THE BELLS.

This morning bells of life are ringing
All around the smiling earth,
And gentle music they are singing
On glad hearts that love its worth.

They tell the tale of childhood, dreaming
Of its youthful, merry plays,
While flexile fancy's over teeming
Full of happy, bright boy days.

The noon-day bells of life are pealing
Round the globe a busy song:
Their stirring, giant notes are stealing O'er a care-worn, dusty throng.

They tell of sturdy manhood, toiling
On the bustling stage of life,
With thousand fears for ever foiling
Him in all his toil and strife.

The evening bells of life are rolling Round the world their sad refrain,
With slow and solemn measure tolling
Human life's departing train.

They sadly tell us all are going To the narrow, silent grave,
That common home of death's bestowing
All the same, on prince or slave.

formed that a County Convention will be held in the Town

NEVER FAILING REMEDY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, A CRIPPLE

SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool dated August 20th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.
DEAR SIR—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About ten years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Salmer Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse whereby he received very serious injuries, he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which completely crippled him, so that he could not move without crutches for nearly ten years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limbs, enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigour.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a letter from Mr. Hind, Draper, of Keady, near Guinsboro', dated 1st. March. 1852.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

SIR—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIND, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH

Copy of a letter from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31 daller Street, in this town, to inform you that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility,
and general ill health, accompanied with a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states, that in a wonderfully short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength, and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours faithfully.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS
AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs Walker and Co., Chemist Bath.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicine in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated sores in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies, her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful cure, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise.

We remain, Dear Sir,

Your's faithfully

April 6th, 1852. (Signed) WALKER & Co.

LANGLEY'S ANTIBILIOUS APERIENT

PILLS The great popularity acquired by these Pills during the seven years they have been offered for sale in undue means of increasing their sale have been resorted specting them.

These Pills are confidently recommended for Bilious Complaints or morbid action of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Headache, Want of Appetite, Gladness, and the
