

LINEINS!

Linen fabrics were made long before the first pages of authentic history were written.

Linen has been used by those same persons for over three thousand years without being worn out.

Ireland at present is the great seat of manufactures in Linen, as the following table will illustrate:—

NUMBER OF SPINDLES.
England	Scotland	Ireland
369,000.	317,000.	866,000.

NUMBER OF OPERATORS.
England	Scotland	Ireland
19,800.	49,900.	55,100.

Hurrah for Ireland on the Linen question.

THE ORANGE TROUBLES.

St. James street, a young Irishman, wearing a green badge quietly sauntered down, and when opposite the St. Lawrence Hall, a stalwart "gentleman," bedecked in Orange colors, rushed out of the ranks, and tore the badge off the breast of the young Irishman, and quickly rushed back into the ranks again, followed by the "braggart," as the Star styles him, who seized him by the collar, and made him hand over his green badge, which he coolly plinned once more on his breast, and then put his fist under the nose of the "gentleman," processionist, whereupon one or two Orangemen rushed off for the police, succeeded in bringing one to the scene, when the young Irishman, or "braggart" quietly walked down the street undaunted or undismayed by the Orange hords.

Now, sir, I unhesitatingly assert, and can prove the above facts under oath, not only on the part of myself, but by numerous by-standers, all of whom were loud in the praise of the pluck of the so-called "braggart," and in denunciation of the rufianly conduct of the Orange bedecked "gentleman."

Hoping, Mr. Editor, that you will give this insertion in the columns of your valuable paper, I am, dear sir,
Yours, etc.,
AN EYE-WITNESS.

CITY ITEMS.

THE INQUEST.—As the enquiry into the death of Hackett proceeds it becomes the more evident that Farrell had no hand in the death of decessed.

PIC-NIC.—St. Bridget's Society hold a picnic to-day (Wednesday) at Boucherville Island in aid of the poor under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

ACCIDENT.—Shortly after 9 o'clock this morning a young man was terribly crushed by the falling of a tub into the hold of the steamship Redewater, where he was working.

VOLUNTEER WOUNDED.—A bugler of the Royal Fusiliers was struck on the head on Monday, with a stone. He was attended by Dr. Burland, who put a few stitches in the opening.

PISTOL PRACTICE.—A shot was fired on Place d'Armes Hill Monday night about 12 o'clock, and the man pursued, but he escaped. Several shots were heard in various parts of the city.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—An old man, aged 92 years of age, named Peter Kenny, was run over on Sunday, the 8th of July, on the 6th con. west Wawanosh, County of Huron, and died the next morning. Mr. Kenny was a Catholic.

CORRECTION.—In our last issue in the vote of thanks to certain gentlemen by the Young Irishmen's Literary and Benefit Society Mr. C. A. Briggs was mentioned as being one of the contractors for the Inland Cut. It was a mistake of the Secretary.

DUBIOUS.—It is said that the County Master, who invented the well poisoning at St. Jean Baptiste for the benefit of the Star has no existence, though strange to say he says he has a conscience. If the suspicion of our informant be well founded, the canard inventor is not far from Craig street.

THOUGHTFUL.—Outside several houses on the route of the procession on Monday, were placed ice coolers, for the benefit of the thirsty souls on the march. These evidences of kindly feeling elicited frequent bursts of applause from the grateful processionists.

FOURTH ESTATE.—On Monday night several of the reporters who ventured too near Point St. Charles —beyond the Balkan Mountains—had stones and other missiles thrown at them. Mr. Wallace, of the Star, was slightly hurt, one of the other party mistaking him for a Union man.

FOR TRIAL.—Patrick Dwyer who so wantonly drew his revolver on Messrs. Duchesne and Lemay on Monday—mistaking them for Orangemen—was put back for trial at the Queen's Bench. He pleaded as an excuse that he was drunk and knew not what he was doing.

