Sermons for Sabbath Evenings. With Introductory Remarks by Hugh Miller.

These volumes, now offered at one shilling and three pence, are published at two shillings. They are bound in cloth boards, with gilt title. The paper is good, the type large and distinct; and being the unabridged text their value is greatly enhanced on that account.

The following memoranda will prevent misunderstanding.

(1.) It is hoped that Ministers will kindly undertake to receive the names of subscribers, with their subscriptions; and also that they will take charge of the delivery of the books which may be ordered by members of their congregations.

(2.) Subscribers are at liberty to take either the whole or any number of the above volumes.

(3.) Subscriptions must be paid in advance, and these must be remitted to Edinburgh, or a guarantee given for their payment, previous to the books being sent away.

(4.) Applications to be addressed to Mr. ROBERT YOUNG, OFFICES OF THE FREE CHURCH, 58 FREDERICK STREET, EDINBURGH, not later than 30th June, 1857.

(5.) In order that the various parcels for the same Colony or locality may be put up together, thereby saving trouble and expense, the books will not be dispatched until the autumn of 1857. The parcels will be sent from this country to the principal towns, free of expense.

Edinburgh, 28th November, 1856.
