

THE ONLY CATHOLIC WEEKLY PUBLISHED IN ENGLISH BETWEEN LONDON (UNTARIO) AND THE PACIFIC COAST

VOL. XVIII, No. 49.

Persons and Facts

The Oblate Fathers of the diocese of St. Boniface commenced their retreat in St. Mary's church Tuesday morning. It is expected about 40 of the clergy will attend. Rev. Father Jodouin, a distinguished priest from Montreal, arrived from Germain celebrated his golden jubithe east vesterday morning and lee at St. Boniface, Father Dandurwill preach to the reverend Fathers in their retreat. It is also expected that His Grace Archbishop Lan- same Rev. Father that celebrated, gevin will address the clergy.

The contract for the new St. Mary's school has not yet been awarded. Tenders will be opened some time this week, and the contract awarded. It is not intended to do more than build the foundation this fall, and the school will not be ready for occupation for a year hence. The new place of education for the Roman Catholic children in the city will be along the same lines as the public schools.

The following is the personel of the St. Boniface College for the year 1903 :- Rev. H. Hudon, S.J., Rector. Father C. Chaput, S. J., Prefect. Father D. Plante, S. J., S.J., Professor of Philosophy. Fa-Sciences. Father A. Chossegros, appearance. In all probability the ago. S.J., Professor of Literature. Fa- citizens of Brandon will never again ther J. Jette, S.J., Professor of have an opportunity of witnessing Mathematics. Father G. LeBel, S. such a grand ceremony. His Grace Professor of Versification. Fa- was assisted on this magnificent ther F. X. Robichaud, S.J., Pro- occasion by the following clergy: fessor of Method. Father J. Le- Rev. Father Lemieux, C.SS.R., Chire, S.J., Professor of Syntax, vice-provincial of the Redemptor- in the city. Father J. D'Orsonneus, S.J., Professor of Latin Elements. Father Superior of Ste. Anne de Beaupre, J. McDonald, S.J., Professor of 1st Quebec; Rev. Fr. Dugas, Vicar-Gen-Commercial Course. Father F. Ken- eral, St. Boniface; Rev. Father Trunedy, S.J., Professor of 2nd Com- del, the Archbishop's private Secmercial Course. Father W. Rey- retary; Rev. Father Poitras, O.M.I., nolds, S.J., Professor of 3rd Com- St. Mary-s, Winnipeg; Rev. Father mercial Course. Mr. Courcoux, Prolessor of French. Father S. Veil- Lake; Rev. Father Morand, Alma, leux, S.J., Professor of English. Assa.; Rev. Father Brancherean, Assistant Prefects: Fathers L. Arcand, S.J., P. de Mangeleer, S.J., perior of the Trappist Order, St. avenue. F. X. Bellavance, S.J., A. Messier, S.J.

ST. BONIFACE CITIZENS AND SOCIALISTS.

A community is within its rights bald and Francis. when it refuses to have preache

WINNIPEG, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1903.

{$1.00 per year (Single Copies 5 cent ### of Mr. Hector Germain to Miss read and presented to His Grace an Loiselle. One remarkable feature in address from the parishioners.

this connection is that the Rev.

Father Dandurand, who is now 84

years of age, and who has been 63 years a priest, had officiated, in 1845 in Ottawa, at the marriage of

of young Hector Germain. Fifty years later when the said Nazaire and presided at the joyous and ime posing ceremony. In 1871 it was the at Ottawa, the marriage of George

Germain, son of Nazaire Germain, and father of the above named Hector Germain. May the dear and reverend old priest live long enough

Brandon Notes.

On Saturday His Grace the Archbishop of St. Boniface consecrated the beautiful new church which has been erected by the Redemptorist

Fathers here—a church which, when completed, would do justice to the largest cities or wealthiest congregations of our Dominion. The interior is 52x84, with a seating cap-is of gothic architecture of the 13th ists; Rev. Father Denys, C. SS. R.,

Antoine; Rev. Father Bouillon, Oak

Norbert; Rev. Father Heymen,

Brussells, and the following Redemptorists of Brandon: Rev. Fa-laire, and Brothers Joseph, Isa-

that the Catholics of Brandon would not be remiss in this all-im-

to see the fourth generation.

At 1.30 a dinner was given in the school-room, which was attended by the Archbishop, the Redemptorists and visiting clergy, the benefactors of the church and a number Nazaire Germain, the grandfather of leading citizens.

> In the afternoon the members of the following societies of St. Augustine's church met His Grace and presented him with addresses: The C.M.B.A., the Ladies of Mercy, the cent lad was not duly appreciated Children of Mary, and the Boys' Society, to each of which the Archbishop replied with his genial word of encouragement and advice.

At 7 p.m. the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament took place. The church was again filled to the doors. His Grace spoke most elaquently on Faith as a divine gift, and a gift which anyone, whoever he may be, may lose through infidelity or immorality.

