of the steamer Kaliyuga, which was reported last night to be adrift and helpless about 35 miles off Cleveland. When sighted she was laboning heavily, having lost her rudder and shoe. Tugs were started out early today in search of the disabled vessel.

SNOWSTORM AT MONTREAL. Montreal, Que., Nov. 9. - A heavy snowstorm, the first of the season, set in early this evening, and by mid-night quite a quantity of snow had fallien. The storm demoralized the railway arrangements, nearly all the incoming trains being late.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—The storm was over this morning on the upper lakes, except lower Lake Huron. No tidings have been received of the boats missing on Lake Superior. The missing boats are: Barges—A. H. Barr, off Sable Point: Commodore, off Grand Marais; Keating, off Whitefish Point, and Mason, off Ludington. During the storm the wind reached a velocity of 40 miles an hour.

An Escaped Bank Burglar Goes Back to Prison.

Plattsburg, N. Y., Nov. 9. - County Judge Shedden has ordered that Max Shinburn, the famous bank burglar, be placed at the disposal of the New which prison he escaped in 1866, while serving a sentence for robbing the Walpole, N. H., savings bank.

Only two witnesses were sworn at the hearing George White, alias Geo. Bliss, of New York, who was inducted with Shinburn in 1865 for robbing the Walpole Bank and who has since served terms at Windsor, Vt., and other state prisons, and Wm. McKay, of New York. They both swore that they knew Max Shinburn, who escaped from Concord and that the prisoner was not weekly review says: There is a stronger tone in cotton and wool, the former large because of reports of fears of crop damage, while the latter is firm at former quotations on a volume of business equal to enlarged totals. Cereals are, as a whole, duli of interest. Wheat is practically unchanged. Corn is fractionally higher, while hog products are rather slow and weak. It is from that long-time barometer of trade, the iron business. that relatively the best reports as to the demand and prices come.

Hopefulness as to improvement in fall demand, now that the election is over and cold weather has arrived, is reported in all sections, but nowhere is the feeling of confidence so marked as in the south. In the west drygoods, clothing, shoes and hardware, are moving better. In the east, leather, shoes, wool, tobacco and coal are firm, and the outlook for business is regarded as favorable. Wheat including flour, shipments for the week aggregate 3,555,507 bushels, against 3,-612.421 last week. Corn exports for the week aggregate 3,287,627 bushels, against 3,920,110 last week. Dun & Co.'s report says: Iron is in an encouraging condition. violent speculation is threatened, but in numerous instances better demand has caused small advances. British exports of yarn and cloth in October showed a loss, making the to-tal for the year very heavy. Russian ports send out wheat freely, and even in Argentine the outlook for the crop is less discouraging, although the qualsome districts will be inferior.

Speculative selling here for foreign account meets every advance and exports are behind last year's. Western receipts are fairly large, but the movement of corn into sight and out of the country is extremely light. A heavy cut in the price of refined sugar by all the large interests brings standard granulated to $5 60. Speculation in hides appears out of proportion to 'business in boots and shoes. Prices at Chicago have advanced for some months, with scarcely any re-uction, and leather has only partially responded, while boots and shoes average the same price as two months ago, when the bottom was reached after a long season of declining values. Tardy winter weather is making havoc with textile industries, and almost counteracts the election. Wool is more active at Boston than any previous time this year. Warning

Lord Salisbury Makes an Important Speech

At the Lord Mayor's Banquet in London.

Britain Must Maintain a Perfect Condition of Defense---Integrity of China Must Be Maintained.

London, Nov. 9.-What is probably cans, by reason of the following remarkable utterance of Lord Salisbury, who, in the presence of 900 guests, including United States Ambassador Choate, the members of the cabinet, and many of the leading men of England, spoke as follows on the American elections:

"We believe that the cause which has won is the cause of civilization and commercial honor. We believe those principles to be at the root of all prosperity and all progress in the world. Therefore, we claim that we have as much right to rejoice in what has taken place as the distinguished gentle-man (referring to Mr. Choate) who sits at my side.'

This was followed by loud and pro-This was followed by loud and pro-longed cheering, which made the gold THIS MAY BE plate on the oaken shelves shiver. Lord Salisbury's incursion into the internal politics of the United States was preceded by an apology, in the course of which he said: "One of the circumstances which has gratified me most during the last year is the very healthy, friendly feeling displayed be-tween this country and the United States. I hope Mr. Choate will forgive me if there is any irregularity in my expression. It is quite wrong for the secretary of state to make any observations with respect to the internal politics of another country, but I am soon to give up my office, and in view of this abandonment which is close at hand, I hope Mr. Choate will forgive me for expressing the supreme satisfaction with which all of us have heard of what has recently taken place in the United States." Mr. Choate, replying a few minutes later to the toast of "The Diplomatic Corps," declared that Lord Salisbury had stated with such truth, simplicity and earnestness the result of the election that he (Choate) would not attempt to add to it, although he would venture to congratulate the noble lord upon the fact that his remarks had been made after instead of before the election. (Laughter.)

