COL. ROOSEVELT SHOT BY MADMAN AT MILWAUKEE

Leader of Progressive Party Wounded in the Chest When Leaving Hotel, But Insists Upon Carrying Out His Program By Speaking at Auditorium.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 14.-Theodore Roosevelt was shot and slightly wounded here tonight as he was leaving his hotel for the auditorium where he was to deliver his speech of the evening. His assailant, who later gave evidence of dementia, gave his name as John Schrank, and his address as 370 East Tenth street, New York.

Before Schrank could fire a second time Albert Martin, stenographer with the Roosevelt party, and Henry F. Cochems, former football player at Wisconsin, grabbed Schrank.

Colonel Roosevelt stood beside the automobile which he had been about to enter when shot. He insisted on proceeding to the hall and going through with at least a part of his speech.

WOUND NOT SERIOUS. An examination of the wound by Dr. Eatton, of Milwaukee, and three other surgeons, showed that the bullet had entered the fleshy part of the right chest. The wound bled freely for some time, but Colonel Roosevelt said re was suffering no pain, and so far as could be learned there was no internal

The colonel was at first supposed to have escaped uninjured, for a moment after Schrank had wedged through the crowd and fired at him Mr. Roosevelt smiled as if to reassure the people in turmoil that surged about him. He suddenly, however, put his hand under his coat, and was seen to wince for an instant. Then he moved toward the automobile and stepped into it, said a word to his associates, and the next moment the throng was making way for his machine, and the automobile was whirling toward the auditorium. The crowd that struggled about the assailant in front of Colonel Ruosevelt's hotel after he had left for the hall took his sudden departure to mean that he had been uninjured, and the crowd cheered. But when he had reached the auditorium and made his way amid great cheering to the front of the platform those close to him could see a streak of red on his white waistcoat.

"I AM CARRYING THE BULLET." "An attempt has just been made to kill me," said the colonel to an audence that had stifled its first cheers and now listened in absolute silence, I am carrying the bullet in my body now, and so I will have to cut my speech

Before ascending the platform an attempt was made to induce Colonel Reosevelt to go to the hospital, but in spite of the entreaties of physicians Col. Roosevelt insisted on delivering his address.

"I will make this speec .. or die, one or the other," he said. CROWD GOT ASSAILANT.

Through the great throng that had been crowding about the colonel's atomobile in front of the hotel and cheering him as he was walking forward, the police after Colonel Roosevelt had departed dragged Schrank into While Martin, the stenographer, and Cocheme had been struggling with him, and later while the police were pulling him away from the crowd, and into the lobby, Schrank raved incoherently.
