LOVING AND GIVING.

"Children," said Miss Lee, to her primary class, "I want to give you two words to remember always" and the teacher wrote on the blackboard just over a hymn she had copied, these words, "Loving and giving."

"Dear children," she said, "I want you to love Jesus first of all, and give him all he asks."

The primary class was a Mission Band too, so the children heard a great deal about giving.

Here is the hymn that Miss Lee taught her class. They sang it to the tune, "Oh, I am so happy in Jesus."

For I teach us the lesson of Loving,
The very best lesson of all;
Oh, then, who doest love I little children,
How tender and sweet is this call!
Now help us to hear it and give three,
The Lord thou art asking to-day,
Then help us to love one another,
For this we most earnestly pray.

For I teach us the lesson of giving,
For this is the very next thing
Our love ought always be showing
What offer of gold and fruit is an offering
Here are many who know not this mercy,
There are millions in darkness and woe,
Our prayers and our gifts a fare needed,
And all can do something, we know.

DR. CLOUGH'S mission to raise $50,000 for enlarging the Telugu work and securing twenty-five men for its reinforcement has been completed; the money has been pledged, and the men are nearly all in view. Dr. Clough having thus accomplished his object, was planning to return to his work in Ongole, when a petition was received at the Rooms signed by the leading men of Ongole, praying that the Union would raise the Ongole High School to a second grade College. We have about 55,000 Christians and a population under Christian influence of 200,000 more who reasonably look to us for the means of an advanced education. There is no Collegiate school for Baptists in all India, and the need of such has been pressed on the missionaries and the people. The Executive Committee has therefore asked Dr. Clough to remain in the country for the purpose of raising $50,000 as a partial endowment for the Collegiate school to be established. He has consented to stay and raise the money which will be included in the Centennial fund of $1,000,000, for the general enlargement and improvement of the missions of the Union.
