CLUB CHAMBERS

83 York St. (next door to Rosale House), Toronto. Dwyer & Donkary, Proprietors.
THIS favourite hotel, so long and successfully conducted by Mr. James O'Donoghue, has recently passed into the hands of Mr. M. J. Dwyer, for the past eleven years connected with the Rosale House, and Mr. William Dwyer has long respectfully solicited the patronage of the clergy and others. The high standard which Club Chambers has always maintained as a first class private hotel for men only will be continued under the present management; and the personal superintendence of Mr. Doherty's effort will be spared to render it worthy of the confidence and popularity hitherto extended to it. The house is now being thoroughly renovated and put in order for the summer season. Rooms with or without board at reasonable rates.