The music, at all the services, was excellent. Mrs. Bullard acted as organist and Brother Isabald as leader, while the regular choir was assisted by some of the finest voices of the city, who kindly rendered their services for the grand occasion.

Among those confirmed on Sun-Bursar. Father Lewis Drummond, acity of four hundred. The building day was Mrs. W. H. O'Sullivan. who had the happiness of being rether J. Blain, S.J., Professor of century and presents a very fine ceived into the church a few months

> Mr. James N. Murphy, of Winnipeg, was a visitor in the city on Sunday.

Mr. Edmond Drury, of Rapid City, spent Saturday and Sunday

Miss May Maloney, of Oak Lake, returned home on Monday, after visiting friends here.

The Misses Herriot, of Soaris. have been guests at the convent during the past few days.

Mr. W. Bertrand and bride have returned from the east, and have taken up their residence in their Moosomin; Rev. Father Lewis, Su- home on 6th street and Princess

The many friends and pupils of St. Michael's convent will regret to hear that Mother St. Germaine, so pick it up quickly, and are in a few thers Godts, Charles, Paquay, Lie-loved and respected by all who had years adapts in the art of liptaert, Borgonie. Vrydags and De- the happiness of knowing her, has reading. been sent to the convent at Qu'Ap- I have given you a glimpse of the who, as the eloquent preacher, Rev. they generally go down town. C. Chaput, S.J., of St. Boniface soul." Father Chaput, who had ing and printing. come expressly for the funeral, A paper called "The Silent Echo" God in calling to himself an inno- instructor. by a shortsighed world which, after all, did not realize the delights of heaven. The funeral services were ing at 8 o'clock 'Father Chaput sang the soul of Vincent Clavet.

OUR DEAF AND DUMB SCHOOL

The school which I have been attending for the past three years is situated at the corner of Portage avenue and Sherbrooke street, and although not as large as many other schools for the deaf in Canada, from an educational point of Editor Northwest Review. view, it is considered one of the best. There are at present about seventy pupils attending, and a glance into the class-room, to see some of their work, is well worth taking.

There are four class-rooms in all, four divisions. The method of teachgraphy, Canadian and English hisnames and uses of everything. This makes the progress of their education very slow, and unlimited patience is required on the part of the teachers.

The semi-mutes have a class-room to themselves, and are taught lipof the pupils take to lip-reading naturally, but others have to be taught word by word, but they memory of the sixteen-year-old boy | are free to do what they wish, and

The boys occupy the new build-College, said, "was taken away ing, which was built two years lest wickedness should alter his un- ago, and is called "McFadden's derstanding or deceit beguile his Hall." They are taught carpenter-preached a stirring sermon from is published semi-monthly, and is Isa. 55: "My thought are not nearly all printed by the pupils. your thoughts, nor your ways my The local news is written by the ways," showing how the mercy of pupils, but the rest is done by their

Ed. Note .-- The above was written by an ex-pupil of the Deaf and Dumb Institute. It will prove very conducted by Rev. Father Neahlt, interesting, not only because it rector of St. Andrew's. Next morn- makes us acquainted with the details of the regulations of that cola Requiem Mass for the repose of lege, but more so because it prompts us to an expression of deep gratitude towards those who devote themselves to the welfare of a class so worthy of our heartielt sympathy and protection.

CORRESPONDENCE

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 26, 1903.

Dear Sir,-In the Monday evening issue of the Free Press we read that the choice of the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda in recommending Dr. Bourne as successor to the late Cardinal Vaughan, "is not popular among English Cathoand each class-room has three or lics.j' Such a statement deserves only the credence which a paper, ing is the best adapted to the deaf, with a reputation like the Free and the subjects taught are geo- Press, can give it. But apart from this point of view, I think it well tory, arithmetic, newspaper work to correct the misrepresentation, and language. The last named is and to assure Winnipeg Catholics the most important of all, because that such a state of affairs does deaf mutes have no language of not exist. I have the pleasure of their own, and must be taught the being personally acquainted with the Bishop of Southwark, and can, therefore, speak from actual knowledge.

English Catholics may be surprised that Dr. Bourne has been recommended to fill such an important post, but the surprise cannot reading, and to articulate. Some bring unpopularity with it. For seven years now he has ruled the diocese of Southwark, and on all sides can be seen evidences of his liberality of mind and his zeal for the cause of the Church in England. He has been the undoubted champion of the school system and pelle. Let us hope that her health class-room and studies, so will tell has done more to keep the workmay be benefited by the change, as you something about the hours ing boy in touch with his pastor, any other Bishop in England. He has stood up fearlessly on all occasions for the flock which he rules and to him is due in a large measure the better feeling which exists day. But the cause for which he has labored most and the one dearest to his heart is the training of capable priests to carry on the work of saving souls in the vast wildernesses of the London slums. Mainly through his exerti ns the country. Dr. Bourne is still a comparatively young man, but before many olics will bless the day on which he was chosen, if please God he should be, to take up the staff so ably carried by the late Arch-

