TEACHERS—COUNTRY. The Toronto Business & Shorthand College.

TORONTO, April 30, 1894.
To Harbord Students:
Those of you who may be contemplating a Shorthand, Business or Telegraphy course, cannot possibly do better than attend the Toronto Business and Shorthand College, cor. Yonge and Shuter Streets.
Before deciding I visited the best schools several times, to satisfy myself as to the real merits of each. I entered this institution in February for a complete Shorthand course and found several Harbord boys and girls here before me. After two months' work I am satisfied as to the wisdom of my choice.
Our school has every facility, with the advantage of modern methods. The teachers are competent and willing, the students sociable and the discipline excellent. The rates are reasonable and, as we pay for the best, we get it. Altogether I am well satisfied and feel fully justified in recommending the school so heartily, and will cheerfully answer personal inquiries.
Respectfully yours,
W. R. GIBSON.
