Mercantile Summary.

McGREGOR & KNIGHT, stationers, Halifax, have assigned with liabilities of $25,000.

A. E. GOYETTE, jeweller of but recent establishment in Montreal, has gone into insolvency, and owes about $4,000.

ELLIOTT, FINLAYSON & Co., jobbing wine and spirit merchants, of Montreal, have assigned on demand of a London house; liabilities about $10,000.

A LOWER province paper says a man should not go to the States unless he is sure of a job, as the labor market is very much depressed; but if he is sure of a job he cannot go, for he will not be allowed to land.

MR. E. H. DUNHAM, the proprietor of the "Balmoral" hotel, Montreal, is in embarrassed shape, with liabilities of some $80,000, but negotiations are pending which it is expected will result in his being able to continue.

A. J. PARKER, a general dealer of West Winchester, Ont., has failed with liabilities of $4,500. He had only moved to that place a year ago from Hawkesbury.—J. Lumsden, a trader of Almonte, has also assigned.

C. H. WAKEFIELD & Co., clothiers, Sherbrooke, Que., are endeavoring to effect a settlement at 25c. on the dollar. Mr. Wakefield had been previously unfortunate some two or three years ago, and had latterly been doing business in his sister's name.

TRURO, N. S., is a live town and has made great progress during the last eight or ten years. When incorporated in 1875, its total property valuation for assessment (about one-third its real valuation) was only $885,150; in 1887 it was $1,200,000. Much building is continually going on, and a number of new industries are being set in operation. It is destined to become one of the most progressive towns in the Maritime Provinces.