The consecration it doctrines of any kind it deems a.m., after which the clergy and this is, we understand, the chief spent out of them. Well to begin after school days are over, than place at distasteful and obnoxious. It is people entered the divine edifice in cause of her departure. likewise fairly within its rights procession. The Archbishop comwhen it refuses to allow its streets plimented Rev. Father Godts and or thoroughfares to be used for his congregation upon the erection Redemptorist Fathers, opened on Public gatherings when such incon- of so grand a church, and exhorted Tuesday with large numbers of Venience public traffic. The Social- the people to be exact in performists who visited St. Boniface are of ing their duties towards God in the same class and apparently faith which they so earnestly propreach the same vagaries as those fessed. High Mass was then celewho beat the air in Winnipeg. It brated by Rev. Father Godts, pasis a mental effort to get down to tor of the church. their compass. In endeavoring to illustrate the economy of municipal On Sunday morning His Grace enterprise one speaker instanced the the Archbishop celebrated mass at Postoffice. This old, this venerable- eight o'clock. The entire Catholic with-age institution, was the product of one of the old parties - every communicant in the parish struggle of the mayor's son, Vineither the Tory or the Liberal. received from his hand. Nevertheless it is one of the best At High Mass, which took place exemplifications of Socialism, and at 10.30 a.m., even so spacious a yet it comes from the bad work building could scarcely accommoeither of one or the other of the date the crowd. After mass, His two parties that these "unfurnish- Grace preached on the Sacrament, found his health failing, and thereed brows" so soundly condemn. So about to be administered, Confirharrow is their mental vision that mation, showing clearly its divine rest and change of scene did him they condemn the goose that laid the golden egg. Every year, just tance. He also urged the people to as the community' develops civic study the doctrines of the Church, ability, other public conveniences and exhorted parents to avail themwill come, as the postoffice came, selves of the grand opportunity offrom either one of the parties that fered by the Sisters of St. Michael's happens to be strong enough at the convent, in giving to their children time public opinion is ripe for such. a thorough Catholic and at the these extreme, ironbound machine same time most efficient and prac-Politicians, miscalled Socialists, are tical education. He stated most one of the disintegrating elements emphatically that it was the duty of communal progress.-Free Press. of every Catholic to send his children to a Catholic school, and hoped

THIRD GENERATION.

1

the 11th of August last the Rev. portant duty.

St. Michael's convent, and also the Polish school conducted by the pupils in attendance.

Vincent Clavet.

The town of Port Arthur had been watching for days the brave cent, with approaching death, when the grim reaper at last did his fell work on Friday, Aug. 28. Vincent was studying at St. Boniface College when, last May, his parents fore took him home. At first the origin and thence its great impor- good, but four weeks ago he was prostrated with typhoid fever and finally succumbed. Vincent was a boy of more than ordinary virtue and he faced the end with perfect calm, receiving all the last rites of the Church. His father, Mr. George Clavet, with true Christian spirit. prayed that his son might be spared, but only on condition that he should grow up to be a good practical Catholic.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. It was one of the largest ever seen in Port Arthur. No dom after five o'clock. After confirmation had been ad- lowed the hearse. St. Andrew's In the morning the girls sweep cide, near Morris, was anything but with, we get up at half-past six o'clock and have breakfast at halfpast seven o'clock. When it is over we all line out of the dining-room, except the girls whose duty it is to wash the dishes. The other girls towards our brethren at home tomake their beds and sweep the rooms, and five minutes to nine o'clock all line for chapel. The Principal says pravers, then all the papils go to their different classrooms, where they remain until ten minutes to twelve. At twelve sharp we have dinner. After dinner the diocese of Southwark has to-day girls on duty wash the dishest while one of the best seminaries in the the other girls are free to amuse themselves in any way they desire until half-past one; then all line for school. At three o'clock sharp years have passed all English Cathschool closes. The little ones go out to play.

The older girls go into the sewing-room and learn plain sewing, mending and fancy-work until five bishop. Yours, etc., o'clock. From five o'clock until six o'clock they play out of doors, if the weather permits; sometimes they go for a walk. At six o'clock we have supper, and after that we generally play gase-ball until study hour, which begins at seven o'clock and lasts until eight o'clock. The certain Louis Hudson, farm laborfittle ones go to bed right after study hour, and the other girls are all expected to have retired at a quarter past nine o'clock.

The girls who learn dress-making school, but are allowed more free-

St. Jean Baptiste the marriage ministered, Mr. W. H. O'Sullivan church was one mass of flowers in their rooms, and in the afternoon a Frenchman.

IVAN A. McKENNA.

A FRENCHMAN SUICIDED.

Under the above heading the Telegram of July 29th informs its readers of a suicide committed by a er, near Morris.

We would be greatly obliged to the Telegram if it would kindly tell us the source of its information regarding the nationality of Louis keep the same hours as those in Hudson. The name is certainly anything but French, and besides, we have it from very responsible