$5.00 per year.

London Advertiser,

Member Audit Bureau of Circulation. MORNING EDITION. Outside City. toty. Outside 10c per week. By $5.00 per year. $2.00 per NOON EDITION.
$2.00 per year by mail.
EVENING EDITION. $2.00 per year. Outside City, By Mail. 10c per week.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS

$2.00 per year.

Toronto Representative — F. W. Thompson, 57 Mail Building.
U. S. Representatives—New York: Charles H. Eddy Company, Fifth Avenue Building. Chicago: Charles H. Eddy Company, People's Gas Building. Eoston: Charles H. Eddy Company, Old South Building.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER COMPANY, LIMITED.

London, Ont., Tuesday, July 18.

WAR FINANCE.

A. R. MARRIOTT, the wellknown historian, writing in the "Nineteenth Century and After," on the British Government's policy, says that it "never borrows one pound without making provision for new taxation sufficient to cover both interest and a liberal sinking fund." The revenue for 1915 showed a great increase over that of 1914; and the estimared increased revenue for 1916-1917 over 1915-1916 is about $850,000,000, would. nearly $500,000,000 more than enough to income taxes, bearing particularly on with which to hang himself. the wealthy class, and the 50 per cent | We have never noticed much of this quired. Mr. Marriott, himself a Con- standards. servative, declares that even 60 per But if the occupation known as "rich ingmen that they should be asked to sacrifice "should be reaped not by individuals, but by the community." men without a conscription of in- about suicide. comes. But things are changed under which was only 27 per cent of the destruction. whole in 1841, 40 per cent in 1881, 50 in 1901, and 57.6 in 1913, is to be 72 much suicide "across the line" and vided out of revenue towards the cost lions, can draw the lessons of national of the war is raised from the income health as she reads. taxes alone. The rich pay.

Clearly the financial situation in Great Britain calls for strenuous meas- THE unusual order for leave of ab. cruiting problem. main we drift.

THE DUKE'S DEPARTURE.

upon the somewhat heavily-charged

THE ABOVE is from the semi-official Canadian Gazette, published in Old London.

Stories of the duke's retirement from the vice-regal post have been given broad circulation, as well as supposed explanations, but no matter what the unpleasantness may have been, if such each man will have practically 6 days' there was, the governor-general must leave. They are given two days' full be well aware that this country is leave every two weeks, and it requires sadly misrepresented by some of the at least another day for the journeys to strutters in high places. He knows that and from the camp. Therefore the ser the service of the common people of vices of all the men in camp, more than Canada has been a service born of 30,000, are lost to the camp for six days deep love for humanity and the Em- in a month. Even the benefits in trainpire, and that their sacrifice has been ing as first claimed for Borden would made in spite of, rather than because not offset the loss of time. While in

THE BEAST'S END.

THE MAN who first met a rhinoceros and stayed to give it battle was no doubt killed. But this did not give the rhinoceros domination over the human race. Man met him No motor car that will leap a trench again and again, but not on the same has yet been invented. terms. He made weapons and discovered the vulnerable spots in the armor Germany, supposed to be human, proved to have all the brute strength and all the lack of moral sense of the rhinoceros, charged down upon humanity, and endeavored to trample under foot all who opposed him. But Germany was held while man shaped his weapons, and calmly devised his plans for mastery over the brute.

Today the beast is being beaten down, and man, with his weapons made for the task, is hacking toward the ada, anyway?" one might reply offmonster's heart.

LIKE TO LIKE.

B ITING satire in the last degree crops out of a letter written to the New York Times. It is suggested by the writer that the only conclusion to be drawn from the coincidental arrival of the Deutschland and the sharks off able to make frequent meals of human flesh by following the submarines, they decided that there was no better hunting to be found anywhere than in the tigers of the deep. Such a banquet of ing alleys. tender women and children!

