FIVE DAYS AT WOODBINE PARK.

Mr. Seagram heads the list of winning owners. Regan the Jockey and Joe Miller the horse.

From a racing standpoint the O.J.C. meeting just closed was a success. Good fields almost invariably faced the starter, and close finishes were the order. There were a few spills during the five days, but not a serious mishap to horse or rider. The attendance was below the average, as rain fell on four of the race days. The attendance figures:

Thursday..... 11,000
Friday..... 2,200

Mr. Seagram heads the list of winning owners, with nearly $3000 to his credit, not including the Walker Cup, which is valued at $1000. He is a long way ahead of Mr. Daly, who comes second. Here is the complete list:
