

Annex H

Bursary Recipients

Ipsita Nita Chauhuri To attend a seminar: The UN — Towards a New International Humanitarian Order, Geneva, July 13-29, 1987	$500	John Polanyi University of Toronto Translation of paper "Peace in the 1980s"	300
Marco Labrie Publicity materials for Forum sur la paix	475	A.M. Bryans Canadian Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War, Kingston Publicity materials for Forum on Nuclear Issues	400
Stephanie McCandless Reford To speak at a conference of the International Network for Global Education in Pecs, Hungary	500	Paul George Acadia University, Nova Scotia To attend Shastri Institute Conference, India	500
Nicholas Parker To attend Bruntland Forum, New York	500	Michel Chevalier York University To explore research collaboration between the Institute for African Studies and the Academy of Sciences of the USSR.	500
John Barrett To speak at a forum Chemical Weapons Convention: Progress and Remaining Problems, New York	450	Koozma J. Tarasoff To present a paper at a conference on Tourism: Vital Force for Peace, Vancouver	500
William Klassen University of Toronto To attend Budapest Seminar: Towards a Theology of Peace	500
		TOTAL	$5,125

Annex I

Award Programme

$25,000 Award

James Rochlin, Edmonton, Alberta, to continue doctoral work on Central America at the University of Alberta and conduct research in Central America.

$14,000 Awards

Walter Dorn, Agincourt, Ontario, to study the aspects of control of chemicals and biological warfare at the University of Toronto.

Kevin Leppmann, Ottawa, Ontario, to study the social psychology of international conflict theory at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Doug Mohr, Waterloo, Ontario, to study the social psychology of activism in international peace and security at the University of Waterloo.

Erika Simpson, Toronto, Ontario, to study issues of alternative defence at the University of Toronto.

Brian Stevenson, Kingston, Ontario, to pursue research on Central America at Queen's University and in Mexico.