And when the Deutschland started on a long journey a herd of the original submarine murderers, flicking their fins in admiration of German sort to turn Mr. N. W. Rowell's reefficiency, followed in its wake. When they found bathers available in large nothing he said warrants that infernumbers, the sharks no doubt gave ence. Mr. Rowell spoke evidently with the Deutschland credit, and the only thing New Jersey folk have to be thankful for is that the sharks may is masquerading as a tame, commercial cod at present. Perhaps its teeth are waiting outside the port. The sharks will not let her out of sight. She may strike an excursion steamer somewhere along the Channel. If there is anything in shark language to express "Hoch der kaiser," those sinister slayers have already acclaimed him King of Tiger Sharks. They are his little brothers of the submarine.

THE YPRES LINE.

 $R^{ m EPLYING}$  to Sir Sam Hughes' criticism of the late Lord Kitchener, shortly after the tragic death of the latter off the Orkney Islands, the semi-official Canadian Gazette of London (England) has the following to

"But the British military authorities, who must, of course, be the best and final judges, decided that the salient must be held just as it was, and it stands to Canada's credit, and especially the credit of Gen. Currie's magnificent troops of the 'Old Guard,' that as the result of the operations of June 12-13, and subsequently, and despite as fierce an artillery onslaught as Verdun itself has seen, the Ypres lines stand today, and will, when the time comes be an essential factor in the next. and, we trust, decisive, stage of

LESSONS TO LEARN.

F, BEFORE you were forty years of age, you had achieved a position worth $50,000 a year, and had just put through a $6,000,000 deal, would you commit suicide?

You don't know whether or not you

Quick money, big money, success, pay the additional interest on the don't always take life, but they take something. They chain a man to a How is this done? The enormous treadmill, or give him a golden cord tax raised to 60 per cent for 1916-1917 in Canada, because our speed records on war profits, provide the revenue re- are slow when measured by American cent on war profits is too little, and American businessman" isn't soon ascribes the industrial unrest of 1915 classed as "hazardous" by the insurlargely to the discontent of the work- ance companies, we miss our guess. We do not have much suicide in Cansacrifice their union rules except on ada; most acts of this kind here are the condition that the fruits of the properly ascribed to agonizing sickness, first of body, then of mind. The lonetheir toll, but as a nation Canadians should be faced and settled by official stress of events. Direct taxation, also reflects a state of mind against Now that the first rush of volunteers

There is too much divorce and too

ANOTHER PHASE.

ures. The debt which was 31/2 billions sence for soldiers in training at of dollars in 1913, will amount to 13 Camp Borden is at once an acknowledgbillions by March, 1917. But does not ment of the justice of the protests We are branded full by a soul of hate, the situation in Canada call for some lodged by the men, and a revelation of Stamepd, sealed and gowned with from Fred." course.

There have to undergo the hardships and ab-'The Duke of Connaught cannot normal conditions at Camp Borden are To the great and wise, peasant, craftshave been sorry to turn his back entitled to leave from such a place far atmosphere of Ottawa, and breathe more frequently than they would be unonce again the freer air of the west." der the conditions prevailing at London Camp. But when the camp was organized there was no intention of granting the cost to the country, as compared to the cost in such a camp as London, will of, some of the so-called leaders of this London the men were content to secure one full day's leave in a month.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Watch this shark scare spread wherever yellow journals are published.

Mr. Hearst doesn't insert the word "overwhelming" in the reports of Gerof the beast. And finally man became man defeats. The facts speak for

> The Ross rifle is being discarded in favor of a new Enfield arm. Sir Sam Hughes will discover Gen. Alderson in As the Empire stars are eclipsed and If Camp Borden is Sir Sam Hughes' conception of paradise, we all hope he We will take our fate as the may have no disappointment when he shuffles off this mortal coil.

hand, "The correspondent of the London Times and the honorary colonels.'

I'll not send these men to Kitchen er's Folly, that Ypres salient. I'll send them to Camp Borden. (Tear stains.)-From diary of Sir Sand, June,

C. B. used to stand for punishment the Jersey coast is that the sharks may of ordinary calibre. Now it is almost be of European origin. Having been a profane expression, standing for Camp Borden: "Go to C- B-." for "Good luck to the boys of the path of their big counterparts. The Alleys!" sang a youth, who might well Lusitania, no doubt, made the sub- have been in khaki. No doubt he was marine famous wherever roved the cheering on his friends of the bowl-

A DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING. [St. Thomas Times.]

