The commissioner reserved his finding, and tomorrow morning will open an inquiry into the accident of July 7, when the Modjeska struck the breakwater near Sunnysid Although several officers of both Attorney-General Claims Reso-vessels were called as witnesses to-day, little was added to the sum of evidence already adduced. Questions centered largely upon the signals sounded by the Modjeska, and the relative position of the two boats. In his argument, Mr. Webb asked for complete exoneration of his client from responsibility for the accident Capt. Henderson had the right-oftioned whether Capt. Henderson was still entitled to a clear right-of-way, after the Toronto failed to respond to his first signal.

Mr. Webb did not believe the colsion would have occurred had Capt.
Sooth been at the bridge of the Toonto, instead of his mate. Mr. Webb Booth had acted under instructions.

Mr. King, in summing up for the company, made no attempt to apportion the blame, commenting on the fact that both captains had splendid records, and that the accident was unfortunate.

Campbell Clan Gathers

SEVERAL SPEAKERS

Ancestors Moved From Scotland To Canada in Early '40.

Three hundred and fifty people, all members of the Campbell Clan, assembled at Springbank Park yesterday afternoon to hold their annual reunion. This is the first year the picnic has been at Springbank Park, and everyone was loud in their praise for the splendid ground available. The last reunion was held at Valley

The members of this clan are the direct descendants of three brothers who moved to Canada in the early '40's. Two brothers, Humphrey and Alexander, came to this section of the country in 1833 and settled at Ekfrid and Dunwich. Robert Campbell came over in 1835 and settled also in Ekfrid. ## Dog Saves Boy When Attacked By Blow Adder

Special to The Advertiser. Aylmer, July 17.—The frantic barking of a collie dog probably saved the life of Arthur Porter, eight-year-old son of Charles Porter Glancolius

Arthur went to sleep beneath a tree in the yard. The farm dog and chum of Arthur's was evidently keeping a watchful eye over the sleeping boy, for Mrs. Porter was attracted by the frantic barksnake crawling toward the child, and immediately she called for help. Mr. Porter came quickly, and, with a club, killed the snake, which was could be snake, which was curled up and ready to strike. It was a blowing adder, and was some three feet in length.
