

upon as injustice; you owe me every confidence.

The King ordered every one to retire; and to meet the next day in the Chamber of Order.

The Commons remained in the Hall, and kept a long profound silence before they deliberated upon their situation, and the greatest anxiety was visible in their countenances. The two other orders went out of the Hall, except some of the Noblesse, who were in the next room, and about 50 of the Clergy, who resolved to vote with the National Assembly.

A motion was then made, 'That the National Assembly persists in their former resolves,' and the Clergy desired mention might be made of their presence, for which they were much applauded. This motion passed unanimously.

A motion was then made tending to declare the person of each deputy sacred and inviolable. This was carried by 483 against 34.

The President continued the sitting to the next day at nine.

Yesterday, at eleven in the evening, the populace assembled about the castle with menaces: the Princes called to arms; the soldiers refused; the King and Queen sent for M. Necker, who at first refused to come, but at last appeared, and the people were appeased.

It is thought that the King will annul all that he did in the sitting above-mentioned.

Tuesday some dispatches were received at the Duke of Leeds's office from Newfoundland; they are dated the 10th ult. and contain intelligence of the safe arrival there of upwards of 100 sail of merchant ships from London and other places, besides a great number more that were just appearing on the banks.

AMERICAN OCCURRENCES.

Montreal, July 9.

ON Thursday evening last arrived here from Quebec, the Right Reverend Father in God, CHARLES Bishop of Nova Scotia. The Bishop was met at Pointe aux Trembles, and conducted into the city, and has since received the compliments of many of the most respectable inhabitants both of the Protestant and Romish persuasions. On Sunday morning he delivered to a numerous auditory an excellent discourse on the nature and end of confirmation, with a view to the administration of that ordinance next Sunday; and yesterday he received and answered the following Address from the Rector, Church-wardens, and Protestant inhabitants of this city.

To the Right Reverend Father in God,
CHARLES NOVA SCOTIA, &c. &c.

THE Rector Church-wardens, and Protestant inhabitants of the city of Montreal, beg leave to congratulate you on your safe arrival in Canada, where their wishes invited you, and where your presence fills every heart well affected to the Church and State, with joy and comfort.

Sensible, Right Reverend Sir, of the vast benefits that must accrue to this country by the encouragement of true religion, piety, virtue, and learning, we are happy in the prospect of seeing them flourish under your spiritual care and patronage: In that light, we view your appointment as one of those distinguished blessings, which Divine Providence confers on a favoured people; and we acknowledge with the highest gratitude, His Majesty's paternal care and bounty, in placing at the head of the flock, a pastor and governor, so eminent for his merit and abilities.

The smiling prospect before us, gives us the joyful hope of seeing the Protestant Church in Canada, emerge from obscurity, and acquire under your auspices, the full enjoyment of her rights; and that the seeds of knowledge and truth, cultivated and cherished by your propitious hands, will disseminate and produce the fairest fruits.

We beg leave, Right Reverend Sir, to assure you of our earnest desire to concur with zeal and alacrity, in support of our Holy Faith, well convinced that her principles tend to the Glory of God, and to the Welfare and Happiness of Mankind.

We have the honor to be,
With the most profound respect,
Right Reverend Sir,
Your most obedient and
Humble Servants,

David Chd. Delisle, Rector,
James Hollowell, } Church
Adam Scott, } Wardens,
James Noel.

Montreal, July 8, 1789.

The above Address was also signed by 73 of the principal Protestant Inhabitants.

THE BISHOP'S ANSWER.

Gentlemen,

PERMIT me to return my sincere thanks for your very kind congratulations; and