Although attempts are being made by partisan newspapers of the baser cent address on recruiting into an attack on the Dominion Government, full realization of his responsibility as We'll die with a song and this leader of the King's opposition in the provincial legislature, and his evident desire and intention was to stimulate be drawn off when the German mon- the Canadian people to maintain ster shark returns. The monster-shark worthily their position in the success-

THE PURSUIT OF VILLA

BY FONTAINE FOX

his own political persuasion who are using his address for purely partisan purposes are doing Mr. Rowell an injustice and injuring the cause he was ambitious to serve.

The Times is quite in accord with his suggestion that the time has come liness of the prairies and drink take when the whole recruiting problem They objected also to a conscription of are too "average" and too poor to think organization and supervision. That is not a new proposal-many public men and papers on both sides of politics Also we go slow on divorce, which have been urging it for months past. has been exhausted and the response to the methods hitherto prevailing is becoming more difficult to obtain, the per cent of the whole in the new bud- Canada, which may have problems just of other means. Neither should men luncheon in a downtown hotel. "Have harrowing hour and a half in a stuck get. Nearly the total sum to be pro- as vast when she has a hundred mil- be taken from industries that, as Mr. you noticed the coolness between Elsie elevator, and of your lightning trip to Rowell remarked, are essential to the life of the nation and the proper conduct of the war. A qualified director of recruiting able to co-ordinate effort Philip, "but neither Elsie nor Fred deeds straightened out and made that our peers!

ENGLAND, FREE ENGLAND.

A Song of Truth to a Song of Hate.

man, sneers, To all patriots strong, to religion pure, Faith, honor and truth and the thrones Unto you we call, unto you appeal, Are we curse or hope? Now disown or seal! There is silence vast. We await the sound. the world soul wakes and doth pour around "England, Free England!"

All around the earth are our royal sons royalist life in its fulness

All the modern world we have mothered As strong as the earth and the boundless sea: These United States in their flesh and bones

In her silence feels what she dare dis Now the lion's whelps with a bound and roar Leap across the sea, guard mother's door From Canadians strong and Now are armies born and around us heights An unkindred kin with

Hark again, oh hark! 'Tis a victor's sound That rolls o'er the sea and doth gird us round:

"England, Free England,

We behold the world now anew arise And a new god reign on the azure shine

We will take our place or our powers

If the gods play just we will just abide: But by gods above as by flends below We will front the world as a single foe.

Ere the isle goes down by a soldier That doth feed its soul on a single hate. We defy the world with its iron feet beat! Oh arise! Arise! A tremendous sound Calls the nation forth. Will she still be found

To this freedom tread that doth in us

"England, Free England." When our race is run and our histories close. When the state goes down to its long it will be a field, it will be a strife

As wide as the world and as vast as life. And the latest man, woman, daughter, pair. When they reached the In that finish fight will be joined as

More triumphant then than triumphant

With the free man's soul and his brandless brow, All, encircling round our forever Queen. Will defy the hosts of the vast terrene: And when down we go, every soul will

As our fathers went when they faced the foe. less sound

the watching list'ning round: "England, Free England"

The Advertiser's Daily Short Story (Copyright, 1916, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.) 14 14 14

Unexpected Sunshine

man Simpson again," said Jack Boyd taste in dress. to Philip Ware, as they sat down at "Mrs. Smith has told me all about that and Fred Hartman?"

"Yes: everybody's noticed it," said will aid materially in solving the re- will tell the cause of it, I understand, train without your help, but she's still Amy Moore, who will rush in where them both, but got only an indifferent to a telephone.' shrug from Elsie and a grouchy one ance on her is an effect rather than a That absorbs the earth and doth all cause of the quarrel," said Jack. "Same thing is true of Fred's recen Call the court supreme! We demand tendency to hit it up a bit more than he the rain was still pouring ever did before, I fancy," said Philip, "Oh, we don't mind the rain," said with a regretful shake of his head. "It's Mrs. Smith, as they entered the elea shame for two fine people to get in vator. oad with each other that way, but an > ment later. "The plot thickens, for here come Fred and Amy Moore this min- have scorned you ever after.