WITH AND WITHOUT.—There was an immense difference, observable in the physique, dress and general appearance of the Protestants who attended Hackett's funeral on Monday, through sympathy and the Orangemen proper. The former looked like gentlemen and behaved like gentlemen and were disgusted at the conduct of the brethren on St. James St.

ASSAULT.—Three men dressed in uniform, it is alleged, attacked a party of men in the East end, about 12 o'clock Monday night, knocking one man down and kicking him, and inflicting several injuries. One of the assailants drew a revolver and was about to fire at the defenceless man; but was prevented from doing so by his comrade. Application is being made for a warrant against the soldiers.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—About one o'clock, during the storm, the house of Mr. Westgate, of the firm of Davis and Westgate, 126 St. Mary street, was struck by lightning and slightly damaged. Mr. Westgate, the only occupant at the time, received a severe shock, which rendered him insensible for some seconds. He describes the sensation as rather puzzling. His hearing was not affected, but he was unable to move for about half a minute.

AN OFFICIAL PARTISAN.—Mr. Robinson of Kingston who made the great bloodthirsty speech on Monday while in command of the Kingston detachment fainted twice, from what cause we cannot say, probably from emotion. He is, we are informed, an official connected with the Kingston Penitentiary and if so his conduct is a proper subject of enquiry, we call the attention of the Dominion Government to the matter.

INQUESTS.—The enquiry into the deaths of John McKeown and Thomas L. Hackett are still proceeding, and as the sworn testimony is taken considerable light is thrown upon matters which modify in a grand degree the pre-conceived ideas of the Star and Witness. The canard about the clergyman having been refused the duty of praying over one of the dead men is completely refuted, and as Mr. Carroll asserts in his letter, there was no clergyman present whatsoever.

OKA.—Judge Coursol arrived at Oka on the 16th and opened the investigation by order of the Quebec Government into late affairs at Oka, Fathers Lacan, Thibault and others were examined, and their testimony was found in accordance with the statements as they appeared in the True Witness. An Indian woman named Ponspelle, testified to the firing of the cannon and the setting fire to the Seminary by armed Indians, and on the strength of the evidence adduced His Honor issued warrants for the arrest of three Indians, alleged incendiaries, one of which was executed, and Xavier Decaire placed in durance.

IN A BAD WAY.—William Elliott, the Orangeman who was wounded in the fray near Wellington Bridge, on Wednesday night, is in a precarious condition. The bullet entered near the spine, at the small of the back, and lodged in the kidneys. Slight hopes of his recovery are entertained. A report of his death was bruited abroad yesterday, but there was no foundation for it. He is reported as progressing favorably this (Wednesday) morning, and is able to tell his own story. Of course he and the party he was with behaved like lambs and actually did nothing, and, of course, his assailants were everything vile. One thing however is certain that after wounding him they put him in a cab and sent him straight off to the General Hospital.

CHARLES GARTH & CO.
536 to 542 CRAIG STREET.

MONSIGNOR FABRE AT ST. ANTOINE ABBEY.—The Pastoral visit of his Lordship Bishop Fabre to St. Antoine Abbey on Saturday and Sunday the 14th and 15th was the occasion of more than ordinary ceremonies. Besides administering the Sacrament of Confirmation to 350 children, his Lordship raised to the Holy order of Priesthood Rev. J. Mallette and M. Charbonneau, theological students of St. Therese Seminary. His Lordship in an eloquent discourse in both languages clearly defined the series of ceremonies attending the Mass of Ordination and demonstrated the grand dignity of Priesthood, he also complimented the parishioners for the good will manifested and generous sacrifice made in the erection of a spacious commodious stone Church and a presbytery since his previous visit three years ago: Many of the Clergy and laity of the adjacent parishes were present.

