"THE IDEAL MAGAZINE"
for young people is what the papers call St. NICHOLAS. Do you know about it,—how good it is, how clean and pure and helpful? If there are any boys or girls in your house will you not try a number, or try it for a year, and see if it isn't just the element you need in the household? The London Times has said, "We have nothing like it on this side." Here are some leading features of

ST. NICHOLAS
For 1886-87.

STORIES by LOUISA M. ALCOIT and FRANK R. STOCKTON, —several by each author.
A SHORT SERIAL STORY by MRS. BERNETT, whose charming "Little Lord Fauntleroy" has been a great feature in the past year of St. NICHOLAS.

WAR STORIES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS. GEN. BADEAU, chief-of-staff, biographer, and confidential friend of General Grant, and one of the ablest and most popular of living military writers, will contribute a number of papers describing in clear and vivid style some of the battles of the civil war. They will be panoramic descriptions of single contests or short campaigns, presenting a sort of literary picture-gallery of the grand and heroic contests in which the parents of many a boy and girl of to-day took part.

THE SERIAL STORIES include "Juan and Juanita," an admirably written story of Mexican life, by Frances Courtenay Baylor, author of "On both sides"; also, "Jenny's Boarding-house," by James Otis, a story of life in a great city.

SHORT ARTICLES, instructive and entertaining, will abound. Among these are: "How a Great Panorama is Made," by Theodore R. Davis, with profuse illustrations; "Winning a Commission" (Naval Academy), and "Recollections of the Naval Academy"; "Boring for Oil" and "Among the Gas-wells," with a number of striking pictures; "Child-Sketches from George Elliot," by Julia Magruder; "Victor Hugo's Tales to his Grandchildren," recounted by Brande Matthews; "Historic Girls," by E. S. Brooks. Also interesting contributions from Kara Perry, Harriet Prescott Spofford, Joaquin Miller, H. H. Boyesen, Washington Gladden, Alice Wellington Rollins, J. T. Trowbridge, Frederick Schwatka, Noah Brooks, Grace Penio Litchfield, Rose Hawthorne Lathrop, Mrs. S. M. B. Fiatt, Mary Mapes Dodge, and many others, etc., etc.

The subscription price of St. Nicholas is $3.00 a year; 25 cents a number. Subscriptions are received by booksellers and newsmen everywhere, or by the publishers. New volume begins with the November number. Send for our beautiful illustration catalogue (free) containing full prospectus, etc., etc. THE CENTURY CO. New-York.

University of Mount Allison College,
Sackville, N. B.
JAMES R. INCH, LL. D., PRESIDENT.

THE University of Mount Allison College offers to its students, whether desiring to take a full undergraduate course or a partial course limited to special studies, advantages unsurpassed in the Maritime Provinces. The brilliant record of Mount Allison men at some of the leading Universities of England, Scotland, and Germany, as well as the success of Mount Allison under-graduates in the competitive examinations of the University of Halifax, establish beyond question the thoroughness and comprehensiveness of the education received at this University. Arrangements will be made during the present year to increase the efficiency of the Institution and to add to the comfort of students.
Special facilities will be afforded to ladies wishing to pursue the full under-graduate course, and to teachers who may need to teach during the Summer Term.
One or more cash prizes will be offered for competition at the Matriculation examinations, to commence on the 3rd day of September next. Intending students are invited to correspond with the President.

T. T. DAVIS, B. A., HEAD MASTER.

NO Institution of learning in the country has had a more successful history and none is more worthy of patronage for the future. Many of the most prominent men now in professional, commercial and political life in Canada, and in other lands, had their training at Mount Allison Academy. The arrangements for the future are such as will guarantee a continuation and extension of the efficiency of the Institution. A thorough English and Commercial Education is imparted, and students are prepared for College Matriculation and for Civil Service examinations. If desirable, students can take, in addition to their work in the Academy, one or more classes and lectures in College. Every care is given to the private interests of the boys, so as to insure their comfort and happiness.
The Gymnasium is being put in good repair.

MOUNT ALLISON LADIES' COLLEGE.
REV. D. C. DODDEN, M. A., PRINCIPAL.

OVER 30 years of progressive Educational work have given this Institution an unrivalled position in the public confidence. Instruction is imparted on subjects ranging from the primary English branches through the whole College Curriculum. Young ladies studying for teachers may here combine the accomplishments and the thorough drill necessary to their profession.
The Departments of Music and Fine Arts are maintained in a high state of efficiency. Prof. Mack's long training under Prof. Spieldel, of the Stuttgart Conservatory, places him in the front rank of musical educationists.
Solo-Violin, Ensemble playing, History of Music, and other new features are being added under his direction. Painting on china, plush, wood, brass, terraline, etc., are among the novelties which illustrate the progressive character of the instruction imparted in department of Fine Arts.