"And if I'm not mistaken that sparkle in Amy's eye means she's got and to have lost the pleasure of your company and to have felt that I had caused you appropriate the pleasure of your company and to have been purishment. that she has designs on Fred, for she's happily engaged to his brother in Cleveland. She must be trying to annoy

Amy, slim and trim in white corduroy.

grey eyes and brought her white-gloved hands together ecstatically. "What a darling little table right at the open window!" she exclaimed. "Do

The table she indicated was near the one at which sat Elsie and her elderly Without any apparent design except to allow herself to look out of the window at the street scene below, Amy seated herself so that Fred was facing Elsie, only two tables away. The man who could have sat tete-atete with Amy without smiling frequently would have had to be blind and deaf, and as Fred Hartman was not so kin afflicted, his smiles were so many and spontaneous that they made Elsie Morton decidedly uncomfortable. She had already become sickeningly tired of the simpering smirks with which her escort emphasized his glances at her, and in return for them she could now muster only a faintly indulgent smile that had in it a suggestion of the boredom she felt. Except for a friendly nod upon first seating themselves, Amy and Fred seemed oblivious of Elsie's presence Amy ordered only the lightest lunch, insisting that she must be away in half an hour at the latest. When she had almost finished her light luncheon she glanced about and saw Jack Boyd and Philip Ware sauntering toward the doorway, which brought them near her table. She flashed them a smile of greeting, and bade Fred call them over as she wanted to ask them something about the coming dinner dance at the country club next evening. Nobody refused to obey Amy's commands, so Free obediently beckoned to the two young men, and they, as obediently came over beside her table, where they stood listening to her chatter and putting in a word when she gave them a chance Although her luncheon was finished Amy made no move to leave her seat their table. Then she contrived to was to bring Elsie and Fred into the until she saw Elsie and Simpson leave the party of six acquaintances reach the elevator at the same time and make the descent together. Her only object general conversation, but an unexpected occurrence did far more than all her manoeuvring to clear up the clouded atmosphere surrounding the estranged floor they found that a summer shower was coming down in driving sheets. A man and woman rushed from a taxicab at the curb into the lobby, where the group of six stood, reluctantly to venture until the shower passed. The woman, who was young and pretty and well dressed, gave a pleased exclamation when she saw Fred Hartman. "Why, Mr. Hartman, what an unexpected pleasure!" Fred advanced with a cordial response to her enthusiastic greeting, and the lady added: so glad to have an opportunity to present my husband to you, for we owe you a lot for your kindness to me that dreadful day. Mr. Smith, Mr. Hart-man," she concluded, and the two men shook hands. Smith was a big man

"Gee! There's Elsie Morton and old | helped to make up for his rather showy the station afterward. Believe me, we appreciate your courtesy to a client in distress. She could never have got the worrying because you missed a luncheon engagement with a lady who had others would fear to tread, sounded deserted the tryst before you could get "Well, that misfortune was the fault of the stupid elevator man, and could radical consideration? A few small the free and easy manner in which a offences great of the coward, thief and tyrannic of the coward, the coward of not have been even remotely blamed unpleasant experiences are your lot on another visit to the city." Fred mo-

> "Come, Fred Hartman, and 'fess up outsider can't butt in; so here's hop- to this romantic affair your friends ing they'll come to their senses with- have mentioned," commanded Amy, as the elevator disappeared. "It's a good "By George!" exclaimed Jack, a mo-thing I wasn't the girl who had the luncheon engagement with you. I'd "Oh, come, now," pleaded Fred. "To have lost the pleasure of your company annoyance would have been punishment enough for me without your scorn.

