ALLIGID BIGAMY.

when the case came to trial Johnson testified as follows: "We were married on Oct. 16, and went to keeping house as happy as man and wife could be. She shortly after confessed that she was guilty of bigamy. She had a husband living in Hamilton, Canada. His name is Charles Bost. After the confession I told her I could not live with her any longer."

The wife swore that she had no know-ledge that her first husband, Bost, was dead, but that she had not heard from him in seven years.

Judge King ordered Johnson to give a $300 bond as evidence of good faith that he would support his wife, but as the prisoner had no friends in court to become surety for him, he had to go to the penitentiary. The case will probably he appealed.

PROPERTY AT AUCTION. A Couple of Flour Mills and the Propeller

There was a good attendance in the rotunds of the Board of Trade yesterday when Auctioneer Peter Ryan put up for sale two grist mills of the estate of James Norris of St. Catharines. The capacity of these mills togother is 700 barrels per day. The bidding began at $15,000, which was raised to $34,000, at which both were knocked down to Mr. John Scully, presumably for the Bank of Commerce.

The Persia went to Mr. James Carruthers for $9700, a very low price. She has accommodation for 100 passengers, and can carry about 12,000 bushels of grain through the St. Lawrence Canals.

The New Piano Emportum.

The New York & Boston Piano Co., who last Saturday opened their warerooms at 122-124 Yonge-street (next door to Ryries), have made a new departure in their line of business. Recognizing the general depression of trade and the reduced purchasing power of the public they have set out to sell musical instruments at the slightest possible margin ments at the slightest possible margin on cost, which they claim to be able to do largely by reducing the heavy expenditures which usually attend the running of the piano business. Their warerooms, whilst bright and convenient, are run unexpensively. The ordinary staff of high-salaried canvassers has been dispensed with in their case, and (from dispensed with in their case, and (from a newspaper point of view) we regret to say that they intend largely curtailing their advertising expenses.

Newspaper men can hardly express an opinion on this part of their policy, but the public will of course decide. the public will of course decide.

Whilst the firm is a new one, the ownership and management are vested in most experienced hands, and, financially, the new concern is one of the very strongest in the country. Whilst low expenses and low prices are to be the rule with the new firm, some of the most famous pianos known to musicians will be found on their floors. It is sufficient to mention the names of Decker Bros., George Steck, and Sohmer. We wish the new concern every success.

Lights of a City Street. This is the title of a fine picture by F. M. Bell-Smith, which is now on exhibition at 20 King-street east. This hibition at 20 King-street east. This artist's work is well known and justly esteemed. By the painting of these Lights he has added another to his laurels. The scene is local—the junction of King and Yonge-streets, and the time is evening. The scene is a December night after rain. The picture may correct the impression in some quarters that Toronto is snowed-up in December. There is a busy throng passing, in that Toronto is snowed-up in December. There is a busy throng passing, in which some well-known faces may be recognized. Policemen are on the beat, newsboys plying their trade, trolley cars on the route. The view down Kingstreet, terminating with the spire of St. James' Cathedral, is faithfully depicted. This latest painting by Mr. Bell-Smith, on which he spent three months' labor, is well worth seeing.

Rev. Joseph Cook. Rev. Joseph Cook.

For nearly a score of years Joseph Cook has quickened the pulse of Boston's religious and intellectual life. He is probably the most aggressive and original as he is certainly the most celebrated defender of the orthodox faith of the present day. His lecture on Saturday evening in the Massey Music Hall will be on the "Saven Modern Wondern" The plan opens to-day." The plan opens to-day.
