By Members of the First Church at the Lakeside.

The annual picnic of the First Methdist Church choir was held on Wednesday to Port Stanley, and was attended by over one hundred of the members and their friends. It was one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held by the choir, Mr. George McCormick, Mr. Edwin Smith, and Mr. A. D. Jordan were all the time busily engaged in looking after he comfort of the guests and the choir nembers, and as a result there was something interesting every minute There were no complaints at all when the tired party returned in the evening.

The choir arrived at Port Stanle shortly after 3 o'clock, and the pro-gramme of sports commenced. The first was a game of baseball between the married and single ladies of the choir There is some dispute as to the actua vinner of this game, the single lac claiming that they won by the score 18 to 11, while the married ladies of hey won by the same score.
