Coming Attractions at Grand.

Today and Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Edison's Talking Pictures.
Thursday, Oct. 3—"Peg o' My Heart."
Friday and Saturday, Oct. 10 and 11—"Brewster's Millions."
Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 13 and 14—Cyril Maude.

The Edison Talking Pictures.

The Edison Talking Pictures will be seen here at the Grand again twice today, and twice Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Though the wonder of the accomplishment of these pictures is not to be belittled, their chief value appears to be not the enhancement of the enjoyment of the average audience that goes to see moving pictures, which will possibly be as great without. It is rather the means they present of preserving things that would otherwise inevitably perish.

"Peg o' My Heart."

The attraction at the Grand Opera House on Thursday evening, Oct. 9, will be "Peg o' My Heart," J. Hartley Manners' charming comedy of youth, which has had a long run in gratulations upon him, is informed by a solicitor that his mother's brother, who has just died, has left him a fortune of $7,000,000, on condition that he shall spend the million within a year. Up to the last minute, some complications or other threaten to defeat him; but his wit and dexterity extricate him from every emergency, and he finally succeeds in his task. Seat sale opens Wednesday at 9 a.m.

The Eminent English Actor, Cyril Maude.

The box office sale of seats for Mr. Cyril Maude's two-nights' engagement at the Grand Opera House, commencing Monday evening, Oct. 13, will begin Friday morning at 9 o'clock. An unusually deep interest is taken in the coming here of the distinguished English comedian. It is his first visit to America and London has been done the honor of being selected as the scene of his second appearance in this country, coming to London from Toronto, where he plays all next week. Mr. Maude brings with him his own acting company from The Playhouse, London, of some thirty-odd people, including such recognized favorites as his own daughter, Margery Maude, Lennox Pawle, Montague Love, Edw. Lennox, John Harwood, and the Misses Mary Merrill, Margaret

LITTLE DARLING LITTLE DAISY

HOSIERY For Infants and Children

Stands the Test of Strenuous Play

Notwithstanding the fact that "Little Darling" and "Little Daisy" Hosiery is so dainty and pretty, mothers have found that these stockings stand the test of children's wear, no matter how energetic and violent the youngsters get in their play.

Australian Lamb's wool is the most expensive wool we can buy, but we use it because it has absolutely the best wearing qualities combined with the daintiest appearance.

This explains to you why "Little Darling" and "Little Daisy" Stockings have been undisputed favorites for twelve years.

"Little Darling" and "Little Daisy" Stockings are dyed with fast sanitary dyes in the colors best suited for children—Pink, Sky Blue, Cardinal, Black, Tan and Cream.

Every pair is stamped with the Sunshine trade mark—insist on seeing it.

"Little Darling" Stockings have a silken heel and toe and are made in all sizes for children up to seven years old.

"Little Daisy" Hosiery has the heel and toe reinforced with an extra thread, in all sizes to fit children under twelve. Your dealer carries them.

Lillian Kellar, with "Peg o' My Heart," at Grand Next Thursday Evenings.

New York. The play, which is produced under the direction of Oliver Morosco, is said to be one of the prettiest and cleanest comedies seen on the stage for years. The story concerns a young Irish-American girl, who has been brought up in poverty, and who is suddenly transplanted to the home of unknown and aristocratic relatives in England. Her unfamiliarity with the ways of high society gets her into all sorts of trouble and leads to numerous comic situations. There is an abundance of clever wit and humor and a beautiful love-story. The members of the cast are: Lillian Kellar, Wilda Mari Moore, Gilbert Douglas, Lewis Broughton, Frank Darley and Gordon Hurry, Fanny Addison Platt and Henry Stanford.

"Brewster's Millions."

Probably no book dramatization of recent years has enjoyed the success and popularity that has attended "Brewster's Millions," which has attended Cuthbert's remarkable tale of frenzied finance, which comes to the Grand next Friday and Saturday, special matinee Saturday, at popular prices. The title character is in the hands of Louis Nilsen. The story of the play is familiar to the average theatregoer and book reader, and tells how Montgomery Brewster, inheriting a million dollars from his grandfather, while given a house warming and a surprise party by his friends, who shower con-