ACQUITTED.—The volunteer Fitzpatrick who bayoneted McKeown, has been acquitted by the jury. The following is the verdict:—Wherefore the jurors aforesaid, upon the rolls aforesaid, do say and declare that, having given patient and close investigation into the cause of the death of the late John McKeown, which occurred on Wednesday afternoon, the seventh day of July instant, in the city of Montreal, we are unanimously of opinion, after hearing full evidence, that the deceased John McKeown came to his death by a bayonet wound, in resisting arrest, at the hands of Francis Fitzpatrick, private of the 65th Regiment of Rifles, Canadian Militia, in consequence of having unlawfully interfered with the said Francis Fitzpatrick, while engaged in the duties of sentry at the Quebec Gate Barracks, and in the discharge of his proper duties as such, and we exonerate the said Francis Fitzpatrick from all criminal culpability in the premises.

CANADIAN ITEMS.

DIVIDEND.—The Quebec and Lewis Ferry Company have just paid a half yearly dividend of six per cent. A few shares of this company's stock have recently been sold at forty-five premium.

RECEPTION.—Montreal Orangemen are expected in Toronto as a delegation to the Grand Lodge; arrangements are being made for a reception and banquet on Thursday evening.

RECEPTION.—A mass meeting of Orangemen was held in Ottawa, on Monday evening, when arrangements were made to give the brethren who went to Montreal a grand reception on their return home.

DIED.—A woman named Hickey, an inmate of the county goal, arrested for vagrancy last May, died Monday morning about 5 o'clock, in Ottawa. An inquest was held and a verdict returned of death from diphtheria.

DROWNED.—A store keeper named James McBride was found drowned at Newton Brook on Sunday; one report stated that he was seized with a cramp while in the water and another that he committed suicide.

POSTPONED.—At the Police Court, Toronto on Monday, the preliminary investigation into a charge made of conspiring to defraud the shareholders of the Toronto Gold Mining Company, was postponed till August 16th.

INQUEST.—The Coroner's inquest on the body of the old man who died on the steamer "Bermida" terminated in a verdict of death from natural causes. The name of "W. Schouler" was marked on several articles of his clothing.

THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.—The steamer "Iruid," with the Governor-General and countess of Dufferin, arrived in Quebec from a fishing cruise in the gulf at an early hour on Monday. Their Excellencies left for Montreal by boat this evening, en route for Ottawa and Manitoba.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During a thunder storm at Waterford, Ont., on Monday, the lightning struck the house of David Lester, and running down the stovepipe struck Mrs. Lester in the breast, and coursed down her body to her feet, setting fire to her clothes, and burning her severely. Though fearfully shocked, it is thought she will recover.

PRESENTATION.—On Saturday evening a deputation from St. George's Society waited upon Captain Simmonds, on board the "Queen Victoria," and in a quiet manner, presented him with a copy of a resolution adopted at a special general meeting of that body recently held. The resolution was finally engrossed on parchment, and bore the corporate seal of the Society.

THE INDIANS.—Traders from the West report that now two thousand lodges are in the vicinity of Wood Mountain, and the band led by Sitting Bull has recently arrived. It is thought here that the outrage at Wood Mountain was not a very important affair, because the trader, whose brother it is alleged had been carried away a prisoner, remained in Winnipeg two days without communicating with the authorities or newspaper offices. The Free Press states that the total emigration of Sioux into the West does not exceed six hundred lodges. The recent outrage at Wood End occurred two mile south of the boundary.

HOMICIDE.—A shocking homicide took place in the township of London on Friday night last. That evening two men, named William Willis, and Josiah Badfield, the latter a blacksmith of Davis, were walking home together from Prospect Hill. On the way, feeling weary, both lay down for a sleep. The story goes that Badfield was awakened by his friends endeavours to rob him. A fight ensued, which culminated in Badfield being struck by Willis a blow over the head with a club, from the effects of which he died two hours afterwards. An inquest was held and a verdict rendered that the deceased came to his death by a blow at the hands of William Willis. The latter was arrested and brought to London gaol under a commitment for trial at next assizes. The prisoner is a farmer of about 27 years of age, and a native of the township of Blanchard.