that a fair statement of the case, Elsie and with laughing brown eyes taking in would not have known the real facts Eisie, "but you must consider that Amy the admiring glances that came toward of the case until you told her, and her from the people at the tables all imagine what her feelings would have been if-well-say if she had seen you rushing that handsome woman into a taxi just as she herself came out from a lonely luncheon!" "There, now," said Amy saucily. "It's enough to make me weep, even though it's only a make-believe case, but I'm dying to know who the poor girl really "Perhaps she was too piqued at first listen to an explanation," said Elsie promptly, to ward off Amy's further conjecture, "but I'm sure that when she did know all about it she was sorry she had acted childishly. "You are quite sure, Elsie?" asked Fred, as if they were alone. And, indeed they were practically alone, Amy and Jack had exchanged knowing glances and had drawn the other two men over to the doorway to see whether the rain was slackening. "Quite sure, Fred," said Elsie, very "and bless those dear Smiths for making me both sorry and sure." 'Amen!" whispered Fred, as they nt in answer to Amy's delighted call o come and see the wondrous sunshine that had broken through the clouds. CURIOSITY LEFT UNSATISFIED. [Deloraine, Man., Times.] The necessities of time and tide which vait for no man caused us to go up to the postoffice at a late hour the other As the street lamps were not it we took our electric lantern, lamp worked all right, but we got an awful shock in one place.

HANDS PAINED AND CRACKED BADLY

Healed by Cuticura Trial Free

ranged main shower lets. A tays. was very sore and red and his hands were swollen and inflamed and they cracked badly.
"I got Cuticura Soap and Ointment and before he had finished one cake of Soap and two boxes of Ointment he was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Charles Bown, R. D. No. 3, Bury, Quebec, December 22, 1915. Sample Each Free by Mail With 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. J. Boston, U.S.A." Sold throughout the world, with a frank look about him which

MAIT A MINUTE! -By J. H. F

T. Roosevelt wants to go to war, bu just as he gets through shouting somebody calls off the war, and there he i -all dressed up, and no place to go.

folks, the trial can be said to have been a success. Otherwise justice was hardly done.

Freckles are a sign of good lady would prefer bad health York; in fact, move off the earth. no freckles to bubbling and good health, and a flock of the plants to escape the frost. spots.

joyful.

Germany's favorite hymn just now. ed. Adieu, dear old dynamite collar. sible.

and no booze in the fall," is a not snared a female in a onepretty little ditty now being piece bathing suit as yet. sung by Londoners. Hope somebody does not steal the supply

Speaking of snowballs, would it not all against one's bosom just now. * * *

The thunders that some of the prophets of old heard are still there.

weather. We just want to go some place and grouch a bit. Villa is not dead either as an issue is now engaged in reading the handor a human. They will have to come writing on the wall, as Democrats to our suggestion to get that bird, and understand it.

down there to grab him, SOCIAL UPLIFT. I'm asking a raise," said my pretty stenog, "For I'm planning a regular spree." 'Very well," was my answer, "I'm

THE SKYLARK PEACE. society reports."

-Williams Purple Cow.

Drawn by a thrilling song divinely A burst of melody that rose to greet was a rapture silenced till of late Men snared him not within his dim retreat. Holding their killing for each other

So, mounting on his gladsome wings in He shook the music forth, that he might give or war, which laid one-half the world in waste, And wrought a sadness over all who live. Has strangely given to the skylark Actors belong to the Federation of Labor, but the only persons who work watch and hear the actors.

New Zealand has exported about 11/2 million rabbits this year to date, giving that country the jump on all others.

A great racehorse-Peter Mac-is act

Young Orpet has been acquitted of murdering a high school girl, but as it provided a lot of spicy reading for the fat men try to wear those new suits with high waist lines. Oh, it will be for a day or two.

"Get Out and Go Under," seems to be baldheaded men cannot be used in plays.

No, you bet not. No baldheaded man wants his thatch exposed to the vulgar gaze of a million folks. He's too sensible.

A moving picture man says that baldheaded men cannot be used in plays.

No, you bet not. No baldheaded man wants his thatch exposed to the vulgar gaze of a million folks. He's too sensible.

A moving picture man says that baldheaded men cannot be used in plays.

No, you bet not. No baldheaded man wants his thatch exposed to the vulgar gaze of a million folks. He's too sensible.

A moving picture man says that baldheaded men cannot be used in plays.

No, you bet not. No baldheaded man wants his thatch exposed to the vulgar gaze of a million folks. He's too sensible.

his speeches.