lapse. Just before he left he reported thampshire authorities and taken back to serve an unexpired term of nine cast an extraordinary gloom over the they had originated in this city all the years in Concord prison, N. H., from gorgeous banquet. Following directly after the colonel commanding the City Imperial Volunteers, Lord Salisbury startled his hearers, who caught the drift of his remarks, by satirizing the war fever, although praising the courage of the soldiers, and declaring that the passionate admiration of military valor evidenced by the populace must produce a change of attitude on the part of the outside world when viewing English character.

Then, with lowered voice, and almost trembling accent, he went on to speak of the price of victory and the ravages of death, dealing especially with the Queen's bereavement in the loss Prince Christian Victor. Finally, with bent head and hands clasped, he uttered a hope, almost a prayer, that Lord Roberts might be spared the sorrow now hanging over him by reason of the critical condition of his daughter. Tears sprang to the eyes of women, and men moved uncomfortably in their

New York, Nov. 9. - Bradstreet's WAR FORCED ON GREAT BRITAIN The premier then reviewed the events of the last twelve months. Mr. Kruger and the Empress of China, he went on to say, had forced war upon Great Britain. He maintained that the British war office deserved great credit for the way in which it had handled these emergencies.

"Despite nebulous and fictitious attacks we should be glad to improve all the defects of the war office,' continued, "and our utmost efforts will be devoted to that task; but I should rather deprecate any unnecessary examination into what has occurred. You will not add to the enthusiasm of your troops by so doing."

He dillated upon the strengthened ties between the mother country and the colonies during the year, and poked fun at the delay consequent upon the European concert when dealing with China. It was not appropriate for him, he declared, comment upon negotiations while in progress, but he said he would make an exception in the case of the Anglo-German compact. "This" he re-marked, "represents the feelings of most, if not all, the powers allied."

CHINA AND THE OPEN DOOR. "It is impossible to lay too much emphasis upon the integrity of China and the open door, and I think it a matter of great advantage that the powers should have expressed themselves in favor of the fundamental principles; for, of they are achieved, the issue of the China problem need not concern us very anxiously." He maintained carnestly that the idea of invading China with "our scanty force," or "of approaching the stupendous task of governing China, instead of leaving it to be governed by the Chinese" was most dangerous.

Relapsing into pessimism, Lord Salisbury admitted that the trend of recent events has almost put an end the hopes of the Russian Emperor and others who took part in the peace conference at The Hague.

A FERVID APPEL

His speech closed with a fervid appeal to the people of England to maintain their defenses in such a perfect condition that "we shall not be exposed to any sudden interruption of the peace upon which our presperity "The supreme condition," deconds." exclaimed the premier, 'is that no reform, no improvement, is of the slightest value unless security against external interference is obtained by putting our defenses in such a position that no accident may happen bevond our borders that shall make our security doubtful."

The majority of Lord Salisbury's hearers believed that this warning referred to the possibility of French an-

Downing street, which, he said, was named after a Massachusetts boy. In concluding his address he expressed his belief that "so long as Lord Salisbury and Mr. McKimley continued to hold the reins of government there will be no danger of any disturbance of the honorable and friendly relations now existing between the United States and Great Britain.

PRESS COMMENTS. London, Nov. 10.—The Standard and Dairy Telegraph dilate editorially upon the importance of Mr. Choate's assurances regarding Anglo-American amity at the Guild Hall banquet last night. The Daily Telegraph thinks the American ambassador's tone was quite significant, and regards his glowing eulogy of Lord Salisbury as perhaps the most remarkable feature of the banquet.

The Times says a Guild Hall audience always looks to the American ambassador to contribute to the en-joyment of the evening, and it very rarely looks in vain. Mr. Choate fully maintained the reputation established by his predecessor. He managed to relieve a seriousness which threatthe most brilliant of all public func- ened to become too marked for a contions in England, the Lord Mayor's vivial occasion by turning aside from banquet, took place this evening. It the paths of pointies. Lord bans-bury ventured upon the pardonable will be memorable, even to Ameri- irregularity of expressing the universal feeling of this country re-garding the presidential election. Had its issue been different we should not have abandoned our faith in the ability of the American people to avert many of the evil results that might have been inferred from Mr. Bryan's electoral speeches, but since things turned over so happily there is no indiscretion in expressing our satisfaction at the striking triumph of political common sense and commercial honor. The Times, like other morning pa-pers, is evidently not altogether pleased with Lord Salisbury's lukewarmness on the subject of army re-

KRUGER'S GOLD

Mystery in the Arrival of $2,500,000 at New York.

