THE INSURANCE INQUIRY

Toronto, May 10. - When the National Agency was in existence, shareholders who had paid 25 per cent on their stock and a premium of 25 per cent clamored for a dividend. The president of the National auditor, and asked him as to the possibility of paying something on the stock. Mr. Clay found that by taking into account the earnings of the next month, a half-yearly dividend at the rate of 10 per cent could be paid.

maintained that when the first dividend was declared here was in reality a deficit of $23,000 to $25,000. Mr. Symons, on the witness stand, ascribed all of the entries in the asset column to the experts of his company. One of the assets was the organization expenses and another the contingent premiums which are the value of the premium policyholders con-
