Righters are Doing. The Conservatives of West Toronto have by unanimous vote chosen who is to be their stand-ard-barier in the coming political battle. As-pretty generally understood before last night's convention in St. Andrew's Hall, Lieut. Col. Fred G. Deuison, the old member, is the choice, and if the conduct of the delegates is any criterion by which to judge the future then the fight is prac-tically won. Chairman Brock as president of the Toronto Liberal-Conservative Association-told the meeting that there was no cut-and-dried arrangement, and that every name put up for ent, and that every name put up for n would be submitted on its merits. net, and that every name plt up for a would be submitted on its merits. Nominating Candidates. The chair was taken by Mr. W. R. Brock, presi-dent of the Toronto Liberal-Conservative Associ-ation. After congratulating the convention on the large attendance he said the Conservatives throughout the country were stronger than ever for two reasons, their own inherent strength and the weakness of their opponents. [Applause.] The only nope of their opponents was to create dissensions among the Conservatives. He therefore asked this constituency, numerically the largest Conservative one in Canada, to set an example to the others by the unanimous and hearty support of the cundidate chosen. Free Trade.

Free Trade to Liberals so dear.

By hunger rendered desperate. Unfurl the flag of the Commune.

Here plenty fills the willing hand, And labor holds its head erect. Here toil finds adequate reward,

Look o'er the broad and prosperous land,

Where laws the workingmen protect

No hungry wolves howl at its doors Because our workingmen we guard Against all cheap competitors.