New York, Nov. 10 .-What Wali street understood was the consignment of $2,500,000 of South African gold to the National City Bank, about which there has been so much mystery, has arrived on the steamship Kaiserin Maria Theresa. The gold, which came in 50 wooden boxes, was taken to the United States assay office. Each box was marked with the initials "P. P. K." and this circumstance started the report that the gold had come from President Paul Kruger, now ex-president of the South African Republic, whose full name is Stephen John Paul not disclose the origin of the gold, merely stating that the boxes had been shippeed by the London agency of the Deutsche Bank, and were consigned "To order." The value of the consgnment was put at £508,000. the boxes were opened at the assay office it was found that packed in sawdust they contained gold bars, every one of which was a United Except in its references to the Unit- States assay office bar. According to way from 1898 to the current year. Based upon the number upon some of the bars, a few of them had left this city as recently as July last. Just why the boxes were marked "P. P. K." was not learned, and officers of the city bank when questioned were evasive in their replies. The suggestion was made that if the gold really represented "Kruger gold" there had en a substitution in London of United States assay office bars for the actual South African gold. Also on the Kaiserin Maria Theresa was £50,-000 of gold from abroad consigned to the Hanover National Bank. Most of the consignment was in the form of British gold bars, but there were also a number of bars marked with the stamp of the mining company of New Zealand. The two lots together brought up the total of gold arrivals thus far

FORTUNES WASTED

In Attempts to Cure Dyspepsia and Other Stomach Troubles.

If Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Were Used These Diseases Would Vanish From Canada at One-Hundredth Part o the Outlay.

"Give me the money that is paid to doctors every year, for their vain effort to cure Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Wind on the Stomach, Foul Breath, Catarrh of the Stomach, and other stomach troubles, and I'll clothe every ill-clad person, feed every hungry one, build houses for the homeless and build a church or a schoohouse at every cross-road in the Dominion. So spoke a physician a few days ago. He did not overestimate the enormous waste of money in this direction. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are thrown away yearly on this purpose. If all who suffer from these diseases would quit doctoring, and use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, hundreds of thousands of dollars would be saved, and these stomach diseases would be unknown in Canada. For Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure these complaints, as certainly as the sun melts the snow If you don't believe it-test them. They'll convince you by curing you. The doctor who restricts himself to the treatment of one disease, can cure that disease when the physician who treats all diseases fails. Just so with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and stomach diseases, Dodd's Dyspepsia 'Tablets were made to cure these diseases only. They are not cure-alls. But Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets DO cure all stomach troubles. They have never failed yet. They will not fail

THE DISCIPLES' CONVENTION

Sixth Annual Meeting of the Western District Held at Iona.

Iona, Nov. 9.-The sixth annual convention of the western district, Disciples of Christ, opened here at 2:30 p.m. yesterday. The convention was called together by the president, Rev. E. E. Crawford, who in a pointed address asked the delegates present to throw off any strange feeling they might have.

Mrs. Charles Pearce, on behalf of the church here, heartily welcomed the delegates, and J. B. Ferguson, of Eagle, responded. The minutes of the tagonism.

Eagle, responded. The minutes of the Mr. Choate's speech consisted chiefly last meeting, held in Rodney, were of a humorous sketch of the history of read and adopted, after which a social hour was introduced by the president. It was clearly pointed out that success is due to devotion, and what we require is more stick-to-itiveness.

The meeting opened in the evening with a fifteen-minutes song service, led by Fred Lumley, and prayer by Rev. W. Ballah, St. Thomas. Prof. J. T. Bridwell was called on for a Bible reading. Following this Mr. Fred Bell, St. Thomas, read a paper on "The Y. P. S. C. E. a Dynamo in the Church." Points principally illustrated were so by the material dynamo. Francis E. Clark found out the electricists in the recommendation of the second tricity in the young people, and centralized it in the church, but yet did not confine it there. The young people are the encouragement of isolated points, and also the stimuli to the colleges of our land. Close contact with God is the power of develop-

The reports of the C. E. work were given by Fred E. Lumley, showing encouraging work. Miss Margaret encouraging work. Miss Margaret Sinclair, Lobo, was the next called, and she gave an excellent paper on "Keeping Our Pledge." This was very instructive and contained many excellent thoughts.

This preceded a paper on "Missions the Heart of the Church Life," by H. Erwin Stafford, St. Thomas. This was short, but full of concentrated thought and truth. John A. McKillop, West Lorne, led the parliament. The president re-marked that Y. P. S. C. E. stands for your principal source of Christian energy. J. H. Coultard, David Dick and Rev. W. Ballah made brief remarks on the papers. The meeting closed with a hymn and praper by Rev. C. Sinclair, London. There were about 50 delegates in attendance.