These are called dog days, we presume, because everybody is so dog-gone mad at the weather.

of snowballs next winter.

We love to read a poem on being kind and sweet and nice, but we do not want to read it this ship a couple of hundred chorus girls never a hog."

Above earth's groaning sobs and cries meet. and on their brothers visiting the fate.

The joy within his swelling throat re-peace! -McLandburgh Wilson, in New York are the people who are compelled to

A GREAT HOLIDAY ON

THE GREAT LAKES

A cool, short, pleasant holiday through inland seas at moder-

CANADIAN PACIFIC

with verandah cafe and perfect appointments are as good as Atlantic liners. Express Steamships "Assiniboia" and "Keewatin" leave Port McNicoll every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday for Port Arthur and Fort William. Round trip

Tickets, information and reservations from Local Agent, or W. B. Howard, District

Passenger Agent, Toronto, Ont.

ate cost. The Clyde-built greyhounds of the 5 days.

omored. In order, probably, to have ome person else fire Sir Sam. The Germans are afraid of the Turks, thinking that they will quit. The Allies are afraid the Turks will not quit.

A Detroit man who had just put over $6,000,000 deal fell out of a window his death. Most people would die, they thought of that much money.

ng badly because he has corns. Just

Sir Robert Borden will retire, it is

* * *

ike a human would do.

A New York man says that a person can live on 6 cents a day. It is probable health, but the average blonde that he would have to move out of New

We feel quite sure that there One of the grand sights will be when will not be any serious frosts A moving picture man says that

It would seem, however, that A Pennsylvania man is going to raise Sir Sam Hughes did not need a a regiment of red-headed men for ser-Depart-Dr. Cinnamon to put spice into vice in Mexico. They should be all p.m., *9:10 ative powers being great.

"Muzzle the dogs," shouts some gent. We got a whiff of cool air the other It would be well to muzzle some people. day, and the experience was almost Give the dog plenty of water, and care, too much for us. We cannot stand and he will not go crazy with the heat. such sudden and fearful changes in the temperature.

That man-eating shark playing about the New Jersey coasts "No water in the summer, must be a fool shark. He has Poet Bill has written another effusion on the weather question, but as we have decided to kill the first individual who mentions the heat, we refuse to print it, and also threaten e nice to cuddle a perfectly nice snow- dire things on any poet who will dare to chronicle it in verse. The Allies are doing things at Sinal.

> their alleged indiscretions, but we must say that we do admire their costumes on days like this. * * * Judge Hughes could read when he was 31/2 years old, we understand. He

Adam and Eve, considering what we have had to suffer for vigor to the exhausted nerves by using Dr. Chase's

Sicilian..... July 15 Liverpool Corinthian... Aug. 2 London Carthaginian. Aug. 9 Glasgow Sicilian. Scandinavian. Sept. 2 Liverpoo orinthian .... Sept. 71 Carthaginian. Sept. 13 Glasgow

THE ALLAN LINE

95 King St. Wast, TORONTO

LONDON TIMETABLES

Grand Trunk Railway

We would not advise taking in SARNIA TUNNEL TO SUSPENSION BRIDGE AND TORONTO. Arrive from the east—*4:53 a.m., *10:23 a.m., *11:05 a.m., 11:50 a.m., z2:47 p.m., 5:30 p.m., *8:25 p.m., *8:53 p.m., 10:40 p.m.

Arrive from the west—*12:24 a.m., x9:30 a.m., 3:20 a.m., *5:40 a.m., 8:59 a.m., *12:15 p.m., *4:12 p.m., 6:25 p.m.

Depart for the east—*12:29 a.m., *3:25 a.m., *5:45 a.m., 7:25 a.m., *3:25 a.m., *5:45 a.m., 7:25 a.m., *3:25

> LONDON AND WINDSOR. Arrive-10:23 a.m., *4:00 p.m., *7:05 Tive—10.10 p.m., , 11:05 p.m., epart—6:35 a.m., *11:35 a.m., 5:32

STRATFORD BRANCH. Arrive-*4:20 a.m., 11:15 a.m., 1:45 m., 5:25 p.m., 7:50 p.m., 11:20 p.m. Depart—*6:05 a.m., 7:20 a.m., 12:30 m., 2:45 p.m., 5:00 p.m.

