Special attention is called to time table of the C. P. N. com will be seen that the change of s on the Fraser river route takes Sunday, when the steamer R. will leave at 7 o'clock a.m., time.) After that date a steamer

POLITICAL NOTES.

The state of the s

Investigation.

Steamer Maude, having on seengers Messrs. R. P. Rit ring, James Laidlaw and C. un. returned from Smith's Inluture Bay yesterday, at 2 o c Departure Bay the Maude record of coal

A interesting meeting of the of the Reformed Episcopal chur was held last evening, a larguer attending. The proceedin opened by Rev. Dr. Reid with a thousan words, then stated the meeting which he said was surpose of electing a leader.

Dischaus was nominated by Mr.

Wiping out old Scores.

It is reported that one of the ca for election to the commons in district, who is not particularly for making prompt payment readitors, has been around during tew days wiping out some of the organist him. This is a feature in contests which THE COLONIST recoon to discourage, indeed it he the candidate will not become well-doing, but at the same time be asked if this is permissible at ticular time under the strict in tion of the prevention of corrupt at election act.

Attempted Abduction.
About two years ago Sing Chinese merchant, purchased a gown race. She was quite ignor the ways of the English, and wa quently, content to live with he as the months went by, howe gradually began to realize that to living which she was com tolerate was not the correct the conserving a plan she eluded the of her master and sought protect the whites. She was employed as god in different families, who never saw a more diligent or pawoman. Of course, Sing Kee trying to get her back, but, so purpose, and yesterday he sent to the house where she is at preplayed and directed him to use a so induce her to return. The "to the mean of the was told, and as soon to the house nearly scared the was told, and as soon to the house nearly scared the was told, and as soon to the house nearly scared the was told, and as soon to the house nearly scared the was told. did as he was told, and as soon to the house nearly scared the wo of her wits by telling her all stories, and what could and would to her if she did not go bad alleged owners. Although fr the woman was steadfast in her to remain where she was. Seein tould not move her, he beg force, but this signally failed, an subsequently arrested. He will this morning.

The Late Miss F. Dickinso
The sudden death of Miss Dickinson, daughter of Mr. Edw inson, purser of the Princess Le agreat shock to her relatives an She was taken seriously ill on last, and on the following day t announced that her illness wa tion of the brain. In order might have practical nursing. tion of the brain. In order might have practical nursing, taken to St. Joseph's hospital was tenderly cared for by her mithe Sisters until the hour of hich resulted at ten o'clock on night. The deceased had just the resulted at ten o'clock on night. The deceased had just the seventeenth year, and was with all who knew her. She was dutiful daughter, gentle in he tion, and to her many cherishe her early death has caused into it is acarcely nine months since it is acarcely nine months in the interest in the since it is acarcely nine months in the interest in the since it is acarcely nine months in the interest in the since it is acarcely nine months in the interest in the since it is acarcely nine months it is acarcely nine months in the since it is acarcely nine months

Weekly Colonist

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1887.