The "Stunner." Is quickly and easily attached to the heads of Cattle, Hogs, etc., and retained there by Steel Springs; a small blow given it fastens it firmly and painlessly to the animal of sensibility.

The "Stunner" is the only instrument that can be attached to the head of Stock for slaughtering purposes. It enables the Farmer and Pig-keeper to kill his own Cattle and Hogs humanely, safely, speedily and quietly.

Humanitarians should use and advocate the use of the "Stunner."

Scientific and Useful.

COFFEE CAKE.—Mix well together, one p. of sugar, one of molasses, one of butter, and one of strong coffee, and four well-beaten eggs; stir into this five cups of flour, in which a teaspoonful of soda has been mixed, and finally a cup of chopped raisins or English currants, and bake in a hot oven.

FRESH PRESERVES.—Canned peaches and pears can be quickly made into a delicious fresh preserve, when removed from the jar for use in the winter, by adding about as much more sugar as was used in the first place, and boil slowly three-quarters of an hour or a little longer.

BEEF FRITTERS.—Beef fritters are nice for breakfast, chop pieces of steak or cold roast beef very fine. Make a batter of milk, flour and an egg, and mix the meat with it. Put a lump of butter into a saucepan, let it melt, then drop the batter into it from a large spoon. Fry until brown, season with pepper and salt and a little parsley.

THE most successful Hair Preparation in the market. If you are bald, if you have thin or gray hair, if you are troubled with falling out of the hair, or dandruff, don't fail to try a bottle of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the greatest discovery of the age. Sent to any address on receipt of price. $1 per bottle, or six for $5. Direct all communications to A. Dorenwend, sole manufacturer, 105 Yonge St., Toronto, Can.

QUINCE JELLY.—The parings may be boiled with the fruit, as the richest portions are next the skin; but it is best not to use the cores, as the mucilage around the seeds is not good for the jelly. It is more economical, and it will not hurt the jelly, to use some apples. Cook the apples and quinces in the same water and strain the juice of both fruits, then add sugar to the strained syrup, bulk for bulk without weighing. Let it simmer until the jelly point is reached.

APPLE DUMPLINGS.—Make a crust as for pies. Pare and core the apples, then fill them with sugar and butter and roll each in a piece of crust sufficient to cover it well, folding it over neatly on the top. Bake in a well-buttered tin half-an-hour in a quick oven, or boil one hour tied in separate cloths. Keep the water constantly boiling. To be eaten with hard and soft sauce.

BILIOUSNESS.—When the Liver does not act promptly the bile accumulates in excess in the blood, causing yellow eyes, sallow skin, sick stomach, diarrhoea, etc., and the sufferer is termed Bilious. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the Liver, Stomach, Bowels and Blood, curing Biliousness.

PRUNE PUDDING.—A delicious prune pudding is made by stewing a pound of prunes till they are soft, remove the stones, and add sugar to your taste, and whites of three eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Make a puff paste for the bottom of pudding dish. After beating the eggs and prunes together till they are thoroughly mixed, spread them on the crust. Bake for half-an-hour, or until you are sure the crust is done.

APPLE MARMALADE.—Sour apples should be selected for apple marmalade. Peel, core and cook slowly in little water until it is a thick pulp. Measure the pulp and return to the same kettle. To each pint of pulp take one pound of sugar. Melt the sugar into a thick syrup; pour into the apple pulp; stir and cook until thick. Take up in small bowls. Marmalade made in this way will, in a week or two, be firm enough to cut with a knife.

ASK fifty ladies in succession what perfume they consider the most delicate, the most pure and salubrious, the most permanent and in all respects the most desirable, and forty nine of them will answer, Murray & Lanman's Florida Water.

GOOD BUTTER.—Any person can prove the honesty of his grocer by melting his butter. Pure butter melted produces a pure, limpid, golden oil, and it retains the butter flavour. Melt oleomargarine and the oil smells like tallow, and a scum rises to the surface. Butterine is a mixture of dairy butter and lard. Melt that and the butter oil will rise to the top. Pour this off and you will find the fats at the bottom, whitish in colour, and giving off a disagreeable smell.

A VICTORY SCORED.—Every time when Haggard's Yellow Oil is used for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Aches and Pains, Sore Throat or Deafness, Frost Bites or Burns, a certain victory is the natural result.