LONDON, HURON AND BRUCE. Arrive—10:05 a.m., 6:15 p.m. Depart—8:30 a.m., 4:40 p.m. Trains marked * run daily. Those not marked, daily except Sunday; z Mondays, Wednesdays, Saturdays; z Tuesdays, Fridays, Sundays.

Canadian Pacific Railway.

Arrive from the east-4:30 a.m. daily Arrive from the east—4:30 a.m. daily, 10:45 a.m. daily, 11:15 a.m. daily, 5:35 p.m. daily except Sunday, 7:15 p.m. daily, 9:50 p.m. daily.

Arrive from the west—5:10 a.m. daily, 1:20 p.m. daily, 7:50 p.m. daily, 8:30 p.m. except Sunday, 1:30 a.m. daily. Depart for the east-5:20 a.m. daily, 6:30 a.m. daily except Sunday, 9:00 a.m. daily, 1:25 p.m. daily, 5:10 p.m. daily, Depart for the west—4:43 a.m. daily, :00 a.m. daily except Sunday, 11:20 a.m. Sometimes we do not admire daily, 7:23 p.m. daily, 10:00 p.m. daily.

> Traction Company. London to St. Thomas and Port tanley: 7:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., tanley: 7:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m., 11:00 a.m., tanley: 7:30 p.m., and hourly to 7:30 p.m., 2:30 p.m., to St.

Sunday service. 9:30 a.m. to 9:15 p.m. Michigan Central. Trains leave St. Thomas: For East—*2:38 a.m., *3:33 a.m., 9:35 .m. (except Monday), *12:40 p.m., †3:10 .m., *7:25 p.m., *9:26 p.m., *10:00 p.m., r West—*2:53 a.m., *5:51 a.m., *6:23 †7:30 a.m., *11:40 a.m., †3:25 p.m., p.m., *7:10 p.m., *11:21 p.m.

0 p.m.
Clair Division—Leave, †6:30 a.m., p.m. Arrive. †10:40 a.m., †6:40 *Daily. †Daily except Sunday.

Pere Marquette. Trains leave St. Thomas (Kains street and P. S. cars leaving London 6:20 a.m.
Trains arrive St. Thomas from west at 11:55 a.m. (noon), 8:50 p.m. connecting with L. and P. S. cars arriving at (Via Falmouth.) ASCANIA ..... Aug. 5 CABIN AND FIRST-CLASS.

MONTREAL TO BRISTOL (Avonmouth Dock.) July 1 .... FOLIA .... July 26 CABIN PASSENGERS ONLY. For information apply Local Ticket Agent, or The Robert Reford Company, Limited, 50 King Street East, Toronto.

Traction Company Daily Excursion Fares London to Port Stanley

ROUND TRIP-ADULTS, 30e. CHILDREN-25c, excepting Wedn Good on Any Day, Returning Same Day LONDON AND PORT STANLEY v Time Table Effective May 17, 1916. ST. THOMAS and PORT STANLEY

5:20 a.m. and hourly thereafter at 20 minutes after the hour until 10:20 p.m. Then 11:20 p.m. to St. Thomas only. Cars leaving after odd hours stop only at St. Thomas. Sunday service commences at 6:20 a.m., commencing June 19, 1916.
Special car leaves London 4:55 a.m., arrives Port Stanley 5:43 a.m., Beach 5:45 a.m., stops only at St. Thomas. Returning, leaves Beach 5:50 a.m., Port Stanley 5:55 a.m., arrives London 4:55 a.m., arrives Londor Corner Dundas and Richmond Streets.

Thursday, Saturday and Monday Connecting at Winnipeg with G. T. P. train leaving 6.00 p.m. daily for Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Intermediate Points. Through Tickets to Prince George, Prince Rupert, Alaska, Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle and San Francisco. Splendid roadbed and the best of everything. Timetables and all information from any Grand Trunk, Can. Govt. Rys., or T. & N. O. Railway Agent.